PEACE TERMS PRESENTED TO GERMANY

SUMMARY SHOWS HOW POWER OF FOE ENDS

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

NEW YORK, May 7.—An official summary of the peace treaty delivered to the German delegates at Versailles by the representatives of the associated powers was made public here today by the committee on public information. It includes this clause:

"In addition to the securities afforded in the treaty of peace the President of the United States has pledged himself to propose to the Senate of the United States, and the Prime Minister of Great Britain has pledged himself to propose to the Parliament of Great Britain in engagement, subject to the approval of the council of the league of nations, to come immediately to the assistance of France in case unprovoked attack by Germany."

IT IS LONGEST TREATY EVER DRAWN.

Following is summary of treaty of peace:

"Paris, May 7.—The treaty of peace between the twenty-seven allied and associated powers on the one hand and Germany on the other, was handed to the German plenipotentiaries at Versailles today.

"It is the longest treaty ever drawn. It totals about eighty thousand words divided into fifteen main sections and represents the combined product of over a thousand experts working continually through a series of commissions for the three and a half months since January 18, the treaty being printed in parallel pages of English and French, which are recognized as having equal validity. It does not deal with questions affecting Austria, Bulgaria and Turkey except insofar as binding Germany to accept any agreement reached with those former allies.

COVENANT OF LEAGUE SECTION IS FIRST.

"Following the preamble and deposition of powers comes the covenant of the league of nations as the first section of the treaty. The frontiers of Germany in Europe are defined in the second section; European political classes given in the third; European political classes in the fourth. Next are the military, naval and air terms as the fifth section, followed by a section on prisoners of war and military graves and a seventh on responsibilities. Reparations, financial terms and economic terms are covered in sections eight to ten. Then comes the aeronautic section, ports, waterways and railways section, the labor covenant, the section on guarantees and the final clauses.

"Germany by the terms of the treaty restores Alsace-Lorraine to France, accepts the internationalization of the Saar Basin temporarily and of Danzig permanently, agrees to territorial changes toward Belgium and Denmark and East Prussia, cedes most of upper Silesia to Poland, and renounces all territorial and political rights outside Europe, as to her own or her allies' territories, especially to Morocco, Egypt, Siam, Liberia and Shantung. She also recognizes the total independence of German-Austria, Czecho-Slovavia and Poland.

ARMY REDUCED TO HUNDRED THOUSAND.

"Her army is reduced to one hundred thousand men, including officers; conscription within her territories is abolished; all forts fifty kilometers east of the Rhine razed and all importation, exportation and nearly all production of war material stopped. Allied occupation of parts of Germany will continue until reparation is made, but will be reduced at the end of each of three five-year periods if Germany is fulfilling her obligations. Any violation by Germany of the conditions as to the zone fifty kilometers east of the Rhine will be regarded as an act of war.

"The German navy is reduced to six battleships, six light cruisers and twelve torpedo boats, without submarines, and a personnel of not over fifteen thousand. All other vessels must be surrendered or destroyed. Germany is forbidden to build forts controlling the Baltic, must demolish Heligoland, open the Kiel canal to all nations and surrender her fourteen submarine cables. She may have no military or naval air forces except one hundred unarmed seaplanes until October 1 to detect mines, and may manufacture aviation material for six months.

"Germany accepts full responsibility for all damages caused to allied and associated government and nationals, agrees specifically to reimburse all civilian damages beginning

United States and Great Britain Pledge Their Support To France in Event of Future German Attacks

Text of the Treaty Which Germany Must Sign to Insure Future Peace of the World; Conditions Binding

Reparation Is Provided for Ruin Wrought by Foe in Belgium and France; Must Pay 20 Billion Marks Now

WASHINGTON, May 7.—Following is the partial text of the peace treaty as given out here this afternoon:

PREAMBLE — The preamble names as parties of the one part the United States, the British Empire, France, Italy and Japan, described as the five allied and associated powers, and Belgium, Bolivia, Brazil, China, Cuba, Ecuador, Greece, Guatemala, Haiti, The Hedjaz, Honduras, Liberia, Nicaragua, Panama, Peru, Portugal, Rumania, Serbia, Siam, Czecho-Slovak, Poland and Uruguay, who, with the five above, are described as the allied and associated powers, and on the other part, Germany.

It states that: Bearing in mind that on the request of the then imperial German government an armistice was granted on November 11, 1918, by the five allied and associated powers, in order that a treaty of peace might be concluded with her, and whereas the allied and associated powers being equally desirous that the war in which they were successfully involved directly or indirectly and which originated in the declaration of war by Austria-Hungary on July 28, 1914, against Serbia, the declaration of war by Germany against Russia on August 1, 1914, and against France on August 3, 1914, and in the invasion of Belgium, should be replaced by a firm, just and durable peace, the plenipotentiaries having communicated their full powers found in good and due form, have agreed as follows:

STATE OF WAR TO END WITH SIGNING.

From the coming into force of the present treaty the state of war will terminate. From the moment and subject to the provisions of this treaty official relations with Germany and with each of the German states, will be resumed by the allied and associated powers.

SECTION I—League of Nations. The covenant of the league of nations constitutes section 1 of the peace treaty, which places upon the league many specific duties in addition to its general duties. It may question Germany at any time for a violation of the neutralized zone east of the Rhine as a threat against the world's peace. It will appoint three of the five members of the Saar commission, oversee its regime and carry out the plebescite. It will appoint the high commissioner of Danzig, guarantee the independence of the free city and arrange for treaties between Danzig and Germany and Poland. It will work out the mandatory system to be applied to the former German colonies and act as a final court in part of the plebescites of the Belgian-German frontier, and in disputes as to the Kiel canal and decide certain of the economic and financial bombardments.

LABOR CONFERENCE TO BE HELD.

An international conference on labor is to be held in October, under its direction and another in the international control of ports, waterways and railways is foreshadowed.

MEMBERSHIP—The members of the league will be the signatories of the covenant and other states invited to accede, who must lodge a declaration of accession without reservation within two months. A new state, dominion or colony may be admitted provided its admission is agreed by two-thirds of the assembly. A state may withdraw upon giving two years' notice, if it has fulfilled all its international obligations.

SECRETARIAT—A permanent secretariat will be established at the seat of the league which will be at Geneva.

ASSEMBLY TO MEET AT STATED INTERVALS.

ASSEMBLY—The assembly will consist of representatives of the members of the league and will meet at stated intervals. Voting will be by states. Each member will have one vote and not more than three representatives.

COUNCIL—The council will consist of representatives of the five great allied powers together with representatives of four members selected by the assembly from time to time; it may co-operate with additional states and will meet at least once a year. Members not represented will be invited to send a representative when questions affecting their interests are discussed. Voting will be by states. Each state will have one vote and not more than one representative. Decision taken by the assembly and council must be unanimous except in regard to procedure and in certain cases specified in the covenant and in the treaty, where decisions will be by a majority.

ARMAMENT—The council will formulate plans for a reduction of armaments for consideration and adoption. These plans will be revised every ten years. Once they are with any party to the dispute which complies with it. If a member fails to carry out the award, the council will propose the necessary measures. The council will formulate plans for the establishment of a permanent court of international justice to determine international disputes or to give advisory opinions.

Members who do not submit their case to arbitration must accept the jurisdiction of the assembly. If the council less the parties to the dispute, is unanimously agreed upon the right of it, the members agree that they will not go to war with any party to the dispute which complies with its recommendations. In this case a recommendation by the assembly adopted, no member must exceed the armaments fixed without the concurrence of the council. All members will exchange full information as to armaments and programs, and a permanent commission will advise the council on military and naval questions.

WAR PREVENTION IS PROVIDED FOR.

PREVENTING OF WAR—Upon any war, or threat of war, the council will meet to consider what common action shall be taken. Members are pledged to submit matters of dispute to arbitration or inquiry and not to resort to war until three months after the award. Members agree to carry out an arbitral award and not to go to war unless concurred in by all members represented on the council and a simple majority of the rest, less the parties to the dispute, and will have the force of a unanimous recommendation by the council. In either case if the necessary agreement cannot be secured the members reserve the right to take such action as may be necessary for the maintenance of right and justice. Members resorting to war in disregard of the covenant will immediately be debarred from all intercourse with other members. The council will in such cases consider what military or naval action can be taken by the league collectively for the protection of the covenants and will afford facilities to members co-operating in this enterprise.

VALIDITY OF TREATIES—All treaties or entanglements concluded after the institution of the league will be registered with the secretariat and published. The assembly may from time to time advise members to reconsider treaties which have become inapplicable or involve danger of peace. The covenant abrogates all obligations between members inconsistent with its terms, but nothing in it shall affect the validity of international engagement such as treaties of arbitration or regional understandings like the Monroe Doctrine for securing the maintenance of peace.

THE MANDATORY SYSTEM—The tutelage of nations not yet able to stand by themselves will be entrusted to advanced nations who are best fitted to undertake it. The covenant recognizes three different stages of development requiring different kinds of mandatories; Communities like those belonging to the Turkish empire which can be provisionally recognized as independent, subject to advice and assistance from a mandatory in whose selection they would be allowed a voice. Communities like those of Central Africa, to be administered by the mandatory under conditions generally approved by the members of the league where equal opportunities for trade will be allowed to all members; certain abuses, such as trade in slaves, arms and liquor, will be prohibited, and the construction of military and naval bases and the introduction of compulsory military training will be disallowed. Other communities such as Southwest Africa and the South Pacific islands, but administered under the laws of the mandatory as integral portions of its territory. In every case the mandatory will render an annual report, and the degree it will be defined.

GENERAL INTERNATIONAL PROVISIONS—Subject to and in accordance with the provisions of international conventions existing or hereafter to be agreed upon the members of the league will in general endeavor through the international organization established by the labor convention to secure and maintain fair conditions of labor for men women and children in their own countries and other countries and undertake to secure just treatment of the native inhabitants of territories under their control; they will entrust the league with the general supervision of the execution of agreements for the suppression of traffic in women and children, etc.; and the control of the trade in arms and ammunition countries in which control is necessary, they will make provision for freedom of communications and transit and equitable treatment for commerce of all members of the league with special reference to the necessities of regions devastated during the war; and they will endeavor to take steps for international prevention and control of disease.

International bureaus and commissions already established will be placed under the league, as well as those to be established in the future.

AMENDMENTS TO THE COVENANT—Amendments to the covenant will take effect when ratified by the council and by a majority of the assembly.

ALSACE-LORRAINE CEDED TO FRANCE.

BOUNDARIES OF GERMANY—Germany cedes to France, Alsace-Lorraine, five thousand six hundred square miles, and to Belgium two small districts between Luxemburg and Holland, totalling nine hundred and eighty-nine square miles. She also cedes to Poland the southeastern tip of Silesia beyond and including Oppeln, most of Posen and West Prussia, 27,686 square miles. East Prussia being isolated from the main body by a part of Poland. She loses sovereignty over the northeasternmost tip of East Prussia, forty square miles north of the river Memel and the internationalized areas about Danzig, seven hundred and twenty-nine square miles and the basin of the Saar, seven hundred and thirty-eight square miles between the western border of the Rhenish Palatinate of Bavaria and the southeast corner of Luxemburg. The Danzig area consists of the V between the Nogat and Vistula rivers made a W by the addition of similar V on the west including the city of Danzig. The southeastern third of East Prussia and the area between East Prussia and the Vistula north of latitude fifty-three degrees thirty-seven minutes is to have its nationality determined by popular vote, five thousand seven hundred and eighty-five square miles, as is to be the case in part of Sliswig, two thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven square miles.

BELGIUM—Germany is to consent to the abrogation of the treaties of eighteen thirty-nine by which Belgium was established as a neutral state and to agree in advance to any convention with which the allied and associated powers may determine to replace them. She is to recognize the full sovereignty of Belgium over the contested territory of Moresnet and over part of Prussian Moresnet and to renounce in favor of Belgium all rights of the circles of Eupen and Malmedy, the inhabitants of which are to be entitled within six months to protest against this change of sovereignty either in whole or in part, the final decision to be reserved to the league of nations. A commission is to settle the details of the frontier, and various regulations for change of nationality are laid down.

ANY VIOLATION TO BE HOSTILE ACT.

LUXEMBURG — Germany renounces her various treaties and conventions with the grand duchy of Luxemburg, recognizes that it ceased to be a part of the German Zollereign from January first last, renounces all right of exploitation of the railroads, adheres to the abrogation of its neutrality and accepts in advance any international agreement as to it, reached by the allied and associated powers.

LEFT BANK OF THE RHINE—As provided in the military clauses, Germany will not maintain any fortifications or armed forces less than fifty kilometers to the east of the Rhine; hold any maneuvers, or maintain any works to facilitate mobilization. In case of violation, "she shall be regarded as committing a hostile act against the powers who sign the present treaty and as intending to disturb the peace of the world."

By virtue of the present treaty Germany shall be bound to respond to any request for an explanation which the council of the league of nations may think it necessary to address to her.

ALSACE-LORRAINE — After recognition of the moral obligation to repair the wrong done in eighteen seventy-one by Germany to France and the people of Alsace-Lorraine, the territories ceded to Germany by the treaty of Frankfort are restored to France with their frontiers as before eighteen seventy-one, to date from the signing of the armistice, and to be free of all public debts.

Citizenship is regulated by detailed provisions distinguishing those who are immediately restored to full French citizenship, those who have to make formal applications therefor, and those for whom naturalization is open after three years.

PROPERTY PASSES WITHOUT PAYMENT.

The last named class includes German residents in Alsace-Lorraine, as distinguished from those who acquire the position of Alsace-Lorrainers as defined in the treaty. All public property and all private property of German ex-sovereigns passes to France without payment or credit. France is substituted for Germany as regards ownership of the railroads and rights over concessions of tramways. The Rhine bridges pass to France with the obligation for their upkeep.

For five years manufactured products of Alsace-Lorraine will be admitted to Germany free of duty to a total amount not exceeding in any year the average of the three years preceding the war, and textile materials may be imported from Germany to Alsace-Lorraine and re-exported free of duty. Contracts for electric power from the right bank must be continued for ten years.

For seven years, with possible extension to ten, the ports of Kehae and Strassheugh shall be administered as a single unit by a fresh administerer appointed and supervised by the central Rhine commission.

Property rights will be safeguarded in both ports and equality of treatment as respects traffic assured the nationals, vessels and goods of every country. Contracts between Alsace-Lorrainers and Germans are maintained save for France's right to annul on grounds of public interest. Judgments of courts hold in certain classes of cases, while in others a judicial exequatur is first required. Political conderanations during the war are null and void, and the obligation to repay war fines is established as in other parts of allied territory.

Various clauses adjust the general provisions of the treaty to the social conditions of Alsace-Lorraine, certain matters of execution being left to conventions to be made between France and Germany.

SAAR COAL MINES CEDED BY GERMANY.

THE SAAR—In compensation for the destruction of coal mines for Northern France and as payment on account of reparation, Germany cedes to France full ownership of coal mines of the Saar basin with their subsidiaries, accessaries and facilities. Their values will be estimated by the reparation committee and credited against that account. The French rights will be governed by German law in force at the armistice, excepting war legislation, France replacing the present owners whom Germany undertakes to indemnify. France will continue to furnish the present proportion of coal for local needs and contribute in just proportion to local taxes.

The basin extends from the frontier of Lorraine, as reannexed to France, north as far as St. Wendel, including on the west the Valley of the Saar as far as Saaholzbach and on the east the town of Homburg.

FOUR NATIONS TO HAVE CONTROL.

In order to secure the rights and welfare of the population and to guarantee to France entire freedom in working the mines, the territory will be governed by a commission appointed by the League of Nations and consisting of four members—one French, a native inhabitant of the Saar, and three representing three different countries other than France and Germany. The league will appoint a member of the commission as chairman to act as executive of the commission.

The commission will have all powers of government formerly belonging to the German empire. Prussia and Bavaria will administer the railroads and other public services and have full power to interpret the treaty clauses. The local courts will continue, but subject to the commission. Existing German legislation will remain the basis of the law, but the commission may make modification after consulting a local representative assembly which it will organize. It will have the taxing power, but for local purposes only.

TAXES MUST BE APPROVED BY ASSEMBLY.

New taxes must be approved by this assembly. Labor legislation will consider the wishes of the local labor organizations and the labor program of the league. French and other labor may be freely utilized, the former being free to belong to French unions.

All rights acquired as to pensions and social insurance will be maintained by the German and Saar commission.

There will be no military service, but only a local gendarmerie to preserve order. The people will preserve their local assemblies, religious liberties, schools and language, but may vote only for local assemblies. They will keep their present nationality except so far as individuals may change it. Those wishing to leave will have every facility with respect to their property.

PART OF FRENCH CUSTOMS SYSTEM.

The territory will form part of the French customs system with no export tax on coal and metallurgical products going to Germany, nor on German products entering the basin, and for five years no import duties or products of the basin going to Germany or German products coming into the basin for local consumption. French money may circulate without restriction.

After fifteen years a plebiscite will be held by communes to ascertain the desires of the population as to continuance of the existing regime under the league of nations, union with France or union with Germany. The right to vote will belong to all inhabitants over 20 resident therein at the signature. Taking into account the opinions thus expressed, the league will decide the ultimatum sovereignty. In any portion restored to Germany the German government must buy out the French mines at an appraised valuation.

If the price is not paid within six months thereafter this portion passes finally to France. If Germany buys back the mines, the league will determine how much of the coal shall be annually sold to France.

GERMAN-AUSTRIA — Germany recognizes the total independence of German-Austria in the boundaries traced.

CZECHO-SLOVAKIA — Germany recognizes the entire independence of the Czecho-Slovak state, including the autonomous territory of the Ruthenians south of the Carpathians and accepts the frontiers of this state as to be determined, which in the case of the German frontier shall follow the frontier of Bohemia in 1914. The usual stipulations as to acquisition and change of nationality follow:

UPPER SILESIA CREDITED TO POLAND.

POLAND—Germany cedes to Poland the greater part of Upper Silesia, Posen and the province of West Prussia on the left bank of the Vistula. A field boundary commission of seven, five representing the allied and associated powers and one each representing Poland and Germany shall be constituted within fifteen days of the peace to delimit this boundary. Such special provisions as are necessary to protect racial, linguistic or religious minorities and to protect freedom of transit and equitable treatment of commerce of other nations shall be laid down in a subsequent treaty between the five allied and associated powers and Poland.

EAST PRUSSIA—The southern and the eastern frontier of East Prussia as (word obscure) Poland is to be fixed by plebiscites, the first in the regency of Allenstein between the southern frontier of East Prussia and the northern frontier of Regierungsbesirk Allenstein from which it reaches its boundary between East and West Prussia to its junction with the boundary between the circles of Oletskko and Augersburg, then the northern boundary of Oletsko to its junction with the present frontier, and the second in the area comprising the circles of Stuhme and Rosenburg and the parts of the circles of Marienburg and Marienwerder, east of the Vistula.

GERMAN TROOPS MUST MOVE OUT.

In each case German troops and authorities will move out within 15 days of the peace and the territories be placed under an international committee of five members appointed by the five allied and associated powers with the particular duty of arranging for a free, fair and secret vote. The commission will report the results of the plebiscites to the five powers with a rec-

HUNS MAKE REPLY; SAY "HUMANE" AS ALLIES

BY UNITED PRESS
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE

VERSAILLES, May 7.—The Germans received the peace treaty at 3:17 this afternoon.

Presentation of the treaty followed a brief speech by Premier Clemenceau, chairman of the peace conference, in which he welcomed the delegates.

The manuscript of the treaty, translated in German, was handed to the enemy representatives by Secretary Dutasta.

After receiving the treaty the Germans presented a written reply. It was read in German and interpreted in English and French, two sentences at a time.

The reply admitted the wrong to Belgium and declared Germany's willingness to make reparation. It stated that so far as the conduct of the war was concerned Germany was "as humane as the allies."

The allies killed many Germans after the armistice was signed, it was charged in the reply. The measure of guilt can only be determined through an impartial inquiry, said the Germans, who added that their archives are available.

GERMAN REPLY CITES "14 POINTS."

In this conference, according to the statement, the Germans are alone, but not lacking in allies. The allies themselves brought the German allies—the principles of peace. The allies and their associates, it was pointed out, agreed to a peace of justice without violence. In November, 1918, Secretary Lansing declared the allies agreed to peace on the basis of President Wilson's fourteen points, as the Germans had asked.

The German reply figures that the war was not in vain if a real league of nations is formed, in which all nations will have an equal chance. The Germans declared their willingness to make reparation for the devastation wrought in France and Belgium, but said they would not consent to the use of German war prisoners in the work of restoration.

The reply suggested that a board of experts determine the method of restoration. The last words of Foreign Minister Brockdorff-Rantzau, chairman of the enemy delegation, who read the statement, were:

"We shall examine the documents submitted to us with good will and in the hope that there will be a peace to which all may subscribe."

Premier Clemenceau then declared the meeting adjourned.

The meeting adjourned at 3:58 p. m.

GERMANS SAY "NO INDEMNITY."

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE

PARIS, May 7.—The German delegates to the peace congress declare that they will sign the peace treaty, but that Germany will not pay an indemnity.

When the terms of peace are handed to the Germans this afternoon Mrs. Wilson, wife of President Wilson, says the Intransegant, probably will be present.

France, the United States and Great Britain have concluded an agreement giving supplementary guarantees for France and security for the peace treaty, the Echo de Paris today says it has learned. It adds that Premiers Clemenceau and Lloyd George will, at a meeting this morning, draft in final form this additional pact, which will not be secret.

PARIS, May 7.—(By United Press.)—Premier Orlando and Foreign Minister Sonnino, the Italian delegates, arrived here from Rome shortly after 10 o'clock this morning.

Orlando immediately went into conference with the other members of the "big four."

ommendation for the boundary and will terminate its work as soon as the boundary has been laid down and the new authorities set up.

The five allied and associated powers will draw up regulations assuring East Prussia full and equitable access to and use of the Vistula.

A subsequent convention, of which the terms will be fixed by the five allied and associated powers, will be entered into between Poland, Germany and Danzig to assure suitable railroad communication across German territory on the right bank of the Vistula between Poland and Danzig, while Poland shall grant free passage from East Prussia to Germany.

The northeastern corner of East Prussia about Memel is to be ceded by Germany to the Associated powers, the former agreeing to accept the settlement made, especially as regards the nationality of the inhabitants.

FREE CITY OF DANZIG GUARANTEED.

DANZIG—Danzig and the district immediately about it is to be constituted into the "free city of Danzig" under the guarantee of the league of nations.

A high commissioner appointed by the league and president at Danzig shall draw up a constitution in agreement with the duly appointed representatives of the city, and shall deal in the first instance with all differences arising between the city and Poland. The actual boundaries of the city shall be delimited by a commission appointed within six months from the peace and to include three representatives chosen by the allied and associated powers and one each by Germany and Poland.

POLAND ASSURED FREE USE OF DANZIG.

A convention, the terms of which shall be fixed by the five allied and associated powers, shall be concluded between Poland and Danzig which shall include Danzig within the Polish customs frontiers through a free area in the port; insure to Poland the free use of all the city's waterways, docks and other port facilities, the control and administration of the Vistula and the whole through railway system within the city and postal, telegraphic and telephonic communication between Poland and Danzig; provide against discrimination against Poles within the city and place its foreign relations and the diplomatic protection of its citizens abroad in charge of Poland.

DENMARK — The frontier between Germany and Denmark will be fixed by the self-determination of the population. Ten days from the peace, German troops and authorities shall evacuate the region north of the line running from the mouth of the Schlei, south of Kappel, Schleswig and Friedrichstadt along the Eider to the North Sea south of Tonning; the workmen's and soldiers' councils shall be dissolved; and the territory administered by an international commission of five of whom Norway and Sweden shall be invited to name two.

FREE AND SECRET VOTE IN ZONES.

The commission shall insure a free and secret vote in three zones. That between the German-Danish frontier and a line running south of the island of Alsen, north of Flensburg and south of Tondern to the North Sea, north of the island of Sylt will vote as a unit within three weeks after the evacuation.

Within five weeks of this vote the second zone, whose southern boundary runs from the North Sea south of the island of Fehr to the Baltic south of Sygum, will vote by communes. Two weeks after that vote the third zone running to the limit of evacuation also will vote by communes.

The commission will then draw a new frontier on the basis of these plebiscites and with due regard for geographical and economic conditions. Germany will renounce all sovereignty over territories north of this line in favor of the associated governments, who will hand them over to Denmark.

HUN FORTIFICATIONS TO BE DESTROYED.

HELIGOLAND — The fortifications, military establishments and harbors of the islands of Heligoland and Dune are to be destroyed under the supervision of the allies by German labor and at Germany's expense. They may not be reconstructed for any similar fortifications built in the future.

RUSSIA—Germany agrees to respect as permanent and inalienable the independency of all territories which were part of the former Russian empire, to accept the abrogation of the Brest-Litovsk and other treaties entered into with the Maximilist government of Russia, to recognize the full force of all treaties entered into by the allied and associated powers with states which were a part of the former Russian empire and to recognize the frontiers as determined here. The allied and associated powers formally reserve the right of Russia to obtain restitution and reparation on the principles of the present treaty.

GERMAN RIGHTS OUTSIDE EUROPE—Outside of Europe Germany renounces all rights, titles and privileges as to her own or her allies' territories to all the allied and associated powers and undertakes to accept whatever measures are taken by the five allied powers in relation thereto.

ALL OVERSEAS POSSESSIONS LOST.

COLONIES AND OVERSEAS POSSESSION—Germany renounces in favor of the allied and associated powers her overseas possessions with all rights and titles therein. All moveable and immovable property belonging to the German empire or to any German state shall pass to the government exercising authority therein.

These governments may make whatever provisions seem suitable for the repatriation of German nationals and as to the conditions on therein. All movable and immovable property of German origin shall reside, hold property or carry on business. Germany undertakes to pay reparation for damages suffered by French nationals in the Cameroons, or its frontier zone through the acts of German civil and military authorities and of individual Germans from January 1, 1900, to August 1, 1914.

Germany renounces all rights under the convention of the 4th of November, 1911, and 28th September, 1912, and undertakes to pay France in accordance with an estimate presented and approved by the repatriation commission all deposits, credits, advances, etc., thereby secured. Germany undertakes to accept and observe any provisions by the allied and associated powers as to the trade in arms and spirits in Africa as well as to the general act of Berlin of 1885 and the general act of Brussels of 1890.

Diplomatic protection to inhabitants of former German colonies is to be given by the governments exercising authority.

GERMANY RENOUNCES PRIVILEGES IN CHINA.

CHINA—Germany renounces in favor of China all privileges and indemnities resulting from the Boxer protocol of 1901, and all buildings in which barracks, forts, munitions or warships, wireless plants and other public property except diplomatic or consular establishments in the German concessions of Tien Tsin and Hankow and in other Chinese territory except Kiao Chau, and agrees to return to China at her own expense all the astronomical instruments, seized in 1900 and 1901. China will, however, take no measures for disposal of German property in the legation quarter at Peking without the consent of the powers signatory to the Boxer protocol.

Germany accepts the abrogation of the concessions at Hankow and Tien Tsin, China, agreeing to open them to international use. Germany renounces all claims against China, or any allied and associated government for the internment or repatriation of her citizens in China and the seizure or liquidation of German interests there since August 14, 1917. She renounces in favor of Great Britain her state property in the British concession at Canton, and of France and China jointly of the property of the German school in the French concession at Shanghai.

ALL CLAIMS AGAINST SIAM ARE WAIVED.

SIAM—German recognizes that all agreements between herself and Siam including the right of extraterritoriality ceased July 22, 1917. All German public property, except consular and diplomatic premises, goes to Siam. German private property to be dealt with in accordance with the economic clauses. Germany waives all claims against Siam for the seizue and condemnation of her ships, liquidation of her property or internment of her nationals.

LIBERIA—Germany renounces all rights under the international agreements of 1911 and 1912 regarding Liberia, more particularly the right to nominate a receiver of the customs, and disinterest herself in any further negotiations for the rehabilitation of Liberia.

She regards as abrogated all commercial treaties and agreements between herself and Liberia and recognizes Liberia's right to determine the status and condition of the re-establishment of Germans in Liberia.

MOROCCO—Germany renounces all her rights, titles and privileges under the act of Algeciras and the Franco-German agreements of 1909 and 1911 and under all treaties and arrangements with the Sherifian empire. She undertakes not to intervene in any negotiation as to Morocco between France and other powers, accepts all the consequences of the French protectorate and renounces the capitulations, the Sherifian government shall have complete liberty of action in regard to German nationals and all German protected persons shall be subject to the common law. All movable and immovable German property, including mining rights, may be sold at public auction, the proceeds to be paid to the Sherifian government and deducted from the reparation account. Germany is also required to relinquish her interests in the States Bank of Morocco. All Moroccan goods entering Germany shall have the same privilege as French goods.

EGYPT—Germany recognizes the German protectorate over Egypt declared on December 18, 1914, and renounces as from August 4, 1914, the capitulation and all the treaties, agreements, etc., concluded by her with Egypt. She undertakes not to intervene in any negotiation about Egypt between Great Britain and other powers.

There are provisions for jurisdiction over German nationals and property and for German consent to any changes which may be made in relation to the commission.

CONSENTS TO TRANSFER OF POWER TO BRITAIN.

Germany consents to the transfer to Great Britain of the powers given to the late Sultan of Turkey for securing the free navigation of the Suez Canal. Arrangements for property belonging to German nations in Egypt are made similar to those in the case of Morocco and other countries. Angelo-Egyptian goods entering Germany shall enjoy the same treatment as British goods.

TURKEY AND BULGARIA — Germany accepts all arrangements which the allied and associate powers make with Turkey and Bulgaria, with reference to any right, privileges or interests claimed in those countries by Germany or her nationals and not dealt with elsewhere.

SHANTUNG—Germany cedes to Japan all rights, titles and privileges as to Kiao Chau, the railroads, mines, and cables acquired by her treaty with China of March 6, 1898, and other agreements as to Shantung.

GERMAN RIGHTS IN CHINA GIVEN JAPAN.

All German rights to the railroads from Tsing Tao to Tsinanfu, including all facilities and mining rights and rights of exploitation, pass equally to Japan, and the cables from Tsing Tao to Shanghai and Chee Foo, the cables free of all charges. All German state property, movable and immovable, in Kiao Chow is acquired by Japan free of all charges.

MILITARY, NAVAL AND AIR—In order to render possible the initiation of a general limitation of the armaments of all nations, Germany undertakes directly to observe the military, naval and air clauses which follow:

MILITARY FORCES — The demobilization of the German army must take place within two months of the peace. Its strength may not exceed one hundred thousand, including four thousand officers with not over seven divisions of infantry and three of cavalry, and to be devoted exclusively to maintenance of internal order and control of frontiers. Divisions may not be grouped under more than two army corps headquarters' staffs. The great German general staff is abolished.

The army administrative service, consisting of civilian personnel not included in the number of effectives is reduced to one-tenth the total in the 1913 budget. Employes of the German states such as customs officers, first guards and coast guards may not exceed the number in 1913. Gendarmes and local police may be increased only in accordance with the growth of population. None of these may be assembled for military training.

ARMAMENTS — All establishments for the maintaining, preparation, storage or design of arms and munitions of war, except those specifically excepted, must be closed within three months of the peace and their personnel dismissed.

The exact amount of armament and munitions allowed Germany is laid down in detailed tables, all in excess to be surrendered, or rendered useless. The making or importation of asphyxiating, poisonous or other gases and all analagous liquids is forbidden, as well as the importation of arms, munitions and war materials. Germany may not manufacture such materials for foreign governments.

CONSCRIPTION — Conscription is abolished in Germany. The enlisted personnel must be maintained by voluntary enlistments for terms of twelve consecutive years, the number of discharges before the expiration of that term not in any year to exceed 5 per cent of the total effectives.

Officers remaining in the service must agree to serve to the age of 45 years and newly appointed officers must agree to serve actively for five years. No military schools except those absolutely indispensable for the units allowed shall exist in Germany two months after the peace. No associations such as societies of discharged soldiers, shooting or touring clubs, educational establishments or universities may occupy themselves with military matters.

All measures of mobilization are forbidden.

ALL FORTRESSES TO BE DISMANTLED.

FORTRESSES—All fortified works, fortresses and field works situated in German territory within a zone of fifty kilometers east of the Rhine will be dismantled within three months. The construction of any new fortifications there is forbidden. The fortified works on the southern and eastern frontiers, however, may remain.

CONTROL—Inter-allied commissions of control will see to the execution of provisions to which a time limit is set, the maximum named being three months. They may establish headquarters at the German seat of government and go to any part of Germany desired. Germany must give them complete facilities, pay their expenses and also the expenses of execution of the treaty, including th labor and material necessary in demolition, destruction or surrender of war equipment.

NAVAL—The German navy must be demobolized within a period of two months after the peace. She will be allowed six small battleships, six light cruisers, twelve destroyers, twelve torpedo boats and no submarines, either military or commercial, with a personnel of 15,000 men, including officers, and no reserve force of any character.

Conscription is abollshed, only voluntary service being permitted, with a minimum period of 25 years' service for officers and 12 for men. No member of the German mercantile marine will be permitted any naval training.

All German vessels of war in foreign ports, and the German high sea fleet interned at Scapa Flow will be surrendered, the final disposition of these ships to be decided upon by the allied and associated powers. Germany must surrender 42 modern destroyers, 15 modern torpedo boats, and all submarines, with their salvage vessels. All war vessels under construction, including submarines, must be broken up. War vessels not otherwise provided for are to be placed in reserve or used for commercial purposes.

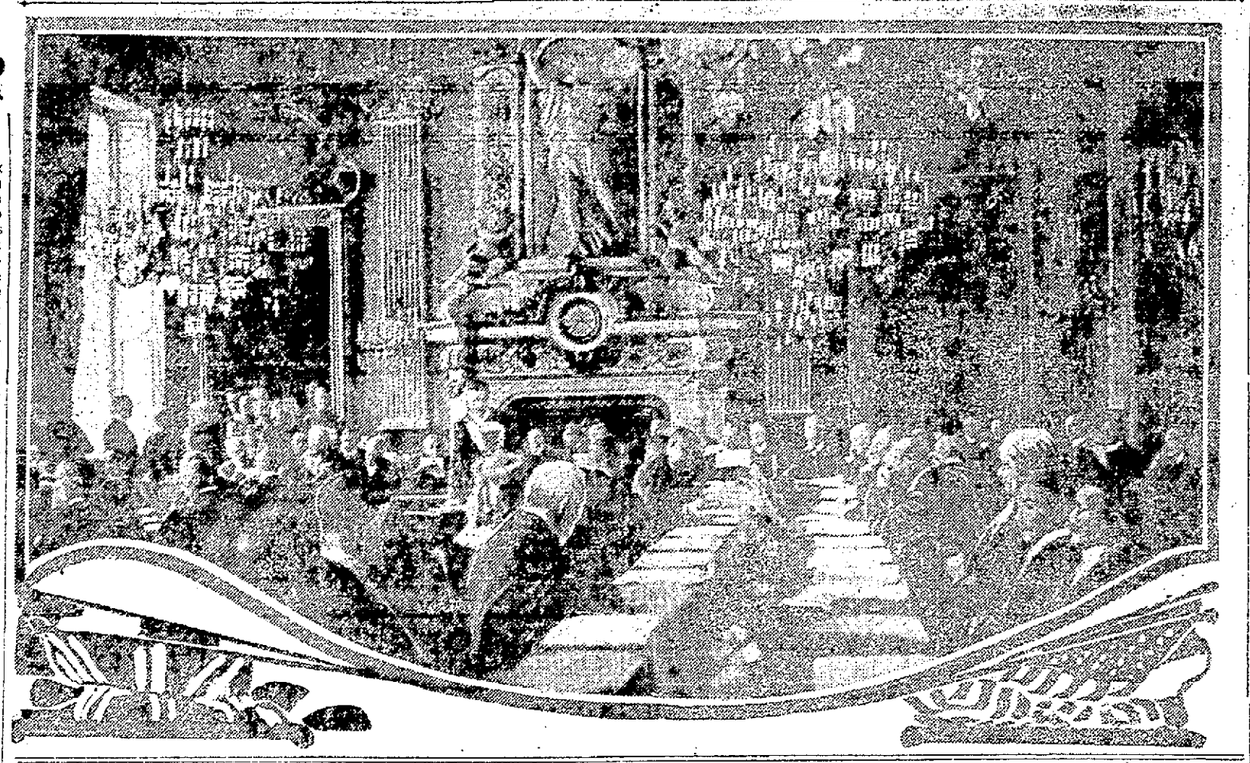

Replacement of ships except those lost can take place only at the end of twenty years for battleships and fifteen years for destroyers. The largest armored ship Germany will be permitted will be 10,000 tons.

GERMANY REQUIRED TO SWEEP UP MINES.

Germany is required to sweep up the mines in the North Sea and the Baltic, as decided upon by the allies.

All German fortifications in the Baltic defending the passages through the belts must be demolished. Other coast defenses are permitted, but the number and caliber of the guns must not be increased.

French Flags of 1870 War Must Be Returned by Huns

Germany must agree to build 200,000 tons of shipping annually for the account of the allies for five years, according to the peace treaty.

Germany must restore French flags takenin Franco-Prussian war of 1870.

Germany must pay entire cost of armies of occupation from date of armistice.

Clearing houses to be established in all belligerent countries to handle adjustment of pre-war debts and contracts.

Allies may liquidate German property to their nationals by German nationals.

Fire insurance contracts not considered dissolved by the war.

Germany Must Give Up Vast Territory To Three Nations

The peace terms include the following points concerning territorial concessions:

Germany cedes to Belgium 382 square miles of territory between Luxemburg and Holland.

Germany's cession to Poland isolates East Prussia from the remainder of Germany.

Germany's cessions to Poland comprise 27,686 square miles; to France, 5600 square miles (Alsace-Lorraine).

Germany consents to the treaty establishing Belgium as a neutral state.

All Hohenzollern property in Alsace-Lorraine goes to France without payment.

France gains permanent possession of Saar coal mines, regardless of result of Saar plebiscite.

Germany to Lose Rights in Morocco, China and Egypt

China, Japan, Morocco and Egypt all figure in sections of the peace treaty.

Germany renounces to China remainder of Boxer indemnities.

Germany renounces to China all public property and concessions in China except Kiao Chau.

Germany renounces all rights in Morocco.

Germany recognizes British protectorate over Egypt.

Germany cedes to Japan all rights in Shantung Peninsula.

German Indemnity Payments To Cover Period of 30 Years

The total of German indemnities will be determined by an inter-allied commission before May 1, 1921, after a fair hearing, according to the peace treaty.

Schedule will be fixed for discharge of German indemnity obligations within thirty years.

Germany's initial indemnity payment (twenty billion marks) shall be made in gold, goods and ships.

Germany must pay civilians for acts of cruelty ordered by her representatives.

Germany must pay for maltreatment of prisoners.

Italy Gets Fiume As Mandatory of League of Nations

PARIS, May 7.—(By the Associated Press).—As a basis of resuming participation in the peace negotiations, Premier Orlando accepted a proposal that Italy administer Fiume as a mandatory of the league of nations until 1923, after which Fiume will revert to Italian sovereignty.

During the Italian administration a harbor for the Jugo-Slavs will be built at a port lower down the Adriatic coast. The harbor will have railroad communication with Agram and other cities.

Italy, it is understood, is also prepared to make sacrifices of some of her other claims on the Dalmatian coast.

The proposal which induced the Italians to return to Paris was made to them by Camille Barrere, the French ambassador at Rome.

LATIN IS GIVEN U. C. DEATH BLOW

"Letting down the bars" to the university, by eliminating in certain cases Latin and other old-time requirements for entrance, in a system of co-operation between the university and the high schools of the state, has been perfected, as the result of the conference held recently in Oakland between State Superintendent of Schools W. C. Wood, Superintendent Fred M. Hunter and C. A. Olney, commissioner of state secondary education.

Under the new system vocational subjects in high schools will be given credit for university entrances, with the recommendation of the principal, this practically revolutionizing the system of matriculation. It means that Latin, Greek and other subjects will be thrown into the discard in favor of mechanical subjects, citizenship and practical education.

The new requirements adopted for the state high schools following a meeting of university and state school authorities go into effect July 1. Under the system a student will be able to enter the state university with a high school education in English, which may include one unit of citizenship classes with mechanical instruction, mathematics, including mechanical drawing, history and social science, physical and biological science, three or more units in one foreign language and United States history and laboratory instruction.

The University senate, in concurring with this radical reform, has stipulated that a special principal's recommendation will be necessary to students entering college in this way. With this recommendation the student enters without condition.

The plan, first suggested by Superintendent Hunter, was offered for the purpose of making practical to modern needs the education of the high school student. Hunter's experience was that boys, planning first to take vocational high school work, later desired to enter the university only to be hampered by having to "make up" subjects not needed for practical education. This, especially in war time, he discovered, contributed to inefficiency.

The university, in lowering the bars during the war for student soldiers, found that so much good material was unearthed that could not be admitted under the old system and lent a ready ear to the proposed changes.

Graduates of the Oakland schools this year will be able to avail themselves of the new requirements.

DISAPPEARS WHEN HUSBAND BURIED

Immediately following the funeral of her husband yesterday afternoon, Mrs. May Sturgess disappeared from her home, 619 Fourteenth street, and has not been seen since, according to Mrs. Mills of 1432 Grove street, who reported the matter to the police this afternoon. Mrs. Sturgess had left a man's gold watch with Mrs. Mills and failed to return for its yesterday afternoon. The missing woman is described as 36 years old, 5 feet 6 inches in height and weighing about 100 pounds. She had $45 in money and a little jewelry when she disappeared. The reason for the woman's disappearance is not known by friends.

U. S. CAVALRY ON BORDER CLASHES WITH MEXICANS

NOGALES, Ariz., May 7. — American troopers of the tenth cavalry and Mexican soldiers clashed early yesterday near Lochiel, thirty miles east of Nogales, Sonora, it was learned here today.

One Mexican was severely wounded and one American cavalryman was captured.

The cavalrymen claim their comrade was taken from the American side of the line while he was unarmed.

The Mexican authorities have agreed to return the captive tonight.

Feeling among the cavalrymen is running high.

$2,150,000,000 Now Victory Loan Total

WASHINGTON, May 7. — Total subscriptions to the Victory Liberty loan had reached approximately $2,150,000,000 today. This was an overnight increase of about $90,000,000.

TERMS WILL SPELL END OF TEUTON POWER

VERSAILLES, May 7.—By Associated Press.)—Germany today was told the terms upon which the allied and associated powers will make peace with her.

These terms were contained in a treaty some 80,000 words in length, which was handed to the German plenipotentiaries at a memorial assemblage here, attended by the delegates of the twenty-seven nations which are parties to the peace pact.

The document is introduced by an extensive preamble, embodying the assertion of authority upon which the treaty is based.

CHANGES EUROPEAN MAP.

Immediately following is the first chapter, the covenant of the league of nations. Of the fourteen principal sections one contains stipulations with regard to frontiers which materially change the map of Europe. Military, naval and air terms are dealt with in another section, while still another is devoted to the subject of reparations. Political stipulations for Europe on the one hand, and outside of it on the other, are dealt with in separate divisions.

The treaty has to do with Germany alone, except insofar as it is required that she accept agreements made by the allies with the other central powers.

The document, long as it is, is shorter than was indicated by some of the forecasts.

The text is in French and in English on opposite pages.

SPELL END OF POWER.

The terms of the treaty spell the end of Germany as a military power. She is deprived of virtually all her flet, her army is cut down to nominal dimensions and she is sharply restricted along lines through which she might seek to work militarily to rehabilitate herself. Economically, also, the future course of Germany is hedged about with stipulations to prevent her from exploiting her old time resources as a strangling competitor of the nations about her.

The ceremonial of handing the treaty to the Germans took place in the hall of the Trianon Palace hotel, a spacious, well lighted chamber with tables for the delegates arranged nearly in the form of a square. It was presided over by Georges Clemenceau, the French premier, president of the peace congress who sat at the center of the head table, with President Wilson and other American representatives on his right and David Lloyd George, the British premier and his colleagues on the left. Mrs. Wilson was an interested spectator of the function.

Elections Blamed for Man's Ravings

The elections "got the goat" of William E. Fealey, 3057 Linden street, who backed Mayor Davie with all his time and money. His sister, Julia R. Fealey, swore to an affidavit charging him with intemperance and caused him to be examined by a lunacy commission today, composed of Judge F. C. Robinson, and Drs. O. D. Hamlin and George Reinle. The sister testified that her brother wandered in and out at all hours of the day and night with strange men, talking wildly about the elections. She said he really got the idea that he was the chief of police and called upon to run the city. The commission decided to give him a few days to sober up and get over his hallucinations and released him.

Is it Your Nerves?

How often you hear the remark, "It's my nerves!" Many strong appearing men and women fret because they do not feel as well as formerly, yet their physicians tell them they have no organic disease. They are weak, listless, sleepless, neuralgic, and have a variable appetite, are excessively irritable and sometimes hysterical. As soon as any of these symptoms appear, Warner's Safe Nervine should be taken according to directions. It has a direct action on the nerves and is a medicine of proven merit. It allays irritability from nervous exhaustion, produces healthful and refreshing sleep, and leaves no unpleasant symptoms. It contains no narcotics and may be taken with no fear of ill effects. To any who suffer from loss of sleep, neuralgia, nervous headaches and nervous prostration, Warner's Safe Nervine brings prompt relief. Sold by leading druggists everywhere. Sample sent on receipt of ten cents. Warner's Safe Remedies Co., Dept. 363, Rochester, N. Y.—Advertisement.

MAP OF EUROPE IS CHANGED

with an initial payment of twenty billion marks, subsequent payments to be secured by bonds to be issued at the discretion of the reparation commission. Germany is to pay shipping damage on a ton-for-ton basis by cession of a large part of her merchant, coasting and river fleets and by new construction; and to devote her economic resources to the rebuilding of the devastated regions.

"She agrees to return to the 1914 most-favored-nation tariffs, without discrimination of sort; to allow allied and associated nationals freedom of transit through her territories and to accept highly detailed provisions as to pre-war debts, unfair competition, internationalization of roads and rivers, and other economic and financial clauses.

GERMANY AGREES TO EX-KAISER'S TRIAL.

"She also agrees to the trial of the ex-kaiser by an international high court for a supreme offense against international morality, and of other nationals for violation of the laws and customs of war. Holland to be asked to extradite the former emperor, and Germany being responsible for delivering the latter.

"The league of nations is accepted by the allied and associated powers as operative and by Germany in principle, but without membership.

"Similarly, an international labor body is brought into being with a permanent office and an annual convention. A great number of international bodies of different kinds and for different purposes are created, some under the league of nations, some to execute the peace treaty, among the former is the commission to govern the Saar Basin till a plebiscite is held fifteen years hence; the high commissioner of Danzig, which is created into a free city under the league, and various commissions for plebiscites in Malmedy, Schlesswig and East Prussia; among those to carry out the peace treaty are the reparation, military, naval, air, financial and economic commissions; the international high court and military tribunals to fix responsibilities, and a series of bodies for the control of international rivers.

OTHER PROBLEMS ARE LEFT FOR SOLUTION.

"Certain problems are left for solution between the allied and associate powers, notably details of the disposition of the German fleet and cables, the former German colonies; and the values paid in reparation.

"Certain other problems such as the laws of the air and the opium, arms and liquor traffic are either agreed to in detail or set for early international action."

Germany to Rebuild Razed Regions

Allied Occupation Awaits Reparation

Following are some of the salient points of the peace treaty:

Allied occupation of parts of Germany to continue until reparation made.

German navy reduced to six battleships, six light cruisers and twelve torpedo boats, with no submarines.

Germany forbidden to build forts controlling the Baltic.

All Heligoland fortifications must be demolished.

Kiel canal to be open to all nations.

Germany must surrender her fourteen submarine cables.

Germany's naval and military air forces abolished after October 1.

Germany to accept full responsibility for all damages to allied and associated governments and nationals.

Germany must reimburse all civilian damages, beginning with an initial payment of 20,000,000,000 marks.

Germany must pay shipping damages ton for ton.

The ex-kaiser to be tried by an international high court.

Germany must devote her economic resources to rebuilding devastated regions.

Germany is responsible for delivering other violators of international law.

Germany to accept the league of nations in principle, but without membership.

ATWOOD UPHELD BY HIS FAMILY

That Charles Atwood of Berkeley, on trial for attempting to murder his wife and two daughters on March 10, was four years ago struck down with an iron bar wielded by a Mexican and tied to a railway track where he was found in time to prevent his being killed by a train, and that since that time he has been insane from the blow, was the testimony of his two sons, William and R. G. Atwood, before Judge A. F. St. Sure today.

The sons said their father was foreman of a plant on the water front. The Mexican, employed there, was discharged, after which he made a threat to "get" Atwood. The sons blamed the present difficulty of the father to the blow he received over the head. They told of numerous scenes during which the defendant would become unconscious, but denied that he was ever quarrelsome or unkind to his wife and children.

Their 20-year-old daughter, Minnie, who according to her testimony at the preliminary hearing, was struck over the head with a hammer on the date of the alleged attempt to murder, was unable to recall the circumstance today on the witness stand. She refused to detail any of the incidents of that date. The other daughter, Bessie, likewise claimed to not be able to remember that she was beaten with a hammer, and the mother told her story in a manner to shield her husband. They are pleading insanity as the defense and the entire family is defending the father.

Divorce Answer Is Filed from France

SAN FRANCISCO, May 7.—Lieutenant Colonel L. M. Logan, who is now stationed at Tours, France, where he is in charge of the shipment of U. S. troops for demobilization, filed an answer today through Attorney Edward Peixotto to the suit for divorce brought by his wife, Ella Ottinger Logan.

Attorney Peixotto had the case transferred from the calendar of Superior Judge Murasky to that of Judge Trout, where it will be heard tomorrow. Colonel Logan denies his wife's charge of desertion but does not ask in his petition that a divorce be denied, requesting merely a further order of court.

Strike Threatened at Copper Plant

REDDING, Cal., May 7.—Boilermakers, electricians, machinists and railwaymen employed by the Mammoth Copper Company at Kennett today made a demand for an increase in wages of 50 cents a day and half holidays for Saturdays. They request a final answer from the company by Saturday.

The management issued to its employees that it will close its mine and smelter for an indefinite period or until copper prices rise if the strike is called and it finds difficulty in getting men for its operation. The Mammoth Company employs 600 men.

DAVIE'S ELECTION IS WHOLLY LEGAL

Despite the state law, which today for a while threatened by a technicality to cause legal troubles for the city election, the jobs of Mayor John L. Davie and the new council are safe.

It all happened because the mayor's name was not on yesterday's ballot—but it all didn't happen after all, because some wise man got an amendment to the city charter through which staved off what otherwise might have meant court complications.

The state general election law provides that all candidates to be chosen must be on a general election ballot and if it were not for that little amendment Mayor Davie's name would have had to be on the ballot yesterday to have made it legal.

But the amendment put through in 1907 and ratified by the legislature provides that when a candidate gets the majority of all votes cast at the primary, that election is a general election as far as the candidate in question is concerned and a certificate of election may be issued at once.

Hence Davy was already elected and therefore there was no office of mayor open for the ballot of yesterday.

"The city charter takes precedence, so far as Oakland is concerned, over the general laws," said City Attorney H. L. Hagan. "If there were no provision regarding this point in the charter, of course the state law or general law would be followed, but the city has the right to specify otherwise than the general law in its charter."

Employer-Employee Closer Bond Urged

Speaking on "Reconstruction and the Employment Problem" at the luncheon of the manufacturers' committee of the Chamber of Commerce in the Hotel Oakland today, Carlsten Schmidt of the Oakland Market, expressed the belief that the reconstruction program can be promoted more satisfactorily by a clearer understanding between the employer and the employee. He said that he believed that the employers and the employees should be organized, not with the object of fighting each other, but for the purpose of co-operation in a way that will prove mutually advantageous.

Schmidt expressed the belief that the labor unrest problem can be solved in a satisfactory way if the matter is properly handled. He held that lack of a clear understanding of the situation was largely responsible for conditions that at present prevail, and expressed confidence that with the inauguration of a campaign of education along that line a plan of action could be adopted that would eliminate many of the difficulties that have hampered rapid progress in reconstruction work.

WORK TO OPEN CONGRESS FOR MAY 19 BEGUN

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE

WASHINGTON, May 7.—White House officials said today that in naming an early date—May 19—for the extra session of Congress President Wilson was guided largely by the advice of Secretary Glass as to the necessity of passing annual appropriation measures which failed in the closing days of the last session.

Secretary Tumulty, in making the announcement, said it would be impossible, of course, for the President to be here on the opening day. The day fixed for the special session was much earlier than Democratic leaders had expected.

There was no information at the White House as to the probable time of the return of the President, but some administration leaders believed the President had called the session earlier than had been anticipated in order that Congress might dispose of the more important appropriation measures before the treaty was ready for consideration.

Republicans of the House virtually have completed their organization, but the Senate has done no organization work and this probably will occupy its attention for the first week.

Senator Lodge, the Republican leader, today issued a call for a Republican conference May 14, to perfect the Senate organization, and Representative Mondell, Republican floor leader, announced a conference of Republican House members for May 17.

BANDIT'S VICTIM DIES OF WOUND

Patrick Beads, a carman, shot three days ago by a masked footpad in West Oakland, died today at the County Infirmary. Beads was shot at Eighth and Kirkham streets while on his way home, when he resisted an attempt of a footpad to hold him up. The bandit fled after the shooting. Captain of Detectives Walter J. Petersen today placed an extra detail of men on the case.

Chicken's Head Cut Off; Quarrel Ensues

"Judge, I didn't call Birdie L. Gurdy or her mother, Mrs. Black, names," Mrs. Lena Barreeno told Judge Mortimer Smith this morning, "but I did say she was a bad prohibitionist."

Miss Gurdy had Mrs. Barreeno and her husband, Frank Barreeno, arrested after a heated argument over the death of a chicken. According to the testimony heard in court this morning, it seems that a chicken belonging to Mrs. Barreeno trespassed on Miss Gurdy's war garden and Miss Gurdy promptly cut its head off with a butcher-knife. When an argument followed, Miss Gurdy called the police.

Judge Smith told the neighbors he would not take any action for three months and would dismiss the case then if no further trouble was reported. As a precaution, however, he sent an officer to see that a proper chicken fence was built between the two houses.

Put Under Arrest After Jail Visit

Because Lester Campbell, a cigar store clerk, felt so sorry for Frank Cross that he had to visit him in jail, Campbell is under arrest today. Cross was removed from the city prison to the Emergency hospital last night to be operated on for appendicitis, the jail hospital not being equipped for such work. Shortly afterward Campbell inquired for him, and in Campbell the police say they recognized Cross' partner in a series of burglaries of which the latter is accused. Campbell was lodged in jail at once.

Cross' tools, turned over to the police by his wife, are being held as evidence in the case and it was through evidence given by the women that Campbell was also arrested. Cross is accused of a number of East Oakland thefts.

$28,000 in Ten Years for Mrs. Henderson

According to the property settlement filed today with the county clerk, Mrs. Diana T. Henderson, of 1827 Arch street, Berkeley, who was awarded a decree of divorce from Henri H. Henderson, hydraulic engineer, for desertion, by Judge A. F. St. Sure, receives $28,000, payable in ten annual installments, with interest. She also receives the furnishings of the Berkeley home and an assignment of a home in Merced and property at Lake Tahoe. Henderson's separate interest in the $100,000 stock of the Rio Tierra Investment Company, owning a large amount of ranch property, was confirmed. Mrs. Henderson is allowed $50 a month for the maintenance of their minor child.

CONFEDERACY DAUGHTERS IN SESSION HERE

The fragrance of magnolias, the scent of lilac, regular Dixie moonlight and memories of the old South, pervade the nineteenth annual convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, meeting at the Hotel Oakland, giving to Oakland something entirely unique in state conventions.

Economies which found no place on the program came near disrupting the state organization this morning when the matter of a Southern settlement woman, a former chapter officer, called upon hard times, was brought forward for consideration by Mrs. William Pritchard, daughter of Mrs. Albert Johnson of Confederate fame. The small tempest in a teapot was evoked in the item of "Annuities" and came at the close of a serious and satisfying session.

Upon hearing that Miss Elsie F. Allen of Monterey had been ousted and that support was taken from her except a monthly stipend of $25 a month, Mrs. C. C. Clay, former state president, made a motion that from the convention a gift of money should be sent for her relief, making the subscription with $20 on behalf of the Albert Stine Johnson chapter, of San Francisco. The debate involved the best way of being generous.

An amendment provided that the assistance be taken from a general fund in monthly installments. Five dollars a month was suggested. Whether or not a woman who was ill could exist on $15 a month was warmly discussed. Mrs. Andrew M. Davis, state president, emphatically favored the general fund plan. This method of assistance was carried by the convention.

TWO-DAY SESSION.

Mrs. Clay brought up the case of Miss Allen the second time, asking that from the meeting some material expression of sympathy be sent. Adjournment was called and the matter went over until a later session, when the debate on economics will again be resumed.

More than one hundred daughters of the old South are gathered for the two-day convention which will adjourn tomorrow night. A big flag of the Confederacy, completely surrounded by the Stars and Stripes, decorates the platform from where national defense, relief of Southern veterans and the men in the present war, aged women and new widows are being impartially discussed.

CLAY EXTENDS WELCOME.

Mrs. C. C. Clay, chairman of the general committee on arrangements, presided as chairman when the important meeting was called to order this morning. Word had come from Mr. or John L. Davie a few minutes before that he would be unable to express the welcome for the city. A hurry call was sent to L. Harison Clay, son of a Southern veteran, who extended the official welcome on behalf of the county.

"The blue of the North and the gray of the South has blended in the brown of the khaki," said Mrs. Yard Hulen of San Francisco in welcoming the delegates on behalf of the five hostess chapters about the bay. Responses were made by Mrs. Sargent of Stockton and Mrs. Herbert Schick of Los Angeles.

Homage to the veterans of the South was expressed in the reading of the ritual.

In the annual report of Mrs. Andrew M. Davis of Berkeley, state president, the membership of the California division was given as 1169, distributed among nineteen chapters.

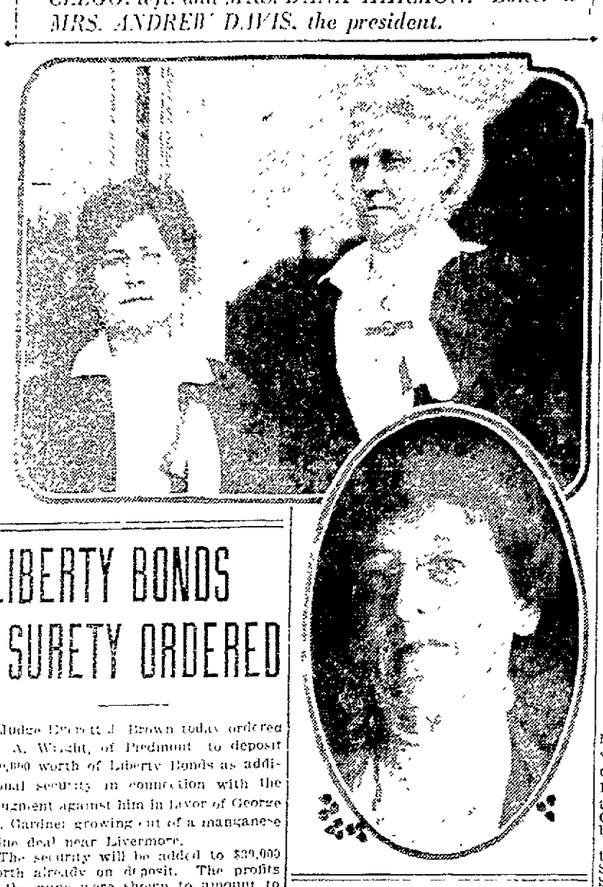

Reports of the following state officers were read: Credentials, Mrs. E. S. Valentine, Berkeley, rules and regulations, Miss L. Du Bradley, Berkeley; recording secretary, Mrs. J. D. Hodgen, San Francisco, corresponding secretary, Mrs. Chester Garfield, treasurer, Miss Elizabeth Bosson.

In honor of the twenty-one members who have died this year a memorial service was held this afternoon. The session was devoted to formal reports of division officers.

The delegates will assemble for an entertainment, reception and dance tonight in the grill room, Hotel Oakland.

A busy session is anticipated for tomorrow, beginning at 9:30 o'clock, with election of officers in the afternoon, followed by an automobile ride.

LIBERTY BONDS SURETY ORDERED

Judge Edward J. Brown today ordered M. A. Wright, of Piedmont to deposit $20,000 worth of Liberty Bonds as additional security in connection with the judgment against him in favor of George W. Gardner growing out of a manganese mine deal near Livermore.

The security will be added to $30,000 worth already on deposit. The profits of the mine were shown to amount to approximately $92,000, and the judgment in Gardner's favor is for half of the amount.

Judge Brown ordered that the government bonds be accepted as surety at par. The securities are to remain in escrow in the bank pending final decision. The defendant has not announced whether or not he will appeal.

According to the testimony Gardner financed the mine's development and was later forced out by Wright for only $500 consideration. It was shown that Wright concealed the values from Gardner, making him believe his half-interest in the mine was of no greater value than $5000, whereas it proved to be worth approximately $15,000.

BUILD HIGHWAYS, URGE VETERANS

A resolution calling upon the city council and the board of supervisors of Alameda county immediately to start all possible road construction and other public work for the purpose of providing employment for returned soldiers during the reconstruction period was unanimously adopted by the War Veterans of Alameda county at their regular meeting at Chabot Hall last night. The resolution will be presented to the city and county bodies by a committee headed by Captain Walter J. Petersen, president of the organization.

Correspondence between the secretary of the War Veterans Fred B. Mellmann and Colonel Theodore Roosevelt regarding the organization of the American Legion, the organization of national scope recently started in France and now being continued in the United States, was read and discussed.

Roosevelt's letters outlined the purposes of a caucus which will be held regarding the American Legion at St. Louis beginning tomorrow. It was unanimously decided to give the proxy of the Alameda county veterans at the St. Louis gathering to Colonel Mathewson of San Francisco, one of the California delegates to the meeting. It is expected that the details of a national convention to be held probably in Chicago some time next November, will be worked out at the St. Louis meeting.

WILLIAMS MAY TAKE OFFICE NOW

Harry G. Williams, auditor-elect, may be empowered, under the city charter, to take the office now held by Fred Le Ballister at once. Friends of Williams, headed by Harry Boyle, a candidate for the office in the primaries, today placed the matter before City Attorney H. L. Hagan.

Under the charter, according to Boyle, Le Ballister was filling an unexpired term, being appointed to take the place of L. H. Clay when the latter left to become county assessor. The vote was to determine whether he should continue to hold this unfilled term or not. Boyle holds, and therefore, under the charter, he contends that Williams has the right to step into the office as soon as his bond is filed.

Hagan said that the point of law involved was too nice a one to decide off-hand, and asked time to look up the statutes. He will render a report in a few days.

In the meantime Boyle, who went over to Williams' support after losing in the primary election, is arranging to get Williams' bond filed as soon as possible, that, if Hagan makes a favorable decision, he may demand the office at once.

"It has been a general rule that short terms or unexpired terms are filled at once on election, and therefore I do not believe that Williams need wait until the first of July to take office," said Boyle. "At any rate his friends are going to have the question tested out."

JAIL INMATE LOST; BUT EATS CALL HIM BACK

"Please, mister, can you show me the way to the jail elevator? They're having dinner up there now, and I'll be late if I don't hurry!"

This is the plea that amazed people around the city hall last evening, until a janitor, who was on the "inside," finally showed Tom Byrnes, trusty the way upstairs. Tom got up, all right, before all the stew was gone from the wash-boiler.

Byrnes, in prison for drunkenness, was made a trusty, and set to work sweeping downstairs. He got lost in the city hall corridors, and couldn't find the jail elevator. Hence all the woe—for the inner man called louder to him than the outer world.

Dog Is Officially Freed from Pound

It took a recommendation by the Associated Charities and an official resolution by the City Council today to get Mrs. L. F. Epstein's dog out of the pound. The resolution was adopted with the utmost gravity on recommendation of Commissioner F. F. Morse.

Mrs. Epstein's dog was picked up because it had no license. The Associated Charities reported that she was too poor to pay the fee to get the animal out, but that the dog was her only friend. Commissioner Morse recommended that in that case all pound fees be waived, but that Mrs. Epstein be asked to obtain a license. The dog was worthwhile released.

NEDDERMAN AND HAGAN MAY LOSE CITY HALL JOBS

Shakeups galore are rumored today about the city hall as the result of yesterday's election. Among those who are said to be slated for removal are City Attorney H. L. Hagan, Chief of Police J. H. Nedderman (with a consequent shakeup in lower police officers.) Harry L. Boyle, school director and former auditor's office candidate, may be placed in the position of chief deputy auditor under Harry G. Williams, whom he backed in the present campaign. Several other minor changes are common gossip.

No intimation of what changes are contemplated would be given officially today by Mayor Davie, but it is known that he and Hagan are not on good terms, and it was openly stated by the mayor earlier in the campaign that he would seek the attorney's removal.

The election of W. H. Edwards means that L. W. Cummings will remain as city clerk, and that there will be no changes in that office. A possible shift in commissionerships is also being discussed about the hall, with probable changes in secretaryships and minor offices. Building Inspector Joseph Lloyd, a Jackson supporter; Ben Jones, secretary to Commissioner F. F. Morse; and a number of lower appointees, are mentioned in this connection. According to friends of Mayor Davie he has no interest in that part of the expected shakeup.

DIRECT PACKAGE SERVICE ASKED

Following a discussion at its meeting last night, the Merchants' Exchange has sent an appeal to Max Thelen, director of public service for the United States Railroad Administration, asking that the straight-package car service which Oakland enjoyed prior to July 15, 1918, be restored.

Since July of last year packages from the east routed to this city over the Santa Fe road have been sent in a San Francisco car, passing through this city, and then reshipped to this side of the bay in another car. In this way a delay of from two to three days has resulted, causing great inconvenience to local merchants, according to officers of the Exchange.

In their appeal to Thelen the members of the Exchange point out the disadvantages with which Oakland business men are confronted and ask that the pre-war service be restored as speedily as possible. Officers of the Exchange express the belief that Thelen will take steps at once to remedy the matter in a way that will prove advantageous to this community. In fact, they say, he has invited constructive criticism of the railroad service rendered under government management, and has promised to remedy unsatisfactory conditions when attention is called to them.

Citizens Thanked By Chief Whitehead

The following statement was issued today by Fire Chief Elliott Whitehead:

"To the Citizens of Oakland: I have been requested by the office and members of the Fire Department and their friends, through the columns of this journal, to thank the citizens and taxpayers of Oakland for their loyal support and generosity to this department as shown by the adoption of Amendment No. 2, granting a two-platoon system.

"It is, indeed, a pleasure to me to be at the head of a Department whose services are so deeply appreciated by the citizens of Oakland. I trust that the same feeling will always exist between the members of the department and yourselves.

"Again thanking you and assuring you that the officers and members of the Fire Department have pledged themselves to make this new two-platoon system 100 per cent efficient, I am,

"Respectfully,

"E. WHITEHEAD,
"Chief of Fire Department."

Elevator Girls Are Replaced by Youths

C. L. Petersen, who recently returned from service overseas, has succeeded Maurice Perrin as head of the dining room service at the Hotel Oakland. Petersen occupied his present position at the Hotel for several years prior to entering the military service.

Charles A. Duffy has been succeeded as room clerk by H. E. Wood, and W. L. Russell has been added to the desk force at the hotel.

Other changes in the working force at the Hotel Oakland include the employment of young men to operate the elevators, which have been in charge of girls since the United States entered the war.

WORKERS OPPOSE PROPOSED AWARD

The shipworkers of the Pacific coast are opposed to the proposed agreement designed to replace the Macy award which was submitted to the recent Washington conference by the shipbuilders of the United States, it became known last night, when the delegates to the annual convention of the Pacific Coast Metal Trades' Council, representing approximately 160,000 men, reported the vote of the unions they represent on the subject of the proposed new agreement.

It is believed that a new agreement will be drafted by the convention which will more satisfactorily meet the demands of the shipworkers on the coast and it is probable that a confernece between representatives of the council and the shipbuilders wil be held before the convention closes.

The convention, which opened last Monday at the Labor Temple, occupied itself this morning with routine business. Before the gathering ends it is expected that some expression of the convention's attitude will be taken on the six-hour day and many other matters of vital importance to shipworkers surrounding working conditions and wage schedules.

MAYOR DAVIE IS AGAIN ON THE JOB

Mayor John L. Davie appeared in the city council today for the first time in four weeks, presiding at the meeting. He had taken a vacation during his campaign and the campaign before the election of yesterday, insofar as council meetings were concerned.

Today's meeting was largely given to Liberty Loan boosting. An estimate of $33,000 as a fair price for the proposed Rockridge park site was received from the real estate board and filed with the budget committee, and routine street matters were passed on. A request was voted by the council that the Board of Education join with the city authorities Friday and Saturday in boosting for the loan.

JAPAN WARNS CHINA; TROUBLE LOOMING AHEAD

TOKYO, May 7 (By The Associated Press).—Japan has notified China that the anti-Japanese agitation in Peking at present is liable to cause misunderstandings. The Japanese government also has advised the Chinese government that it would be well to prohibit the "national disgrace" meeting planned today in Peking.

Higher Clothing Prices Predicted

There is no joy in the horoscope of the careful dresser. He may think the present cost of clothes is high, but it is not a marker to what it will be in the next three or four years. Pax, at any rate, is the conclusion of Arthur Hamage, local clothier, who has just returned from an eastern trip. He says his conclusion is identical with that of mill owners he met throughout his trip, that clothing is cheaper today than it will be for three or four years to come.

MISS SCHOLES TO WED.

RICHMOND, May 7. — Miss Oral Scholes, former Richmond girl, is to be married tomorrow in San Diego to Leonard Price, a merchant of that city. J. F. Scholes, father of the bride-to-be, left Richmond today for the south to attend the ceremony.

ARMY MEETING.

A special meeting will be held at the Scandinavian branch of the Salvation Army, 520 Broadway, tomorrow (Thursday, May 8). Staff Captain Gabrielson from Seattle will have charge of this meeting. A very special program of song and music. The staff captain is well known on the coast as a singer and speaker. All Scandinavian friends are invited to attend this meeting.

DIDN'T WORK A DAY IN 3 YEARS

Oakland Man Says Tanlac Put Him Back On His Feet Again.

"I'm here to tell you that Tanlac put me right back on my feet again when none of the other things I took did me any good, and I was in a bad way, too," said M. Gomes, who lives at 5411 Holland street, Oakland, California, to a Tanlac representative a few days ago. Mr. Gomes has resided in Oakland for eighteen years and is employed by the Moore Shipbuilding Company.

"Last July," continued Mr. Gomes, "I took a course of Tanlac and I haven't missed half a dozen days from work since. That don't sound out of the ordinary, I know, but for three and a half years before that I wasn't able to do a lick of work of any kind, because four years ago my health had broken down completely. I had been working in a cold storage plant and the fumes from the ammonia just got the best of me and I found myself with an awful case of catarrh. My head and throat would fill up so with mucous that I could hardly breathe and I also had a terrible cough along with it and at times I would get to coughing and gagging so I just felt like I couldn't stand it. In just a little while I lost thirty pounds and then my kidneys and liver went back on me. My kidneys hurt me something awful and when I'd stoop over it would take me some time to straighten up again, and I had dizzy spells and headaches most all the time.

"Even my stomach went back on me and I didn't have any appetite at all, and what little I did eat would sour and bloat me up with gas. I took a lot of treatments and I was in the hospital twice, the last time with pneumonia about a year ago, but nothing I took for my catarrh and stomach trouble did me any good to speak of.

"Then I got to hearing a lot about Tanlac and decided to try it and see what it would do. Well, just a month after I started taking it I was out looking for a job and went to work in a lumber yard. My appetite picked up right from the start and it wasn't long before I was eating just anything I wanted, and I didn't have a bit of trouble from sourness or gas in my stomach. My back quit hurting me and I stopped having those awful headaches and dizzy spells and even my catarrh and cough got better. I haven't had a cough now in three months and if I have any catarrh left, I don't know it.

"I got stronger and got to feeling so much better every way that I quit the lumber plant job and went to work at the shipyards, and I have certainly been able to hold up my end just fine and the work hasn't been easy, either, but with all the hard work I am ten pounds heavier than I was when I bought my first bottle of Tanlac. I haven't taken any more since I finished my sixth bottle, because I've been feeling so good, but I am going back to it to see if I can't get back my old weight of 165 pounds, and I believe Tanlac will do it. I am only too glad of a chance to recommend Tanlac to anyone, because I'm sure it will help them just like it did me. Quite a few of the boys down where I work have had fine results from it, too, and they all have a good word for Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in San Francisco and Oakland by The Owl Drug Company stores.—Advertisement.

Bond Solicitor Is Victim of Murderer

MERCED, May 7.—John B. Varian of Pleasant Valley, Mariposa county, who had not been seen since last Friday, when he left on a Victory bond soliciting mission, was found drowned in a ditch near Horseshoe Bend ranch, four miles from his home. That he was struck on the head and thrown into the ditch by some ruffian who believed he had considerable Victory bond first payment money, is the theory advanced. Varain left his coat in the Horseshoe Bend ranch house Friday, with $200 bond pledge money in the pocket. It is not known whether he had funds with him when killed. He was a merchant, aged 65 years.

Oakland Center Program to Give Variety

By GEORGIA G. BORDWELL.

The Oakland Center, California Civic League, will present a program next Friday afternoon which surely ought to draw a crowd and appeal to the entire membership—at least parts of it should—for there is a marked variety to the subjects thereon. Community singing, which always puts everybody in a good humor and a receptive frame of mind, will open the program. Then will follow a talk by Mrs. C. E. Baldwin on "The Alaskan Sled Dog At Work in France," illustrated by Baldy, famous leader of a dog pack in the Alaskan races.

Miss Florence Lutz of the University of California will speak on the interpretative reading of the drama, illustrating it herself by reading a one-act play or two. Miss Lutz is a member of the faculty of the Boston School of Expression and of the Sargeant School of Acting of New York, and the Center feels gratified that a reader of such professional standing consents to appear before it.

The third speech will be by Mrs. A. E. Carter, president of the Women's Legislative Council of California, who has been putting in all her time getting the three bills through the legislature which were the special pet legislation of the council. The three bills went through (awaiting now the governor's signature) and Mrs. Carter will tell the center something about how it was done.

On Friday, May 23, the election of officers will take place. The new officers will be: President, Mrs. Frank G. Law; first vice-president, Mrs. A. F. Coffin; second vice-president, Mrs. B. C. Eddy; recording secretary, Mrs. C. E. Vance; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Grace Williams; treasurer, Miss Carrie Gorrill; auditor, Mrs. A. E. Thurston, Mrs. O. J. Uzafovage; directors, Mrs. R. Townsend, Mrs. May S. Marston, Mrs. Rudolph Miller.

CIVIC CENTER BOARD TELLS OF ITS WORK

Here are notes from the executive board of the Oakland Civic Center:

"Executive board meeting Monday, May 12, at 10:30 a. m.

"The Center took charge of the weighing and measuring of children at Lazier school, during the last drive of the 'children's year.'

"The following women eagerly responded under the splendid direction of the Mesdames Danford and Eddy: The Mesdames Thurston, Fleugler, Pearson, Stewart, Ludlow, Stout, Jacobus, Dudley, Gilette, Hilderbrand, Rickey, Kelley, Henry, Innes, Stone, Ullery and Gorman.

"The following are serving on the executive board for the Victory Loan: Mesdames Ormsby, Eddy, Kelley and Whitworth.

"Under the direction of the Colonels Pearson, Robinson, Kelley, C. H. Mitchell and Preston, president of the Glenview Auxiliary, the following officers are working hard for the Victory Loan: The Mesdames R. Robertson, Fleugler, Nellie Taylor, W. Worley, J. Kincade, L. Smith, P. Bennett, H. Scott, A. Rickey, Katerine Barry, O. Cales, J. Mullin, C. Farley, W. Creighton, F. Hall, H. Houser, P. Gillette, A. Winder, O. Uzafovage, S. Rutter, Seely, Barnes, G. Williams, Innes, Wolf, Thurston, T. Reed, Miss Clara Grove, F. Law, president of Boulevard Civic Section (Aux.) and Miss Diserines, president Woman's Club (Aux.); R. Miller, president Piedmont Civic Center (Aux.)

"Mrs. S. J. Marston has been appointed to represent the Center on the advisory committee on community singing for Oakland, of the War Camp Community Service.

"Mrs. R. E. Danford has been appointed to represent the Center on the Advisory Council of the Big Sisters of the Public Welfare League."

BERKELEY CENTER TO HEAR DISTINGUISHED WOMAN

Berkeley Civic Center will hear Mrs. Ernest Hocking speak on the parents' experiences in school work, at its regular meeting at Unity Hall tomorrow afternoon. Mrs. Hocking is the wife of Professor Hocking of Cambridge, who is lecturing at the University of California this year, and has a message of importance for Berkeley women.

The annual election will take place May 28. In the absence of Mrs. C. R. Hatfield, president of Berkeley Civic Center, Mrs. Ida Blockman is acting as the head of that organization.

SAYS EVERYBODY IS WRITING PLAYS

"Everybody is writing a play or producing a play nowadays," said Samuel J. Hume the other day at the mothers' club convention in Berkeley—and as proof that Sam Hume knew what he was talking about—along comes the announcement today that Lockwood School Parent-Teacher Association has not only written a play, but will produce it with members in the cast.

This play has been written by Mrs. Georgia Spelker, president of the club. It is called "Dixie's Land," and will be presented at Lockwood auditorium on the evenings of May 15 and 16.

The characters will include Uncle Tom, Topsy, the cruel overseer, pickaninnies and "jes' white folks." In reading over the cast there is something strangely familiar about the names of the characters, but we are assured that it is a new play.

The stage effects will be under the management of Mrs. Jack McCutcheon and the costumes will be designed by Mrs. Muser.

The regular business meeting of Lockwood was held Friday, May 2. Reports of the delegates to the district convention were read at that time.

FAMOUS MAN TO SPEAK TO U. D. C.

An interesting program has been arranged for the historical evening tomorrow at the Hotel Oakland, which is always one of the features of the annual convention of the Daughters of the Confederacy. It is as follows: Address, "The South in the Building of the Nation," Herbert E. Bolton, Ph. D., professor of American history, acting curator of the Bancroft library and acting head of the department of history, University of California; vocal solos, Mr. Ironmonger of Oakland and Miss Rosalie Harrison of San Francisco; dramatic readings, Miss Florence E. Lutz, University of California, and Miss Caroline Duncan of Los Angeles. Miss Caroline Duncan, state historian; U. D. C., will preside and Mrs. Vard H. Hulen of San Francisco will present Dr. Bolton.

Preceding the meeting, which begins at 8 o'clock, Mrs. C. C. Clay, honorary president of the California division, will entertain the participants in the program at dinner at the Hotel Oakland. The guests will be Dr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Bolton, Miss Caroline Duncan, Miss Florence E. Lutz and Mrs. Vard H. Hulen.

CLUB SECTION MEETINGS.

The members of Ebell who are students of the modern authors met at Mosswood park today at noon for a basket luncheon. Early California artists, prominent in musical and stage life were reviewed, and the luncheon was further enlivened by limericks and puns which were the outcome of the creative genius of the members themselves.

Tomorrow the members of Ebell who go in for writing will hold an outing at the same beautiful park. Mrs. A. L. Cunningham and Mrs. E. D. Yorker are the curators of the section.

Tomorrow will see the meeting of the old and new board of directors of the Home Club at 10:30 a. m. The meeting of the Shakespeare section of the Adelphian Club of Alameda is at 2 p. m. The study of "Antony and Cleopatra" will be continued under the direction of Mrs. J. E. Emmal.

At 10:30 the public speaking class of Ebell will meet.

Underrated Heroes

When an American soldier is awarded the congressional medal it has the same significance as when an English soldier has pinned upon his breast the Victoria Cross. It means that his government is giving him the highest decoration for bravery in its power to confer.

It is no little thing for a man to win the Distinguished Service Cross; indeed, it is a splendid thing, and a high mark in a career. The checking in the American army on this decoration was held very close, and the standard thereby kept very high. A man had to do something really noteworthy to win the award, and having won has reason aplenty for the pride he feels in the right to wear the decoration. It always means, just as its name reads, "distinguished service" to his country—in the majority of cases, service at great personal risk of life and often a risk of life for some one else. Only a hero can rightfully wear a Distinguished Service Cross.

But when the conduct of a soldier has been such as to recommend him preeminently to the government of the United States, when his service has been of a sort that calls for something more than a testimonial to distinguished action in the face of the enemy, then the powers that be award him the congressional medal, and "the powers" don't do this very often.

Not long ago, however, the congressional medal was awarded to five men for conspicuous courage before the enemy on the battlefields of France, and it is to be noted that of the five so honored one was an officer and four were enlisted men.

The officer was Capt. L. Wardlaw-Miles of Princeton, N. J., and the medal was given to him for his conduct in an action near Reullon, France. In this action Capt. Miles volunteered to lead his men in a dangerous assault on the Aisne canal. The fighting all along the line had been for some time of the close-contact and open sort, owing to the continual driving forward of the American forces and the stubborn resistance in retreat of the Germans. The Hun lines, however, had finally been driven back to the Aisne. And there they stopped, with a show of determination to give way no farther.

There was one strategic point that the American command decided must be taken and taken in hurry. Volunteers were called for to undertake the task. Capt. Miles with his entire company immediately offered themselves to do the work, and a few moments later began their advance, Miles leading his men.

The enemy's fire was terrific; it looked like the little Yankee company was walking into the very jaws of death, but on they went. Less than a quarter of the way to the objective had been covered when a hail of machine gun bullets cut the leader down with five wounds, both legs and one arm being fractured. It was enough to put any man out of the fight. But Capt. Miles isn't just any man. He fell, but he called to his men to carry on, and to two of those nearest him he gave orders that a stretcher be brought immediately.

Knowing the dangerous work the little company had in hand, the stretcher bearers had followed close on its heels, and in a moment or so a stretcher was at the captain's side. Then the wounded officer ordered that he be put upon the stretcher, and carried forward to his command, which had gone on, and was engaged in hot battle with the Boche at the point ordered taken.

Captain Miles was carried to his fighters, and, lying on the stretcher, he gave orders and encouragement to his men until the enemy had been driven back and the trench taken.

BRAVE AMERICANS

Portraits of Medal Winners, Made in France and Germany, by JOSEPH CUMMINGS CHASE, Official Portrait Painter of the A. E. F.

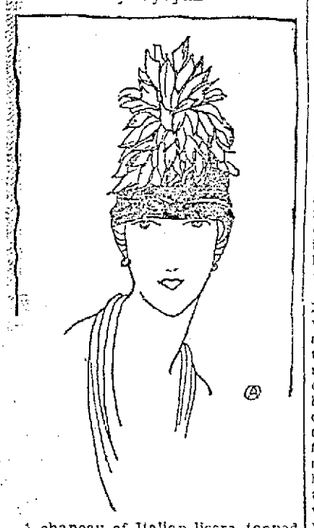

Private Burton M. Baker, Machine Gun Company, 168th Infantry, Forty-second Division.

Private Baker began his fighting career on the Lorraine front near Badonviller on the 5th of March, 1918. His battalion was in the trenches for the first time. The enemy attacked in great strength after heavy artillery preparation. Most of his comrades in his unit were killed or wounded, and the oncoming Boches far outnumbered the small group of Americans. Just then Private Baker, by his disregard of personal danger, showed such a dashing example to his remaining fellows that they collected around him and the Boche attack was repelled. This won for Baker the Croix de Guerre.

Puffin' and gruntin' like a pig in the corn.
Um-pah, um-pah, um-pah, pah,
And there was Silly Snyder with the slide trombone
Pumpin' out and slippin' out the brayin' tone—
Um-ta-ra-ra brrrrrr-rah!
Fat Dickey Dobson waddled with the drum

Ask the Tribune

A department of QUESTION & ANSWER

EDITOR TRIBUNE: The trend of architectural fashion seems to be away from panels in doors. What is the origin of these?—R. M. E.

Most modern doors have panels either for ornamental purposes or to make the door lighter, usually the latter. A solid door without any panels would be no stronger and would possess an added weight as well as wasting considerable material. But the panels of the common or household door of our childhood which you remember, had a long panel running down each side and two smaller ones at the bottom, dates back into a vast antiquity.

The early Christians, desiring to have always before them the sign of the cross, nailed a cross upon their doors. This brought them new martydoms at the hands of the Romans. And so, according to the old legend, they reversed the cross, bringing the arms at the bottom instead of the top, when technically it became no longer a cross. If you remember the way the old dining-room door looked when you were a kiddie you will remember that the paneling was so arranged as to leave higher and thicker parts of the door in the form of a reversed cross or a cross upside down. Sometimes even today when the builders wish to be very artistic they reverse the old-fashioned door, bringing the small panels at the top. This rather pleases the eye by its novelty and reverts back to the doors of those early Christian days.

The right hand is stronger than the left only in case you are right-handed. If you have the habit of being left-handed your left hand becomes stronger. If you are truly ambitextrous, your strength will be the same in both hands.

We get our strength by moving the various parts of the body, i.e., by using them. When a little baby stretches his arms and legs and kicks, he is only exercising naturally, making the blood circulate.

You can prove that the fact that your right hand is stronger than your left because of the greater use or exercise you give it, by tying your right arm close to your side and keeping it in that condition without using it for several weeks. When you remove the bands which held it tight, you will find your arm has lost its strength and that now your left hand is stronger. If, however, you are left-handed, and tie that hand down for the same length of time, your right hand would be the stronger. This shows that the strength we have in our arms and legs, and other parts of the body, is developed by using them and giving the rational exercise. Of course, it is possible to over-use a part of the body, but you will notice that nature always gives us a warning by making us tired before we come to the point where further use of that particular part of the body would cause injury.

EDITOR TRIBUNE—Why does milk turn sour?—A. M., 1123 Spruce St.

The milk turns sour because a little microbe, known as the milk microbe, gets into it, and being very fond of the sugar which is in the milk, turns this sugar into an acid.

If you could keep milk entirely away from the air after the cow is milked, it would not turn stour, but as soon as it is exposed to the air these microbes, which are constantly in the air, drop into the milk. They are alive, although invisible to the naked eye. If when they drop into the milk it is warm enough for them to get in their work, so to speak, they fall upon the sugar in the milk and turn it into the acid. Their attempt to sour the milk can be overcome by keeping the milk at a low temperature in the refrigerator, but as soon as the milk is taken out of the refrigerator and left out long enough to become warm, the microbe begins to work and the milk cannot be made sweet again. If the milk is boiled as soon as or shortly after the cow is milked, the sugar in the milk is changed in such a way that the microbe cannot feed upon it.

EDITOR TRIBUNE—Why does a man walk on the curb side of the street?—A. S., 1043 Elsinore street.

There is always a reason for the customs of polite society. A thousand and one things that are "correct" in good society are so long after they have lost their meaning. The custom whereby it is polite for the gentleman to always walk on the outside of the sidewalk and the lady on the side nearer the houses, seems one of the most incomprehensible. If any harm in a city is to come to her, it will be from the dark doorways and gloomy corners that are next the buildings. Any street attack is most likely to come from the side nearest the gloom of the houses. Yet the man walks farthest away.

The reason is simple. Years ago, in continental Europe, where our social customs had their origin, the water which ran down the slanting roofs of their houses in rainy weather, was carried off by gargoyles or water spouts that projected far out over the street, leaving a narrow footpath between their splash and the side of the house. Therefore, it became the custom for the gentlemen to walk on the outside, farthest away from the house, so as to take whatever spatter came from the water and protect the lady from the ruin of her gown.

EDITOR TRIBUNE—Why does a barber's pole have stripes? Why do they call it a "honeymoon?"—H. L., 360 Santa Clara avenue.

In early years the barber not only cut hair and shaved people, but he also was a surgeon. He was a surgeon to the extent that he bled people. In early times our knowledge of surgery was practically limited to blood letting. A great many of the ailments were attributed to too much blood in the body, the first thing they thought of was to reduce the amount of blood in the body by taking some of it out.

The town barber was the man who did this for people and his pole represented the sign of his business.

The round ball at the top which was generally gilded represents the barbering end of the business. It stood for the brass basis which the barber used for preparing lather for shaving customers.

The pole itself represents the staff which people who were having blood taken out of their bodies held during the operation. The two spiral ribbons, one red and one white, which are painted spirally on the pole, represented the bandages. The white one stood for the bandage which was put on before the blood was taken out and the red one the bandage which was used for binding up the wound when the operation was completed.

The word honeymoon, which is commonly used to describe the first few weeks after marriage, has always meant the first month or moon after marriage, but does not have any reference to the month or moon excepting as that it describes a certain period of time.

The word originated in an old custom quite common among newly married couples among the ancient Teutons of drinking a kind of wine made from honey during the first thirty days after being married.

In these days newly married couples generally take a trip away from home for a short or longer period after their wedding day and this is called the honeymoon, whether it is but a few days or three months or more. The custom of drinking wine made from honey has been abandoned so that the word now is used in an entirely different sense than formerly.

Adele Garrison's New REVELATIONS OF A WIFE

I had forgotten for the minute Cousin Agatha's cruel treatment of Katie when the older woman had first come, an unexpected guest, to our house. But it was very evident that neither Katie nor her husband would ever forget it. And I couldn't blame them, although I ignored the latter part of Jim's speech.

"EVERY LITTLE HELPS—NOW."

"If you will attend to it right away, Jim, I shall be much obliged," I said. "But be careful to go when Mrs. Graham's cousin doesn't see you. She is walking toward the postoffice now."

"Is she going to be down there long?" Jim asked anxiously.

"No, only a few minutes," I returned.

"Then that's easy." He was visibly relieved. "I'll tell Katie to keep her eye peeled for her coming back, and as soon as she tips me the dame is safe in the house I'll go out around the pond and through the woods over by the schoolhouse. She'll never know I've gone or come back."

"Thank you, Jim. Here's something for your trouble."

"You're too good, Mrs. Graham. But every little helps—now."

There was just a second's pause before the last word, and the honest fellow's face glowed. I knew he was thinking of the little stranger soon to come to Katie and to him; knew, also, and was thrilled by the knowledge, that by my care and championship of Katie I had bound both their hearts to me in loving fealty.

I hurried back to the house with one problem solved, but with another looming up before me. Upon the receipt of the second marked newspaper clipping which had come to me in so mysterious a way through the mail, clippings telling of spy executions and Black Hand atrocities, I had feared that Mrs. Allis, the woman who had tried to throw acid into my face in revenge for my thwarting her in her plot to steal the pictures of Robert Savarin, had managed in some way to get out of the sanatorium for drug addicts where she was confined, and begin anew her persecutions of me.

There was but one person who could find out the truth concerning Mrs. Allis for me, and that person was Katherine Sonnot, my brother-cousin's fiancee, who had saved me from disfigurement and had compelled Mrs. Allis to agree to go to the sanatorium with an outward appearance of willingness.

I had managed to get my mail forwarded to Katherine, so that no more grimy envelopes should come under the suspicious eyes of Cousin Agatha; but my mother-in-law, when I had given looking for drapes for the new house as an excuse for suddenly deciding to go into the city, had at once said she would go with me. I couldn't refuse to have her accompany me, and how to get time to see Katherine with Mother Graham on my hands I didn't know.

But, at least, once in the city, I could telephone to Katherine without fear of any one who knew me hearing the conversation, something impossible in the little town of Marvin. And with a determination to fathom the mystery of the newspaper clippings if I marched over the prostrate forms of a dozen mothers-in-law and catty cousins, I went into the house.

"Margaret, you haven't heard a word I've said to you."

My mother-in-law's voice, shrilly reproachful, rose above the hum of the train wheels which were bearing us cityward.

I turned a startled face toward her. Her indictment was true. I had no idea of what she had been saying, or, indeed, that she had said anything at all. I had been looking at the brown Long Island meadows just beginning to show traces of the approach of the spring, with no thought of the beauty which at any other time I should have so enjoyed, with no thought, indeed, of anything but the sinister circumstance which had sent me journeying to the city in search of Katherin Sonnot, my brother-cousin's fiancee.

Two cheap, grimp envelopes had come through the mail to me within the last two days, envelopes bearing widely different postmarks but each containing a single half-sheet of cheap notepaper enfolding a newspaper clipping marked with red ink. One clipping was the account of the execution of a spy in Paris, the other a description of a gruesome Black Hand murder in Chicago.

The Australian bushmen are fast disappearing, particularly in their native state and among their ancient surroundings. And with them are going the costumes that have been theirs for more generations than even their most eager story-tellers can recall. But there still lingers at least in their hearts and sometimes there crop up into practice some of the old-time days. For instance, there are the old marriage customs.

In old days when a young warrior

He Tangles a Spear in Her Hair While She Sleeps

wanted to procure a wife he generally gave in exchange for the girl of his fancy his sister or some other female relative of his own. But when there was no eligible damsel free in the tribe to which he belonged he hovered around the encampment of some other blacks until he saw a young woman who struck his fancy. Or perhaps he had seen her at one of the grand corroborees—that is, dances descriptive of ancient or current events, indulged in at night about a fire.

Having selected the cubra whom he wished to make his wife, the young warrior armed himself with his nulla-nulla-war-club and laid in wait beside a spring of the path down which the object of his affections walked. But frequently the cubra didn't follow her usual custom, and so the young warrior had to adopt different tactics.

Sometimes it happened and still happens that two young men join forces in the adventure, and then they are perhaps more daring. Carefully determining just where the cubras sleep, the warriors wait for a dark, windy night, then, quite without clothes, so nothing will catch in the bushes and disclose their presence, they crawl with their long jag-spears through the underbrush until they reach the edges of the campfire about which are sleeping the girls they adore. Stretching out their long spears until the jagged tip becomes intangled in the hair of their victims, they suddenly arouse them with a jerk and press knives to their throats, warning them that one sound means instant death.

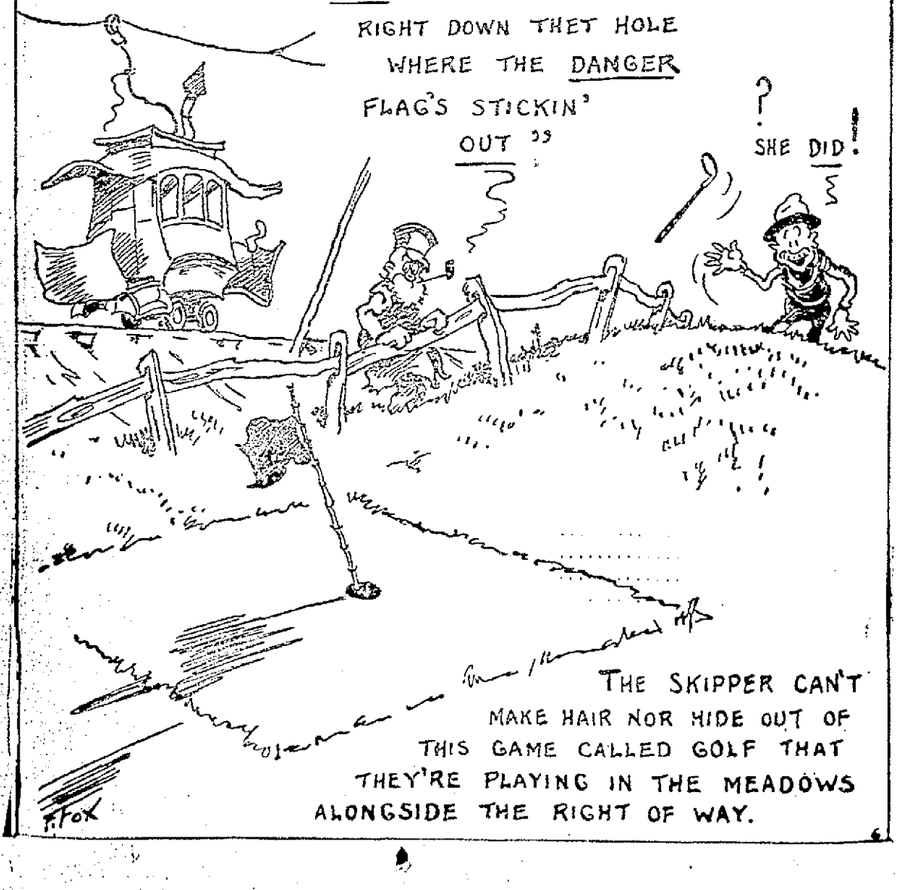

From tales of their mothers the cubras know that to utter even a suppressed scream or to attempt to run away means extinction, so they remain quiet and do as they are commanded. Quietly leading the girls out through the bush, the young warriors march them swiftly to their gunyahs in triumph.

A tribal war may result from the wife stealing, but sometimes this is avoided by a distinguished warrior volunteering—after he has secured the cubra of his heart—to undergo "the trial of spears." The two tribes meet and ten of their most adept and strongest young men are seelcted by the aggrieved tribe. Each is provided with three reed-spears and a wommera or throwing-stick.

The distinguished warrior, armed only with his heliman—a bark shield, 18 inches long by six inches wide,—is placed about one hundred and twenty feet in front of them. At a given signal the thirty spears are launched and the ten wommera thrown in quick succession. But so adept are they in the use of the heliman that seldom indeed does the warrior suffer any wound.

Having passed through this ordeal successfully, the warrior is considered to have won his bride. And the two tribes sit down together and feast in honor of the happy pair.

Jimmy-old-boy!

A LETTER-PLOY By RICHARD WIGHTMAN

A Borrowed Baby

To J. O. B. HOMELAND

My small niece, Tinto, is now three, and her graces are more than that same traditional number. She is like an animated apple dropped from its bough unbruised into a patch of clover by a propitious breeze. Only it would be wrong to eat an apple with sky-eyes like Tinto's; and then one would get hair in his mouth—very fine ringletted hair just the color of hot maple syrup which you have stirred and stirred in a bowl till it is so thick that you can't stir it any more. I have often thought of eating Tinto but in the final moment have been able to muster restraint, recalling an ancient proverb which says that one can't eat his Tinto and have her, too.

I have a feeling that Tinto is not properly appreciated in her own home. Her parents are very nice people and set considerable store by their offspring, but it takes a bachelor to lift a child to a pedestal of suitable esteem. I wish this little budding life belonged to me, that I might touch it here and there with nurturing hands, and put up things to shield it, and love it through all the years of its unfolding until the bloom came and—after. That would be an occupation for a man!

But Tinto comes and Tinto goes—five minutes on my knee, her fingers twisting my watch-chain, and then days and days at her house where everybody is married, where everybody has children of their own. But in my day-dream, Jimmy-old-boy, in my day-dream, I have put—I couldn't help it—a child, very like Tinto, who would never dare to call me merely Uncle.

GIRL SLAYER'S MOTHER BARES LIFE SECRETS

SEATTLE, Wash., May 7.—Mrs. Lithia Garrison, mother of Ruth Garrison, on trial for the murder of Mrs. Grace Storrs on the afternoon of March 18 in the tea room of the Bon Marche, took the witness stand this morning in Judge Jurey's courtroom to submit to cross-examination. In an effort to save her daughter from life imprisonment, Mrs. Garrison summed up her life by saying, "it seems that I have spent all my life crying."

Then she bared family secrets without reserve. She told the jury that her husband was mentally abnormal at times and became so enraged that he beat his children, including the defendant, without mercy.

Taking the stand Tuesday, Ruth Garrison occupied the witness chair almost three full hours. She told the jury every detail of her life from the time of her meeting with Dudley Storrs until she had confessed to Detective Captain Tennant that she caused Mrs. Storrs' death.

PERSHING WILL PARADE BEFORE KING ON MAY 22

LONDON, May 7.—General Pershing will arrive in London May 22, it is announced. He will come to England on a cruiser and will be received by a guard of honor.

The following day he will present American medals to British officers and on the 24th he will lead 3600 British soldiers on a march through London. The king will take the salute at Buckingham palace.

Soldiers Favored in Civil Service Places

WASHINGTON, May 7.—President Wilson, in an executive order cabled from Paris, has directed the civil service commission to exempt soldiers, sailors and marines from physical requirements for any civil service position upon certification by the federal board of vocational education that the applicant has been specially trained and qualified for the position.

AMERICANS IN FRANCE LEAVE BY AUGUST 1

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—Secretary Baker announced today that by August the last man of the American expeditionary forces will have been withdrawn from France. He said this estimate was based on the movement of 300,000 men a month to the United States.

Already, Baker said, the American forces in France have been divorced from the army of occupation. Plans have been completed to supply the force in Germany through the ports of Antwerp and Rotterdam, removing the necessity for maintaining the 700 mile line of communication from Brest. The French ports will be maintained, however, for the withdrawal of the A. E. F.

More than half of the expeditionary force has now left France, Baker said.

400 KILLED IN MOSCOW OVER FOOD RIOTING

BY UNITED PRESS
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE

LONDON, May 7.—Advices from Russia state that 400 persons were killed in Moscow last week in food riots. Red guards attacked and killed a mob which was shouting "Down with Lenine and Trotsky; down with hunger and the republic; give us food."

BY UNITED PRESS
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE

AMSTERDAM, May 7.—The Telegraaf today published an unconfirmed radiogram stating that Finnish forces have captured Petrograd.

A similar rumor was circulated a few days ago, but it developed that the Finns were Finnish Red Guards, who had come to Petrograd to reinforce the Bolshevik garrison. The Bolsheviki have admitted, however, that they have decided to order civilian evacuation of the city because of the serious food situation.

BUDAPEST, May 7.—"There were skirmishes along the Tisza and near Szolnok," said today's official statement of the communist government. "Our troops took positions north of Salgotarjan."

Yesterday's statement declared Hungarian communist troops were holding firmly to the line of the Tisza against allied and anti-communist forces.

COPENHAGEN, May 7.—(By the Associated Press)—When Polish forces captured Vilna recently they seized and shot Adolph Joffe, the former Russian Bolshevik ambassador at Berlin, according to Polish newspapers received here.

Associated Press despatches yesterday said the Poles had failed to capture Vilna.

LIGHT-POWER RATE HEARING RESUMED

The adjourned hearing on an order to show cause made as a result of petitions by Oakland and Berkeley in the matter of a ten per cent surcharge given the Pacific Gas and Electric, Great Western Power and City Electric companies, was resumed this afternoon before Commissioner Frank R. Devlin of the State Railroad Commission.

The first witness called for direct examination in the investigation, Eastbay cities, but by the State Railroad Commission, was Chief Engineer P. M. Downing of the Pacific Gas and Electric, whose testimony was similar to that of his assistant, Vincent, that increased oil cost in 1919 over 1918 made necessary the continuation of the surcharge if the company was to make a fair return upon its investment.

The Pacific Gas and Electric company at the same time will argue their petition to withdraw and cancel certain rate schedules for meters, agricultural power service, the Great Western Power and City Electric companies, and will also bring up their petition for further increased rates in those charged under the present schedules all classes of light and power energy.

Court Penalities for "Frivolous Appeals"

The California Supreme Court is resorting to the practice of imposing penalties upon appellants who take their cases up from the local courts on flimsy grounds for the purpose of delay in the execution of judgments. Justice Curtis D. Wilbur yesterday fixed the penalty at $720 against John Wollenshlager of Los Angeles for "frivolously" appealing a case on insufficient grounds, and warned litigants who are before the court on flimsy grounds to dispose of their cases or suffer penalties.

The justice called attention to the fact that meritorious cases are unable to gain a prompt hearing owing to the congestion of the calendar, and intimated that in every case where appeal to the higher court has been taken not in good faith and for the purpose of delay, penalties will be imposed.

$500,000 Taxes to Hit State Wineries

Six hundred wineries of the state face taxes totaling more than $500,000 to cover shrinkage reported by the wine men. The tax is retroactive, covering a period from September, 1916, to June 30, 1917. In October of the latter year the treasury department ruled that wineries were not entitled to deductions of tax for shrinkage in stocks shipped from one bonded winery to another, though they might claim 3½ per cent exemption on stocks shipped tax paid from a bonded winery. The assessment thus arbitrarily made is now about to be collected.

According to Louis J. Mooser Jr., internal revenue broker, the ruling is unjust, as, he declares, the evaporation is the same whether wine is shipped in bond or removed from the winery tax paid.

ARRESTED AT "Y."

Eighteen-year-old Martin Weedman was arrested this morning in the Oakland Y. M. C. A. and charged with burglary. Police Sergeant Hemphill and Officer E. S. Bettencourt made the arrest at the request of the secretary who said Weedman had been caught going through the Y. M. C. A. rooms.

Belgium's Co lonies Now Shipping Cotton

ANTWERP, May 7.—The first shipment of cotton from the Belgian Congo has arrived in Antwerp. It amounted to about eight tons, but it will shortly be followed by larger quantities.

Heretofore Belgian industry has been relying exclusively on imports from America. The first attempts at cotton growing in the Belgian Congo were made during the war. In 1915. Today there are already several cotton plantations in operation in the Maniema and Sankaru districts. The 1918 crop yielded about 250 tons.

Chicago Professor to Give U. C. Address

BERKELEY, May 7.—Professor Paul Shorey, head of the department of Greek language and literature at the University of Chicago, has accepted an invitation to deliver the annual Phi Beta Kappa address at the University of California on June 3. The event is a portion of the commencement exercises of the university. At Stanford University two weeks later Professor Shorey is to be the commencement speaker.

Wed Through Fear, Says Greek's Wife

Mrs. Helen Scords testified before Judge Everett J. Brown in her suit for divorce today that her husband, Manuel Scords, emulated the Greek who came bearing gifts. When she sought to decline them he threatened to kill her and for two years previous to their marriage held her in a "super-human power." She was unable to explain the "hypnotic influence" with which he dominated her, she said, but she did explain that when she began to get control he would emphasize his influence with a threat to kill unless she would marry him. They were married in San Rafael in February, 1918. Scords is a Greek restaurant keeper.

U. S. Gives 20,000 Trucks to States

WASHINGTON, May 7.—Twenty thousand motor trucks, worth $45,000,000, are to be given to the states by the federal government, with the proviso that they be used only for road construction, the department of agriculture announced today.

Loss of Appetite.

As a general rule there is nothing serious about a loss of appetite, and if you skip a meal or only eat two meals a day for a few days you will soon have a relish for your meals when meal time comes. Bear in mind that at least five hours should always elapse between meals so as to give the food ample time to digest and the stomach a period of rest before a second meal is taken. Then if you eat no more than you crave and take a reasonable amount of outdoor exercise every day you will not need to worry about your appetite. When the loss of appetite is caused by constipation as is often the case, that should be corrected at once. A dose of Chamberlain's Tablets will do it. For sale by Osgood Bros. Drug Stores.—Advertisement.

$10,000 TAKEN FROM 2 SAFES BY CRACKSMEN

SAN FRANCISCO, May 7.—Two safes at the Musicians' union, local 6, 68 Haight street, were blown open between midnight and the time the secretary's office was opened this morning. Liberty bonds, war savings stamps and cash, the property of the members of the union, in excess of $10,000, were taken.

The work was that of expert cracksmen, who, according to Detective Sergeant George Connell, are the same gang that made the attempt on the Niles bank day before yesterday and took $15,000 from the Carpenters' union January 8, when the watchman was tied up in a daring daylight robbery.

One of the safes at the Musicians' union was a burglar-proof one weighing four tons, but it was looted of its contents with apparently little effort or noise. Nitro-glycerine was used.

President Wilson to Consult Pershing

PARIS, May 7.—President Wilson has an appointment with General Pershing, the American commander-in-chief, for 2 o'clock this afternoon. The conference probably is in relation to the three-power act to safeguard France against renewed German aggression.

WOMEN FEAR PROPERTY ACT MAY BE LOST

By EDNA B. KINARD.

With the great fight which more than 90,000 women in California have waged for amendments to the community property laws of the State meet a final defeat? Did the Women's Legislative Council under the leadership of Mrs. Albert E. Carter, president; Mrs. Herbert Cable, president of the California Federation of Women's Clubs; Mrs. Aaron Schloss, president of the California Federation of Women's Clubs; Dr. Jessie Russell, president of the California Congress of Mothers; Miss Gail Laughlin, president of the California Civic League, cry "Eureka" too soon?

With a feminine victory in sight and conviction that Governor Stephens would sign the bill touching community property on which both houses agreed, is it masculine strategy which hints that perchance the executive signature will be missing from this place of legislative literature which the womanhood of California with one voice is demanding? Or is it chance? Or is it fate?

BILLS MIXED UP.

These are questions that are being asked today by "leaders in women's activities as the result of a mix-up which, whatever the cause, has resulted in this.

The community property bill as it has reached the Governor's desk is not the bill as adopted by both Houses of the Legislature. There has been a general and speedy rallying of forces to Sacramento. There have been conferences with feminine leaders and law-makers. The life of the community property bill is still in great jeopardy.

There is, however, a chance for the bill desired by the women, for Lieutenant Governor C. C. Young believes that the mistake can be rectified. Also something favorable may come out of the conference being held today in Sacramento between Governor Stephens and State Attorney General U. S. Webb.

MAY GET REAL BILL.

Concerning the situation Young said: "Inasmuch as it frequently has been decided by the Supreme Court that the journal is the test of legislative action, and as the journal makes very clear the exact wording of the bill as passed, I believe it is only necessary to get the correct bill before the Governor for his consideration."

The original community property bill (S. B. 471) was introduced by Senator J. R. Thompson of Santa Barbara. It was such a bill as the women of California had agreed upon. It was framed for the purpose of recognizing a wife an equal partner in community property as the husband with equal rights during life and in testamentary disposition. As it went on its legislative career, the bill collected various and sundry amendments. It is this bill which reposes on the Governor's desk. It is not this bill which was passed by the Legislature.

HERE ARE PROVISIONS OF PSEUDO MEASURE.

Among the unpassed bills provisions are: If a wife die leaving no will and no children, the community property reverts to the husband; if there be one surviving child, one-fourth of the community property goes to that child; or if more than one, one-third goes to them collectively; the wife's consent must be given to the naming of an executor, to the creation of a trust of any part of the community property by the will of the husband; and to the willing of community property to collateral kin, charity, or unequal division among children.

Within a few hours of the adjournment of the Legislature, both houses had passed bills relating to community property, but bills quite different. A free conference from both houses was called and a bill finally adopted. Under its provisions a husband needs the consent of the wife to make testamentary disposition of community property to any but children; and a wife will be exempt from State inheritance tax on one-half the community property.

MEASURE OPPOSED.

"Invalidate all wills in California," "Upset business," "Jeopardize the inheritance tax revenue of the state," cry the masculine opponents.

"Bosh," answer the women. "Let the men make new wills. We are interested in good business. Why should we pay all the inheritance tax on community property? Equality," they urge, "in the property which we help earn."

The journal shows one bill. The Governor's desk holds another. Who is to blame? What is to be done?

The women promise that they can go back to the Legislature another year if they must.

Mother-in-Law Says Steen Is Embezzler

Charged with embezzling $282 from his mother-in-law, Ogden C. Steen was before Judge Mortimer Smith this morning and was turned over to the superior court with bail set at $1000.

Mrs. Miller claims that her son-in-law, who is manager of the Art Pottery Works at Twenty-third avenue and Railroad, owned by her, drew a check on the firm for $282 and used it for his personal interests.

Frank A. Brush to Aid Bank He Looted

SAN FRANCISCO, May 7.—Although sentenced to be imprisoned for ten years following his confession to having robbed the Santa Rosa National Bank of approximately $204,000, Frank A. Brush, former cashier, intends to help the receiver of the bankrupt bank in straightening out the financial tangles.

To this end Brush has been granted a plea to have his place of imprisonment changed from McNeill Island to San Quentin. This was learned here today in a notice from the United States Attorney-General received by Assistant United States District Attorney B. J. Geis.

TO

The Ship Builders and Metal Workers of San Francisco Bay District

Dependable and well-informed friends in Washington have advised us that Congress, which, it is expected, will convene in special session about June 1st, will make a careful and intensive investigation of shipbuilding in the United States.

The shipbuilding industry in the San Francisco bay district means an annual distribution in wages alone of about $60,000,000 and represents an important element in the well-being of the workers and the prosperity of the community.

The United States Government has pledged itself to restore the American merchant marine. In carrying out this pledge the Government is building a great fleet and is practically the sole customer of the American shipyards.

This is why Congress will want to know all about them.

Congress, we are informed, is determined to see that a dollar of value shall be received for every dollar spent in the shipyards.

Congress will not be interested in excuses or explanations for any failure on the part of the shipyards to maintain a high standard of production, BOTH IN QUANTITY AND QUALITY OF WORK.

Congress will be equally critical of any inefficiency in management and of any tendency on the part of the men in the yards to loaf on the job or to demand excessive wages.

Under the program of the peace time on which we are entering, Government orders will be placed only with yards that are able to show they have proper equipment, good management and a force of workmen who earn their wages every day.

It is probable that within the next sixty days the managers of California shipyards will be called on to present their case before Congress. Your representatives should be shoulder to shoulder with them at that time and place.

The managers will have to show that they are running their plants well.

The representatives of labor will have to show that the workman justifies his wages by the quantity and the quality of his production.

The investigators will be specific in their inquiries. We will all be asked, for instance: "What is a proper drive of rivets per gang hour?" When this has been established to the satisfaction of the investigators each yard will be asked: "WHAT DO YOU DRIVE, HOW MANY RIVETS DO YOU DRIVE IN YOUR YARD PER GANG HOUR?"

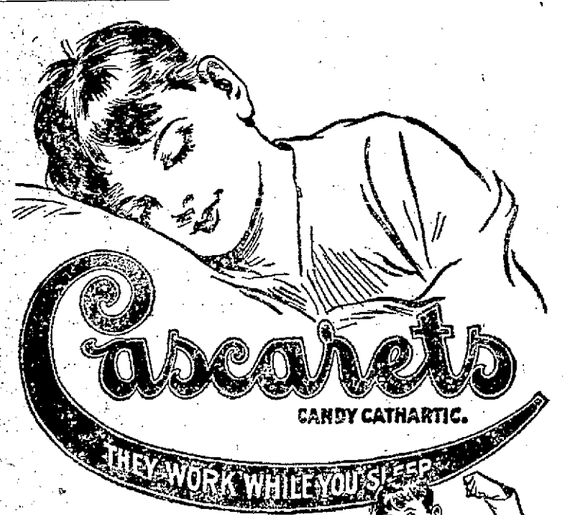

It is on the answer to questions like this that the future of the shipyards will depend.

WHAT'S YOUR ANSWER GOING TO BE?

Children wake up with a Clean Tongue, Sweet Stomach, Clear Head. All Feverishness, Biliousness and Constipation Gone! Delicious Laxative!

Stop Coughing!

The simplest, quickest and best way to stop coughing is to take Foley's Honey and Tar.

In it, you get the curative influence of the pine tar and other healing ingredients, together with the mollifying and laxative effect of honey.

Foley's Honey and Tar helps coughs and colds, bronchial and la grippe coughs, tickling throat and hoarseness. It is good for croup and whooping cough. It does not contain morphine, chloroform, or any other drug you would not want to give children, delicate persons or grown-ups. Do not accept a substitute.

"We have used Foley's Honey and Tar in our home for several years, and find it almost invaluable for the cure of coughs and colds, and especially for croup with children. They won't take any other kind. We are never without it in the house and can not too highly recommend it for coughs, colds or croup, for either grown up people or for children." T. J. McCall, Athens, Ohio.

Another Chief Quits; Too Much Trouble

SANTA BARBARA, May 7.—The city of Santa Maria is again without a chief of police. T. S. Lofthouse, who was imported from Los Angeles to take the position vacated by J. B. Armstrong, has tendered his resignation and left for the south.

Armstrong aroused opposition because he made arrests. It is now declared that Lofthouse saw breakers ahead because he took the opposite extreme and sought to avoid filling the city jail with oil field workers and others.

Lofthouse, it is said, found conditions in the oil and sugar town too strenuous for him.

Teacher Is Accused of Breaking Contract

SACRAMENTO, May 7.—Miss Julia P. Parnell, charged by the San Bernardino County Board of Education with breaking her contract to accept a position with the Los Angeles city schools, has been cited to appear before the State Board of Education today to show why her license to teach should not be revoked. A state law gives the state board authority to revoke licenses where it has been proven that the teacher terminated her contract without the consent of the emp'oyer. This was said, however, to be the first time that a formal complaint had been filed under the provisions of the act.

WOMAN WAGE IN CANNERIES IS DISCUSSED

Final decision as to the fixing of a minimum wage scale for the 30,000 women employees in the 247 canneries in California is expected to be reached late this afternoon by the industrial welfare commission, which is meeting in San Francisco with representatives of the canning industry, according to Fred Boegle, Jr., who represents the California Manufacturers' association at the meeting as the association's secretary. The meeting was called to order yesterday morning and will, perhaps, finish its work today.

The canning industry, which is one of the most important in the state, is being considered in all of its phases by the industrial welfare commission and the canners present in an effort to reach a satisfactory basis for fixing the minimum wage for women. According to Boegle, the scale of wages will be revised upward.

A decision has about been reached, Boegle says, and only a few minor matters are yet to be considered. It was found during the discussion of the question that the canning industry presents many peculiar problems that do not apply to other industries—such as rush work to prevent loss of ripening fruit, class of labor, which includes vacationists and other women who work part of the canning season, handling of different sizes of fruits, boxes of various types and different equipment used in the many canneries in the state.

Bay District Council of Brotherhood to Give First Ball Next Saturday

Three thousand members of Alameda county divisions of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks are eagerly looking forward to the first public ball of the bay district council of the organization, which will be held next Saturday night in the Exposition Auditorium in San Francisco.

The event will mark the first time that the 16,000 members of the bay district council have ever held a public event for the benefit of their relief fund and representatives from Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda, Richmond and other cities of the Eastbay section will be out in full force.

The Oakland delegation will be headed by President Edward Kuhn of Council No. 1175; Bruce E. Forman, secretary-treasurer of the system board of adjustment; J. R. Breageale and Laughlin Sweeney.

Women guests will be taken care of by a special committee headed by the Misses Charlotte Johnson, Evelyn Loomis, Juha Marsh and Charlotte Lawrence.

Preceding the ball there will be a concert by the Municipal Band, under the direction of Ernest Williams, and a fine vaudeville program has been arranged for the middle of the evening.

Elmer E. Evans is chairman of the general committee, assisted by Samuel Sorenson, W. W. Shillingford, Jack Martin, Harry L. Towle and H. P. Matthews.

Free-For-All at Rotary Luncheon

Details of a new system of fines which he has worked out will be explained by John F. Smith, president of the Rotary club, at the luncheon of the club in the Hotel Oakland tomorrow. Members are promised an opportunity at the luncheon to criticize publicly the present club administration. The occasion is termed a "great free-for-all," and it is said that practically all of the members will have their oratorical batteries well charged to meet any emergency. Fun is promised all who attend.

PROFITEERING IN SHIP WORK PROBED

Charges that may lead to a federal investigation to determine whether or not there has been wholesale profiteering in repairs on the wooden vessels built at the direction of the United States shipping board, are being digested by United States Supervising Inspector John K. Bulger. The charges were made by William Power, chief engineer of the steamer Kineo, accused by Marine inspectors in Honolulu of neglect of duty.

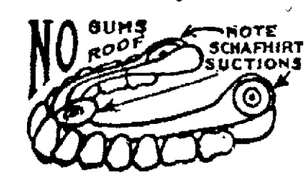

According to the testimony of Power before Bulger, Thomas J. Heener, U. S. inspector of boilers in Honolulu, is prosecuting Power wrongfully because of refusal to O. K. a bill of $5400 against the shipping board for repairs on the Kineo. Power contends that the work was worth no more than $800. Bulger said that the evidence in the Power hearing is such as to warrant placing all the data before George Uhler, supervising inspector general in Washington.

"WIFE BEATER NO CITIZEN"

WAUKEGAN, Ill., May 7.—Wife-beaters and wife deserters are undesirable citizens and not entitled to citizenship, according to Judge C. C. Edwards, of the Circuit Court here. In refusing naturalization to two men guilty of the offenses, he said:

"A man who will beat his wife or abandon her, in my opinion, is not a desirable person to be given the rights of citizenship. If a person has not sufficient respect for the law to abide by it peacefully before he becomes a citizen, I think he should not be entitled to citizenship."

"DANDERINE" FOR FALLING HAIR

A small bottle of Danderine costs but a few cents at any store. It stops falling hair, itching scalp and ends dandruff, besides it doubles the beauty of your hair, making it appear twice as heavy, thick and abundant. Try it!

HOW MY HEAD BUZZES!

When the head feels thick or aches, when one feels all out-of-sorts—perhaps a coated tongue—it is the signal poisons are accumulating in the system, and should be cleaned out at once. When the system is on what is often called "a low tone"—when toxins (poisons) cause headache, bad taste in the mouth, poor appetite, it is time to "clean house."

Auto-intoxication can be best ascribed to our own neglect or carelessness. When the organs falter or fail in the discharge of their duties, the putrefactive germs set in and generate toxins—actual poisons, which fill one's own body. It is then that the more serious consequences begin.

Sleepiness after meals, flushing of the face, extreme lassitude, biliousness, dizziness, sick headache, acidity of the stomach, heartburn, offensive breath, anemia, loss of weight and muscular power, decrease of vitality or lowering of resistance to infectious diseases, disturbance of the eye, dyspepsia, indigestion, gastritis, many forms of catarrh, asthma, ear affections and allied ailments result from auto-intoxication or self-poisoning.

Take castor oil, or a pleasant vegetable laxative, called Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, which are composed of May-apple, aloes and jalap.

One of the very best treatments which all doctors will agree upon is to take castor oil or P. P. P. (Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.)

RUSSIAN LECTURER.

Rev. William Fetler, a Russian minister, will speak at the First Presbyterian church this evening, on "Revolution and Religion in Russia." He will also have with him a Russian children's choir. Dr. Fetler was until recently pastor of a congregation of 2000 in Petrograd. He understands conditions in Russia and will describe those conditions first hand. He speaks good English. He is at present the head of the Russian Bible Institute in Philadelphia.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

The annual entertainment of the Men's club will be given in the First Christian church Friday evening. This is an entertainment by men, but not for men exclusively. The whole church and all its friends are invited. The committee in charge is arranging an amusing program by Black Patti, the Tennessee quartet of black singers and Richard Glissman, who will furnish a unique vocal contribution.

MOTHERS' DAY.

Next Sunday the churches will join in the national celebration of Mothers' day. With the wearing of carnations and by music and appropriate addresses mothers will be honored and the remembrance of their unselfish sacrifice for the world will be renewed.

BAPTIST MINISTERS.

The Baptist ministers of the bay district met at the First Baptist church of Oakland, Monday. Rev. C. R. Shepherd, Pacific coast superintendent of Oriental missions for the Northern Baptist church, delivered a very illuminating address, concerning conditions and opportunities in China where he spent years as a missionary. He described the attitude of the Chinese to the nations as distrust toward Britain, fear toward Germany, contempt toward France and Portugal, hatred toward Japan, but America they consider their great friend whom they love and upon whom they can depend. He said it was difficult to sustain our high reputation among them because the Chinese that come to us are forced to live among the worst classes of Americans, who are apt to lessen their confidence by un-Christian treatment.

Rev. J. N. Garst after conducting the services of Mothers' day next Sunday, will start on his vacation, attend the Denver convention, visit his sister at Colorado Springs and return the last of June.

TITUS AT 24TH AVENUE

Charles G. Titus, the new general secretary of the Oakland Y. M. C. A., will deliver two addresses Friday evening at the Twenty-fourth Avenue Methodist church. He will speak at the dinner at 6:30 and at 8 o'clock he will deliver an address on "My Seven Months War Experience at Chateau-Thierry and Verdun." He will demonstrate the use of the gas mask. The lecture is free and the public is invited.

RABBI FRANKLIN'S LETTER.

Rabbi H. B. Franklin writes of Mother's Day with such a broad spirit, on whatever day it may be observed, that we take pleasure not only in complying with his request but in publishing his letter in full.

"Will you kindly urge your readers to go to church Sunday, May 11 in memory of their mothers, living or gone into eternity? Urge them to offer a prayer in her memory, to express their gratitude and thanks to God for the precious remembrance of her who gave them birth. Great men are often quoted as to mother's influence in their lives. The war has displayed her spirit of sacrifice and patience. Thousands of mothers are starving in European lands. Let us offer a tribute to her memory this week in the various churches of our city.

"Mother's Day will be duly observed at Temple Sinai, Twenty-eighth and Webster streets, Saturday, May 10, at 10:30 a. m. Rabbi Franklin will discuss the mother in the Bible, in the modern home, the mother in the war. Are children showing proper respect to their mother? Mr. McCloskey will sing "Dear Little Mother of Mine" and the other musical numbers will be sung by choir and congregation. A cordial invitation is extended to all who wish to attend this Mother's Day service.

SUBSTITUTES FOR SALOONS.

Dr. Charles L. Kloss, pastor of Plymouth church, and a number of other speakers are to discuss at a meeting at the church tonight the question "How Shall We Provide a Substitute for the Saloon?"

Dr. Kloss declares the maintenance of such places as Plymouth Center, where, in a separate building, the church provides a gymnasium, shower baths, pool, billiards, game and reading rooms and bowling alleys almost without cost is necessary if people accustomed to the saloon as a social gathering place are to be taken care of properly.

CHURCH WELCOME COMMITTEE.

The Episcopal churches are launching a campaign to render service to soldiers and sailors as they return to civil life. The plan will be formally launched and further elucidated at a rally for laymen to be held in St. Paul's church this evening, beginning with a dinner at 6:30 o'clock. A program has been arranged as follows:

Address of welcome by Albert C. Agnew of the district attorney's office.

Response on behalf of the nation's heroes by Rev. Robt. B. W. Hutt, lieutenant and chaplain, U. S. A., the Presidio.

"Vital conditions confronting Christianity; Democracy's Challenge to the Church," by Major Henry R. Sanborn, U. S. A., recently returned from France, where he has had thrilling experiences, having been twice wounded and decorated for courage and bravery.

LEMON JUICE FOR FRECKLES

Girls! Make beauty lotion for a few cents—Try it!

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of orchard white for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles and blemishes disappear and how clear, soft and rosy-white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless and never irritates.—Advertisement.

PIMPLY? WELL, DON'T BE

People Notice It. Drive Them Off with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, bowels and liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's no sickness or pain after taking them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with "a dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints, and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result.

Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

The Easiest Way to End Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.—Advertisement.

LIVING COST BUDGET TOO LOW: JAFFA

Professor Meyer E. Jaffa, nutrition expert of the University of California, does not question the accuracy of Labor Department figures regarding living costs in New York City, just made public. He does question, however, the probability of health or industrial efficiency being possessed by those who are existing on as little as the department figures show. He submitted figures today to back up his belief that at least the food expenditures quoted are too low.

The labor department's figures, based on a survey of some 500 New York families, place the food cost for a family of 4.9 persons at $640.92. Professor Jaffa's figure, for an average family of five persons, is $686.40. But Professor Jaffa points out his schedule allows for many things necessary to the diet that are much cheaper in the west than in the east.

"I do not see how a New York family with such an allowance for food as is here indicated could possibly be adequately fed," he said. "Of course, they can buy food enough back there to keep a family of that size alive, but how nutritious is the food? How well are they fortifying themselves? How capable of doing the work cut out for them does such feeding leave them?"

$30.67 ANNUAL SAVING.

The Department of Labor budget, based on actual expenditures of 518 families, is as follows: Food, $640.92; clothing, $255.68; rent, $214.62; fuel and light, $64.20; furniture, $51.05; miscellaneous, $248.35; total, $1508.92. The investigators found that these families were averaging annual savings of $30.67.

Professor Jaffa's most recent budget, based on market prices and particularly upon the cost of food for an adequate diet, was $34.70 a month as the smallest salary upon which a family of five could exist. Rent, light and heat and food were provided for in this estimate, but clothes, amusements, doctors' bills, school books, insurance, car fare, and other incidentals, church and charity expenses, government bonds and other extras were not considered at all.

SAYS FAMILIES UNDERNOURISHED.

For a family of five his 1919 estimate for the smallest outlay for food which is advisable from the standpoint of health and efficiency is $69.45 a month or $725.40 a year. That the overage of the New York families is only $640 is judged by him to mean that many of the 518 surveyed must be considerably under that sum. These, he intimates, are beyond question undernourished, food.

even where not actually suffering for

The lowest rent that Professor Jaffa has found possible in the west for a family of five is $15 a month, and that is the amount he allows in the $81.70 estimate above. The New York average rent found for the 518 families is under $18 a month, but how, in New York, so low an average could possibly be met except among the very poorest class of families is not indicated in the despatches reaching here.

BOND INVESTMENT SAFER THAN BANKS

By A. S. LAVENSON.

A case where a man is carrying $10,000 in the bank as a protection against future emergencies was called to my attention today. This man has invested $5000 in Victory bonds and doubtless considers that he has done well.

Now as a matter of absolute fact this man would be just as well protected and would be doing a patriotic thing by investing the entire sum in Victory notes. The notes mature in four years, when his entire capital would be available. In addition to this he would be drawing a higher rate of interest than is obtainable from the banks.

And the investment is safe. Safer even than the banks. If the Liberty Loan and Victory Loan paper is worthless, then the government money is worthless. The Liberty Loan notes are backed by the strongest government on earth.

The man who has $40,000 can invest $40,000. If he needs capital for current operations, he does not need more than one-fourth, anyhow. Let him put the rest—$30,000—in Victory Loan notes.

Plan Luncheon for Electrical Workers

Preparation is being made by the electric branch of the Chamber of Commerce to entertain 200 electrical men from all parts of the state at a "banner luncheon" in the Hotel Oakland Friday. N. J. Verdery will be the principal speaker. Romaine W. Myers will preside. Meyers was assisted in preparing the program for the occasion by five other members. Thus far 160 reservations have been made and from the rate others are coming in it is expected that the number that will attend may exceed 200.

R. C. W. Libby of Cambridge, George N. Rooker of Richmond and Wallace W. Briggs, late of the Great Western Power Company, but at present managers of the New York offices of the Westinghouse Company, will give brief talks. There will be music from 12:15 to 1:30 p. m. Singing and dancing will be features of the luncheon.

Pythian Sisters Out for Theater Party

Several hundred members of the Pythian Sisters congregated at the Fulton playhouse last evening to witness the presentation of "Eyes of Youth," by Nana Bryant and her associates. The Pythian Sisters were accompanied by about the same number of the big brothers of the order. The latter were returning the compliment extended by the women, who turned out in force a month ago when the men folks—Abuzaid Temple, D. O. K. K.—enjoyed their annual theatrical outing. Both orders report a neat addition to their funds from the sale of tickets.

Sacramento-Ogden Flight Is Started

MATHER FIELD, Sacramento, May 7.—Lieutenants F. S. Curtis and J. M. Fetters left here early today in two 150-horsepower airships on a flight to Ogden, Utah.

They expected to reach Reno and Winnemucca, Nev., this afternoon; Elko, Nevada, tomorrow morning, and Ogden tomorrow afternoon. The air line distance to Ogden is 550 miles.

L. FRANK BAUM, "OZ" AUTHOR, IS DEAD IN SOUTH

L. Frank Baum, author of "The Wonderful Land of Oz," the charming story for children that is being published in The TRIBUNE, with other plays and books, died at his home in Los Angeles last night after having been ill for some time with heart trouble. He was born in Chittenago, N. Y., May 15, 1856. He is survived by a widow and four children, one of whom is now in the American army in France.

MRS. KING FACES ACTION IN COURT

Hazel Vallejo King, former society leader, heiress and member of a pioneer Oakland family, will face trial in Oakland on bad check charges, it was indicated today. Mrs. King, whose episodes for the past several years have kept her in the public limelight, was arrested in San Jose on a bad check charge, and turned over to the Oakland police department, there being two charges here against her.

Several times in the past Mrs. King has been in similar trouble, but was never prosecuted. This time, the police say, indications are that she will be brought before court. She is being held in the city prison.

Attempts are being made by Inspector Richard McSorley to locate King, former husband of the prisoner. The detective will ask him to make provision for their two-year-old child, at least until the mother is out of prison, McSorley holding that it is not proper to leave the little one in the city prison or in the detention home for lack of a guardian.

Mrs. King, the daughter of the late Paul Seiler, San Francisco pioneer, wedded William King, an automobile salesman, after her divorce from Harvey Vallejo, descendant of the man for whom the city of Vallejo was named. She has lived in Oakland for some years past.

JAPANESE-REDS INTRIGUE HINTED

Japanese intrigue among the Bolsheviki in Russia is intimated by soldiers and officers who returned yesterday on the transport Logan, though they make a point of not being quoted in the matter. While not intimating how this intriguing was achieved, the returning men declared that it was directed against Americans.

Some of the men on the Logan said they had received instructions at Vladivostok not to discuss features of the Siberian situation as it involves the Japanese. No discussion of the course of events was to give the impression of being an "official opinion."

Lieutenant J. B. Thornton of Houston, Texas, and others said that anrulliness in Siberia had been suppressed. The railroad from Vladivostok via China and Tomsk to the Ural Mountains had been divided into three sections, guarded respectively by the Japanese, Americans and British.

Land Purchase for New Parks Is Urged

The city park commissioners met yesterday afternoon and adopted three resolutions providing for the expenditure of more than $100,000 on new parks and recreation extensions.

The commissioners recommended that the old "Cutting Home" on Lake street be purchased as land available for a park site. Recently the Oakland Real Estate Board estimated the value of the Cutting property at $80,000.

It was also recommended that the land between Golden Gate avenue and Brookside avenue be bought for $33,000 and used for a park site.

A petition signed by 250 people to have the Lakeside park tennis courts enlarged and improved was considered and approved, and the superintendent of parks instructed to include the amount necessary for the improvements in the park budget for the next fiscal year.

World Circuit for Oil Tankers Planned

SAN FRANCISCO, May 7.—A fleet of oil tankers which will encircle the globe will soon be put in operation by the Shell Oil Company, according to announcement here today. The first of the vessels to enter this service in which the Shell Company proposes to make a strong bid for Oriental oil business is the tanker Pearl Shell which arrived here from Tampico, Mexico, with 7800 tons of crude oil yesterday.

After discharging its cargo at the Martinez refinery, a cargo of petroleum will be brought from San Pedro and then the Pearl Shell will start for trans-Pacific service.

In the present plan the tankers will make a complete circuit of the globe starting at Tampico with oil cargoes for the Martinez refinery, coming through the Panama Canal. From here a cargo of kerosene will be taken to China and Japan. Tankers will then go to Borneo to load with petroleum and distilled products for England. The trip from England back to Tampico, Mexico, will complete the trip.

Sullivan Detailed on Soldiers' Bonus

Lieutenant Albert P. Sullivan, U. S. Army, has been detailed for duty in the office of Colonel John H. Gardner, recruiting officer for the San Francisco district, 620 Market street. Lieutenant Sullivan's duties will consist chiefly of certifying copies of the discharges of officers and enlisted men who are entitled to receive the $60 bonus awarded by the government. It is not necessary for the soldier to present his discharge in international affairs and that it will address for the return of the original. It is advisable that the envelope be registered, and that ten cents be enclosed, that the return papers may also have the protection of registration. The same procedure may be followed by those entitled to reimbursement of mileage.

Yosemite to Have Office in Oakland

Oakland is to be the home office of an information bureau where all sorts of questions concerning the Yosemite Valley will be answered. The bureau will be managed by Miss Jessie A. Craig, for many years associated with transportation and hotel companies, and with the National Park service. Her title will be passenger agent for the Yosemite National Park Company for the Eastbay cities, and the office will be at 1130 Broadway.

For Some of Us the War Will Never Be Over

Maybe you'll be going to the country in a few weeks to see the green of the new leaves, and maybe, too, you've got tickets for a corking show tonight, where there will be lights and colors and gay costumes and a happy crowd.

Well—perhaps the war is over — for you.

But for some of us—

Can YOU rest or work or play or live until you have finished the work we started—before the light went out?

See It Through!

It's a big American job

UNLESS YOU FINISH IT UP IN THE OLD AMERICAN WAY THE BATTLES WE FOUGHT OVER THERE WILL HAVE BEEN WON IN VAIN.

Cards Out for Whittlesey-Guillou Wedding

Invitations have been sent out by Mr. and Mrs. James T. Whittlesey for Wednesday, May 14, for the wedding of their daughter, Miss Frances Whittlesey, and Rene Guillou, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Guillou of Berkeley. The wedding will be solemnized at the home of the Whittleseys in Channing way. Both families are representative ones of Eastbay society, the wedding especially interesting the college set, where the bride-elect has been an assistant in the department of physical education for more than two years.

The wedding and reception to follow will be attended only by relatives and close friends of the two families, the ceremony to be performed by an uncle of the bride, Dr. Cornelius H. Patton of Boston.

Mrs. Thomas Irving Crowell, a sister of the bride-elect, will be matron of honor.

Miss Margaret Whittlesey and Miss Guillou will attend as bridesmaids.

William Ray Dennes of the class of '19, University of California, will be best man.

Miss Whittlesey is a graduate of the University of California and of Wellesley College, department of hygiene. For more than two years the bride-elect has been associated with the state university.

Rene Guillou was the medalist of the class of '15, University of California. Guillou and his bride will make their home on the former's ranch at Windsor, Sonoma county, after June 1.

A betrothal announced over the bay at the Fairmont yesterday was that of Miss Marian Ruth Becker and Kerin de Lacy Bourke of New York, now in Germany with the Pioneer Engineer Corps. The guests were entertained at luncheon, the delightful affair planned in compliment to Miss Betty George of San Francisco. Miss Becker is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Agassiz Becker of Piedmont, and up to a year ago made her home in Rome with her aunt, Miss Emily Ruth Becker, who is coming from abroad to attend the marriage of her niece.

The engagement is also of interest to New York society, where the family of the benedict-elect is well known. Bourke is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas de Lacy Bourke of Dublin, Ireland, and has lived in this country a number of years prior to his enlistment in the engineer corps at the outbreak of the war.

The future home of the engaged couple is to be in New York city.

Among those who were guests at the luncheon yesterday were Mrs. Charles Hunt, Mrs. Charles Zook Sutton, Mrs. Victor de Cunha, Mrs. Robert Weber, Mrs. Alfred Montgomery, Miss Elizabeth Adams, Miss Constance Hart, Miss Jessie Knowles, Miss Anne Peters, Miss Sally Havens, Miss Jean Searles, Miss Elizabeth Bliss, Miss Sally Lang and Miss Beth Bliss, Miss Sally Long and Miss

SETTING OF WEDDING CEREMONY IS CLUBHOUSE

The spacious assembly hall of the fashionable Twentieth Century Club in Derby street, Berkeley, was the scene of the wedding Monday evening of Miss Mildred Agnes Schmidt and Carl Frederick Voiker, Rev. Alexander Allen, rector of St. Paul's, Episcopal Church in this city, officiating.

The hall was artistically festooned with quantities of fern and spring blossoms.

At one end of the room an altar of palms and pink blooms was erected, graceful baskets of blossoms being placed at either side of the altar. The wedding march from "Lohengrin" was played by Eugene Blanchard.

Attending the bride was Miss Daphne Scovel of San Francisco as maid of honor, while Leslie Taylor served as best man for the bridegroom.

The bride was married in a gown of white satin with a bodice of real lace. A court train was suspended from the shoulders, and completing the pretty costume was a shower bouquet of orchids and bride's roses.

A wedding supper was served to relatives and friends, after which the bridal couple left on a honeymoon trip to Santa Barbara.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Schmidt of Berkeley.

LUNCHEONS PLANNED FOR MID-WEEK

Two Eastbay matrons are to share honors tomorrow afternoon at luncheon at which Mrs. Samuel Hubbard of Vernon Heights will preside as hostess. They are Mrs. Alexander Allen, wife of Rev. Alexander Allen, and Mrs. Harry Knowles, whose new home is now in the Adams Point district. Mrs. Allen will leave for Canada for a visit of three months, during which time she will be the guest of her relatives.

Another luncheon party of the week on the following day will be that given by Mrs. Charles Parker Hubbard of Vernon Heights. Bridge is to be a diversion of the later hours.

At her home on Chetwood street Mrs. Alexander Marx will entertain a coterie of friends at luncheon Friday afternoon, cards to be the pleasure of the remainder of the afternoon.

Miss Elizabeth Wilcox, gradute of Mills College, who has been in New York since the first of the year, and who expected to return to California for a visit next month, has decided to spend another year in the eastern metropolis. She will be joined by her mother, who will leave tomorrow for the east. Miss Wilcox has been studying singing with a noted composer. She was solo soprano at St. Zion's church. She has also been soloist in Columbia Chapel at the University in New York.

HONEY PLANTS TO BE EXHIBITED

Oakland school children have been much interested in gathering a collection of honey flowers for display at the State Wild Flower exhibit to open at the Fairmont hotel in San Francisco on Friday morning. Original posters designed by the children will bear the request that people spare the honey flora.

Flowers of every hue and variety are being sent in from all sections of the state to be classified by botanists from the two universities and the Academy of Science. The exhibit is planned along educational lines and includes many features of considerable interest to scientists and nature students. Members of the California Botanical society are sending in a valuable collection of medicinal herbs and Dr. P. B. Kennedy of the university will have a beautiful collection of grasses.

Dr. George Albert Coleman of the university will furnish maps and charts showing distribution of honey flora about the state. There will be several exhibits of this nature including those from Max Richter from Modesto, a celebrated authority on bee culture; Henry Washburn of Santa Cruz, university farm advisor, and Professor Luis Kroeck of the College of Pacific, San Jose.

Luther Burbank has sent plants, adapted from the wild, grown at his horticultural gardens in Santa Rosa. The exhibit will be free to children. It will close Saturday night.

Groups Three and Four Are Shown in The TRIBUNE Show

They're off! The first run of the pictures showing groups 3 and 4 in The Oakland TRIBUNE Motion Picture Baby Extension is attracting large audiences to the American theater at every performance this afternoon and if hearty laughter is any criterion, the kiddies are surely furnishing some enjoyable entertainment for the spectators.

It's the unexpected that's always happening in these baby pictures. One can never tell what funny stunt some kiddie is likely to do at any instant, and consequently the audience is ever alert for something unusual and laughable. And what's more to the point, the youngsters never disappoint. Paradoxically speaking, they do things that the spectators expect of them and at the same time they perform little tricks that are absolutely unexpected.

"Who would ever have thought," remarked a well-known physician as he was leaving the American this afternoon, "that a baby motion picture could hold the attention of an audience as that one does."

"Why, I saw men in there—and women, too—who became so interested in watching the kiddies—and so enthused—that they applauded for their favorites every time they appeared on the screen and laughed at the antics of some of the youngsters until their sides fairly shook."

The pictures of groups 3 and 4 will be shown at every matinee performance at the American the remainder of this week. Commencing next Sunday for three days, pictures of groups 5 and 6 will be exhibited.

TEACHERS' CLUBS OF STATE UNITE

The preliminary work toward the permanent organization of the State Association of Classroom Teachers' Clubs was accomplished Saturday at a meeting held at the St. Francis Hotel in San Francisco, at which San Francisco, Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda teachers were represented. The fostering of cooperative effort among the federated organizations and the unity of educational policies is the primary object of the association. During the session of the Legislature the teachers' clubs in the four cities united, sending a delegate to Sacramento to look out after those measures in which they were particularly interested.

While the educators in Oakland have united in what is called the School Women's Club, San Francisco, Alameda and Berkeley have chosen to term the same body Classroom Teachers' Club. The membership is composed entirely of those without supervisorial or administrative powers.

Mrs. Grace Hillyard of Berkeley acted as chairman at the Saturday meeting and was elected temporary chairman, with Miss Alice Baily of Alameda temporary secretary. A provisional constitution and by-laws as prepared by the legislative committee was accepted. Its adoption will be completed in the fall, when the permanent board of directors is elected.

Oakland was represented by Miss Lulu Shelton, president of the School Women's Club; Miss Rose Beaty and Miss Ida B. Buck; Alameda, Miss Alice Baily. Miss Nicholson, Miss Winchester; Berkeley, Mrs. Grace Hillyard, Miss Sophie Meyer, Miss May C. Wade; San Francisco, Miss Miss Edna Cotrel, Mrs. Frame.

San Leandro, Stockton, Fresno and San Jose teachers are organizing clubs, which will be invited to join the state association.

Paramount Lodge, No. 17, Knights of Pythias, will confer the rank of page on a large class of candidates this evening. Chancellor Commander Frank R. Burch, assisted by U. C. Leon C. Babbett, Prelate Harry B. Browne and M. N. A. George S. Marshall will confer the degree. A banquet will be served.

AUTOIST WHO HIT TEAMSTER SOUGHT

Archie Hillis, a teamster, is suffering from severe injuries as the result of an accident on Lakeshore avenue, near Lake Merritt, when he was run down by an automobile. The machine drove away after the accident, the unconscious man being picked up by F. M. Richards of the Franklin Auto Service. Hillis, who lives at 2306 Ninety-sixth avenue, suffered a possible fractured skull and was badly cut and bruised. The police are investigating the accident.

Frank Firpo, 453 Pacific avenue, was injured last evening when struck by a street car at Twenty-sixth avenue and East Fourteenth street. He was treated for cuts and lacerations at the Emergency Hospital.

M. A. Perry, 4897 Ninth avenue, was run down by an automobile driven by H. E. Scott of Berkeley, the accident occurring on the Webster street bridge. The man was hurried to the Emergency Hospital in Scott's machine. His injuries were found to be not serious.

Testimonial Given to Isaac Liebes

SAN FRANCISCO, May 7.—Isaac Liebes, president of H. Liebes & Co., was yesterday presented a gold plaque by his employees to commemorate the fiftieth anniversary of his entry into the firm. A testimonial signed by more than 500 employees was also presented. Following the presentation Liebes was the guest of his department managers at luncheon.

When to Gather Roots and Herbs

For medicinal purposes, roots and herbs should be gathered when their medicinal properties are at their best. For instance, roots of annual plants should be dug just before their flowering season, and roots of biennial or perennial plants after the tops have dried. All these things are taken into consideration in gathering the roots and herbs, many tons of which are used annually in preparing that most successful of all remedies for woman's ills, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.—Advertisement.

Face Peeling Habit Becoming Fashionable

Women of fashion and refinement seem to have been acquiring the mercolized wax habit, depending less and less upon cosmetics for their complexion difficulties. It does seem a lot saner to just peel off the wornout skin when it loses its youthful color and appearance—now that this can be done so easily, safely, painlessly and economically.

There's no trouble getting mercolized wax at any drug store (an ounce will do), since its virtues have become generally known here, and there's no trouble using it—just as you use cold cream, applying at night, washing it off next morning. The wax takes off the old scurf skin, in tiny flakes, a little each day. The new under-skin which gradually appears is velvety and soft, and beautifully white, radiant with girlish loveliness. Any surface troubles like pimples, red or yellow patches, freckles, etc., vanishes of course with the discarded cuticle.—Advertisement.

Alien Held for Threatening Letter

Paul Le Longa, an Austrian living at 943 Wood street was arrested this morning by Inspectors Kyle and Thompson, charged with writing a threatening letter to a young girl whose name is withheld. Captain Petersen who examined the man, says that he is an undesirable alien. Longa is said to have written that he was coming to cut the girl's heart out, and to have violated the federal laws by sending vile and indecent language through the mails. He is held in jail.

Supervisor Gets Threatening Letter

SAN FRANCISCO, May 7.—James Hayden, member of the Board of Supervisors, is the latest of a San Francisco city officials to receive a threatening letter, concerning his activities as a speaker in the Victory loan drive. Others have been received by City Engineer M. M. O'Shaughnessy and Judge Timothy Fitzpatrick. The letter was sent to Hayden's home. He has turned it over to the police. Yesterday morning he discovered a black X painted on the doors of his garage.

Just Once! Try Dodson's Liver Tone! Take No Calomel! Listen To Me!

If bilious, constipated, headachy or sick, I guarantee relief without taking dangerous calomel which sickens and salivates.

Stop using calomel! It makes you sick. Don't lose a day's work. If you feel lazy, sluggish, bilious or constipated, listen to me!

Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel, when it comes into contact with sour bile, crashes into it, breaking it up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you are "all knocked out," if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour, just try a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone.

Here's my guarantee—go to any drug store and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents. Take a spoonful tonight, and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous by morning, I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tone is destroying the sale of calomel because it is real liver medicine; entirely vegetable, therefore it can not salivate or make you sick.

I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone will keep the entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. It is harmless; doesn't gripe and they like its pleasant taste.—Advertisement.

POWDER IN SHOES AS WELL AS GUNS

Foot-Ease to be Added to Equipment of Hospital Corps at Fort Wayne.

Under the above heading the Detroit Free Press, among other things says: "The theory is that soldiers whose feet are in good condition can walk further and faster than soldiers who have corns and bunions incased in rawhide."

The Plattsburg Camp Manual advises men in training to shake Foot-Ease in their shoes each morning.

There is no foot comforter equal to Allen's Foot-Ease, the antiseptic, healing powder to be shaken into the shoes and sprinkled in the foot-bath, for hot, tired, aching, perspiring, smarting, swollen, tender feet, corns, bunions, blisters or callouses. What wouldn't you give to be relieved of one day's pain of your corns and bunions? Here is relief for every day. You won't realize this until you have tried Allen's Foot-Ease yourself. You simply forget all about your feet they are made so comfortable. Ask your druggist today for a package of ALLEN'S FOOT-EASE.

Build Your Own Home

Instead of buying a "house built to sell," build your own "home" to suit your own ideas and save about 20% of cost added by speculative builders. Homes may be built from $2000 up—terms are readily arranged if you own a lot. I attend to all the details of building and by charging a definite sum for plans and supervision—not percentage work—give you the advantage of any saving made as work progresses. The larger the job the more I can save you. I have no "stock plans" but design to fit the lot and surroundings—no charge made for preliminary estimates or sketches.

Many residences costing from $4000 to $20,000 as well as some of the largest apartment and office buildings around the bay cities are my best references.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 7, 1919.

SHALL WE FAIL?

Four days remain for taking up the Victory Loan. They must be productive of the greatest energy and most generous response possible if the Eastbay communities are to preserve unfarnished their splendid record of war service.

We did not fail in any of the previous loans, nor in any of the appeals for support for the war auxiliaries. Shall we fail in this final effort?

There is no doubt about the safety of the securities, or about the payment of interest and principal when due. There is no question of the safety of America in the work which the money derived from the bond sales will support.

There can be no excuse for failure on the part of the local communities to do their duty. Shall a failure be recorded?

AN HISTORIC DAY.

This day will loom large in the history of the world. Another like it is has never been known; its like will never come again. It is the day that the peace conditions of the governments of the nations associated in the war against the Teutonic alliance have been transmitted to the German government, through the latter's representatives in the historic Trianon palace at Versailles, France.

These conditions will in all essentials be accepted. They break up mighty empires and create new free nations. They record the passing of governing autocracies from the affairs of men. They are an epitaph to German kultur and all the unholy, predatory schemes of world dominion that cult of megalomania stood for; they attest the vindication of Christian civilization, of the supremacy of moral right over the compulsion of savage and brutal force.

These conditions are severe for Germany, but not as severe as Germany deserved. They have been tempered by justice leaning toward mercy and by opinions on the ability of the enemy to respond to penalties. Germany, already having lost the respect of the civilized world, an object of contempt and loathing to every right-minded and honor-loving man and woman, loses much of her material riches. Her colonies are gone; her continental frontiers are pushed inward; her industrial, commercial and financial interests in other countries have been taken from her.

Once Germany menacingly said she must have room to expand, regardless of the fate of neighboring peoples who would have to be pushed out of her way. Now what is left of the German people must be content merely to live and respect the rights of all peoples who come into contact with the new and physically and politically reformed Germany. In time we may be justified in writing "morally reformed."

Of course, today is significant largely because of the formal character of the proceedings. There have been more vital days since the war started. There was a day last spring when a few companies of United States marines calmly crossed the wheatfield fronting Belleau Wood in the face of a murderous machine gun fire and stopped the German advance on Paris. By driving the Huns out of the wood and beyond Bourecbes they showed that the Americans could beat the best of the Huns and revealed to Marshal Foch that he then had 700,000 dependable new reserves and more coming at the rate of 250,000 a month.

On that day the tide of Prussianism stopped and began to recede. It has not yet stopped receding.

This and other great days and great deeds on the battlefield ought to be preserved in the terms of the peace treaty. If they are not the peace conditions will be little more pleasing to the Allied peoples than to Germany.

The president of the Korean National Association passed through this country recently on his way to the Paris peace conference. Tarrying at Washington, he expressed the opinion that the United States, having downed a monster in Europe, will sooner or later have another one to deal with in the Pacific. Of course he referred to Japan. He classed Japan as the German military baby, and charged Japanese soldiers with cutting off a Korean girl's arms because they held out the Korean declaration of independence; with bayoneting and shooting helpless women and children, and with other ravages paralleling those inflicted on the Belgians. All of which is distressing, and it is hoped overdrawn. At least, it cannot be accepted without confirmation from a source not quite so hysteric.

THE DEFICIT GROWS.

The loss incurred by the federal government in operating the railroads of the country during the first three months of this year reached the astounding figure of $130,000,000. The loss for March, the last month of the period for which figures have been compiled, was $57,000,000. At this rate the government is losing on its railroad venture at the rate of $600,000,000 annually.

This deficit will come out of taxes levied upon the people. What are the people receiving in return? Just this: service which is in all respects inferior to that enjoyed prior to the regime of government operation. Train schedules have been cut down, accommodations for the public have been curtailed, the influence of the railroads in promoting and developing vast areas of the country has been withdrawn. Rates have been raised all along the line, both on freight transportation and passenger travel; restrictions have been imposed upon the shipment of material; arbitrary rate schedules have been promulgated which act as a deterrent on foreign and domestic commerce and on domestic industry. The railroads have repudiated their obligations, contractual and implied, with the municipalities throughout the country to participate in community upbuilding.

The reasons for the operating deficit is not increased wages alone, although these form a considerable item of the increase in operating costs. They are to be found in inefficient management, indifferent management, mistaken policies, false movements for economy.

Unless the railroads are restored to their private owners at the earliest possible date the cost of the government's experimental venture in railroad operation will reach a sum that will astound the country and forever remain a scandalous chapter in the history of the nation.

CONGRESS AND CHILD LABOR.

A federal judge in one of the Southern States has rendered an opinion to the effect that the provision of the war revenue bill imposing a heavy tax on the products of child labor is contrary to the Constitution and therefore is to be declared non-effective. The case will, of course, be taken to the Supreme Court. It is impossible to forecast the verdict of that tribunal, but it will be remembered that the Supreme Court, by a vote of five to four, declared unconstitutional another rider to a congressional act seeking to prohibit interstate commerce in products of child labor.

If the child labor rider to the revenue bill is rejected by the courts the judiciary will be in for another siege of sharp criticism. Yet the courts are not to blame for the absence of federal child labor legislation. Congress, and that body alone, is to blame.

THE TRIBUNE has been urging a federal child labor law for more than four years, ever since it became apparent that some reactionary States would not themselves enact prohibitory legislation. These States are in the South, where educational standards are lowest. And this newspaper has repeatedly pointed out that Congress, dominated by Southern Democrats, was not taking the courageous, honest course in trying to couple phrases prohibiting child labor with provisions for the regulation of interstate and foreign commerce or for raising national revenues.

The federal Constitution does not forbid the enactment of a child labor prohibition. But it does properly preserve to the States certain rights regarding purely State business and commerce. Congress has twice managed to defeat genuine efforts for a child labor law by tacking it on to some general law designed for another purpose altogether and in such form as to constitute a plain violation of specifically reserved State privileges. As a consequence the courts have been blamed for the dereliction of the legislators.

Congress should pass an act solely designed to regulate the employment of child labor. It has the authority to do this, even if it involves a constitutional amendment. And if Congress was as seriously concerned about the childhood of the United States as it has proved itself to be with prohibition and woman suffrage a child labor law would soon be in effect.

It is an interesting fact that in this enlightened day, after man has indulged in alcoholic drink for thousands of years—the very oldest records contain accounts of bacchanalian orgies—there is no standard or scientific gauge to determine at just what point a beverage is intoxicating. This fact has been emphasized through the national prohibition edict. Intoxicating liquors are to be prohibited. It is claimed that beer with 2.75 per cent of alcohol is not intoxicating. Several plans have been proposed to settle the question. The most unique, though not the most scientific, was that wherein ten men drank ten sedels of a brew of this strength. They emerged from the experience cold sober, at least as far as could be judged; but still this did not constitute legal proof. The matter is still open; but it is important that it be determined. And it is singular as yet there has been devised no way of determining it beyond peradventure.

NOTES and COMMENT

The detection and diversion of the bombs so that nobody was made a victim who was marked for slaughter was almost providential. It was also largely accidental. It is not impossible that the incident will have good effect. It will stop some mawkishness over persons who fall into the law's grip on account of such attempts, for one thing.

It may be that we get too much worked up over the despatches. Here the Italians were represented to be greatly excited and it read as though the peace conference was likely to "bust up" over Fiume; then the Belgians were said to be on the verge of spilling the beans, and the very next day everything was arranged to everybody's satisfaction and the sky was clear. Perhaps the despatches are haphazardly censored at times.

SPIRIT of the STATE PRESS.

There is not going to be any excursion rates to the east this summer, but the going will be good to about a thousand beautiful sections of California that a lot of folks have never seen. And we hope it will not detract from the proper respect due the subject to say it was just like Fresno, the home of the raisin, to think of drying folks after they are gone.—Stockton Record.

Judge Thomas F. Graham of San Francisco lost a notch in his hold on the title of "the great reconciler" yesterday when he tried to get Mrs. Elizabeth Brander and her husband to kiss and make up. "Go ahead with the trial," ordered Judge Graham.—Modesto News.

Evidently publicity is going to Ole Hanson's head. Mayor Ole, by standing up against a bolshevik strike, woke up one morning and found himself famous. Ever since he has been basking in the reflected light of that fame, and apparently he is now dizzy from it. As an illustration, in a Victory Loan speech at Topeka, Kansas, Mayor Hanson said: "I trust Washington will either hang or jail for life all the anarchists in the country. If the government doesn't clean them up I will. I'll give up my mayorship and start through the country. We will hold meetings and have hanging places."—Fresno Republican.

SPRING WORLD CLEANING

PHILIPPINE INDEPENDENCE

The Story of the Political Intrigue as Told in Manila.

By V. S. McCLATCHY.

Occasional reference is made in the telegrams from Washington to the presence there of Manuel Quezon, president of the Philippine senate, and of a commission from the islands, asking Congress to grant independence to the Philippines. There have been recommendations favoring their petition from Burton Harrison, governor general of the islands, and kindly messages from President Wilson and some of his cabinet.

There is a very interesting story concerning this matter which any visitor to Manila will hear much of which I know to be true and none of which I have any reason to doubt.

The great political leaders in the islands at present are Quezon and Sergio Osmena, who is speaker of the lower house of the Philippine Congress. Quezon is said to have more magnetism. Osmena to have the better balance. Aguinaldo commands the admiration of the natives and could easily become a political leader if he would. Up to this time he has busied himself with farming and commercial pursuits and has abstained from making a cry for independence the excuse for securing political position.

Quezon and Osmena were elected on the independence issue, on their impassioned insistence that the islands should be independent and the assurance if they had their followers were elected the end would be attained.

I met in Manila an American who attended some of the political meetings in the various islands, and who, unknown to the leaders, understood the three principal dialects. He told me that he heard some of these leaders assure the ignorant natives that if they secured independence they would be free of all taxes and obnoxious laws and restraint imposed by the Americans, and would be in a position to do what they pleased and to become rich while doing it. They were told that steady agitation for independence would bring it; and quite naturally they cast their franchises for the men who promised them all these things.

As time progressed the United States gave a steadily increasing measure of autonomy to the islands, but there was no indication of immediate grant of independence. As a matter of fact, the intelligent leaders like Quezon and Osmena became convinced that independence would bring destruction instead of prosperity to the islands.

They satisfied themselves that the United States could not afford to make them independent and at the same time guarantee that independence, thus becoming sponsor for the international policy and acts of a people who are not yet fitted to steer their state bark unaided; and if they were left entirely without the protection of the great powers they would fall prey almost at once to Japan, which could easily find a pretext for hostile action.

So while the leaders still talked independence, they did it with decided mental reservations. In 1916 the Jones bill for government of the Philippines was before Congress, and the Senate unexpectedly passed the Clarke amendment providing for absolute independence in four years from that date.

The Philippine leaders were stricken with consternation, and a confidential mission went to Washington and respectfully, but behind closed doors, asked that the bill do not pass.

"Yes, of course, we are all talking independence—as a matter of fact, you see, we cannot talk anything else—political exigency—but for God's sake don't give it to us."

Their prayer was heeded and they did not get what they were publicly clamoring for.

It is also reported and quite generally believed in Manila's political circles that Quezon, before the Paris peace conference commenced its labors, requested President Wilson to instruct the delegates from the United States not to bring up the subject of Philippine independence.

Meanwhile the opposition party, meaning, of course, the "outs," was making it extremely uncomfortable for the government, meaning the Quezon-Osmena contingent, which is in.

The opposition claimed that the government leaders had been elected on the independence issue, had pledged themselves to secure it, and yet had accomplished nothing in that line, and apparently had no intention of doing so.

As a result the native voters were being betrayed; they were not to enjoy all the beautiful things promised with independence. Was it to be tolerated? Of a certainty, no. Then rise, my friends, valiant members of a puissant race! Throw out these men and elect us, the opposition, in their place! We will be faithful to the trust!

There is nothing the matter with that argument, for it provides just the sort of molasses necessary to catch this particular kind of fly at this particular season—and, mark you, the elections are approaching. There was produced what Messrs. Quezon and Osmena would perhaps acknowledge in private to be an embarrassing situation.

There was but one way to solve it, apparently. The opposition was put in the same boat by the appointment of a non-partisan commission whose members were named from both parties, and this committee was entrusted with the duty of approaching Congress at Washington with a demand for independence.

Now, if that demand fails, the opposition must share the blame with the government, and the Quezon-Osmena party will be safe. If it succeeds—and Manila insists that the knowing ones are praying it will not—then they can only hope for long postponement of the day when Japan will find the foreign policy of the independent Philippine republic objectionable and take steps accordingly. What is to be, will be, and at least they did what they could to avert the fatal day. Kismet. Also Manana.

If this story be all true the lack of backbone and political honesty which could not frankly say, "We want independence with protection. We cannot afford to accept it at this time without," will be equally in evidence in governing an independent but helpless nation. And then the consequences will be more serious.

It is the general opinion of those familiar with conditions in the Far East and with the development of the Philippines in self-government that it would be no kindness on the part of the United States to remove its protecting hand for some time yet.—Sacramento Bee.

"Oh, I was referring to myself," was the placid rejoinder.—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

Simplicity.

"I wish to be loved for myself alone," said the heiress.

"Highly commendable, my dear. But how could you conceal your indentity?"

"Oh, I wish I could go somewhere and live simply under an assumed name with just my maid and a single motor car, so nobody would suspect that my father was worth more than a million or two."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Literal Application.

"Now, as to the stateswoman of the future."

"Well?"

"Let us hope it will be no idle figure of speech when she vociferates from the stump that in spite of the pitfalls of politics she will keep her skirts clean."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Safe There.

"I think I'll go and live in Venice."

"Why Venice?"

"Because the motor cars can't run you down in the streets there."—Baltimore American.

FRIDAY 'OVER THE TOP' DAY; BIG HOLIDAY PROGRAM PLANNED

CHANCE STILL REMAINS FOR RAISING LOAN

Now comes the home stretch in the Victory Loan race, when it will be found whether Oakland makes her quota to the Victory Loan honorably, or falls down.

"There is still a chance that Oakland may make good," says the Victory Loan Committee, "but Oakland will have to hustle."

Friday will be "Over the Top" day.

On Friday it is planned to make a final effort to bring Oakland to her quota, so that by Saturday night the task may be accomplished.

A committee consisting of James G Rohan, manager of the Columbia theater, with Max Horwinski and Manager George Keefe of the Oakland auditorium, has been appointed to make Friday a day of festivity, as well as a day of accomplishment.

The committee already is arranging for a fire-engine race, ten bands to give concerts, a parade of actors, a demonstration by the Oakland playground department, and several other features that will make Friday as great a holiday as Monday's Victory Day celebration.

The full "Over the Top" day program will be announced tomorrow.

Meantime, a big rally was held for the Victory loan today at the Southern Pacific yards, with performers from the Columbia theater appearing, and Rev. Charles S. Price and Perry Burlingame, labor leader as speakers. Labor leaders are now assisting the Victory Loan campaigns in shipyards and factories, and the campaign is gaining impetus.

BLIND SOLDIER THERE.

A feature of today's meeting was the appearance of Monte Marks, Oakland soldier blinded in action, given the cross of a Chevalier of the Legion of Honor by the French government.

Tomorrow, Mme. Stella Jelica, noted singer, and Irving Cummings, new leading man at Ye Liberty theater, have promised to appear at a big Victory loan rally at the Mazda Lamp Works.

Meanwhile, the 500 women workers are spreading the Victory loan button propaganda throughout the Eastbay. "Where's Your Button?" they are asking.

It is planned to have every Oakland citizen wear the Victory Loan button before the week is over.

The Victory loan campaign committee has issued a new circular which explains the whole situation frankly and asks "What are you going to do about it?" The circular is being mailed to every home and business house in Oakland.

"If the right answer is given to that question, Oakland will go over the top," says the Victory Loan Committee.

"Where is Your Button?" is the pertinent question of the hour in Oakland. Here is MRS. BERTRAM C. EDDY, Victory Loan worker, asking the question.

Two-Months Bride in Jail for 20 Days

Her husband and friends unable to raise the $100 necessary to save her from jail, Mrs. Ernestine Newell, bride of two months, is today occupying a cell in Oakland as a result of pleading guilty to a series of petty thefts at the Hotel Claremont and Hotel Shattuck.

After she had sobbed all morning for her spouse at the Berkeley jail Newell, who is employed in an Oakland shipyard, visited the young woman yesterday afternoon but without sufficient funds to pay the fine inflicted by Judge Edgar. A sentence of 20 days in the county jail is her alternative.

Mrs. Cora Pollford, 29-year-old divorcee, arrested with Mrs. Newell, paid a fine of $50 last night and was released from custody. She refused to desert her friend however, and accompanied Mrs. Newell to Oakland when taken there this morning by officers.

Buckley Is Injured When Car Hits Train

P. W. Buckley, business agent of the machinists' union and widely known in circles of organized labor, drove an auto into an eastbound Southern Pacific electric train last night, receiving a fractured skull and other serious injuries. He was taken to the Oakland Emergency Hospital and from there to the Providence Hospital. According to the story told the police by witnesses, Buckley's car ran into the train at Stanford and San Pablo avenues and was hurled several yards along the track by the force of the collision.

Conductor J. S. Gaylord of 522 Henry street, Berkeley, in charge of the train and Motorman Arthur Dean, will not be held responsible for the accident by the police.

Units Are Assigned for Early Convoy

WASHINGTON, May 7.—The following organizations have been assigned to early convoy:

Sales commissary unit 151 butchers' company, 410 veterinary evacuation section, Nos. 8, companies C and D, 538th Engineers, Company D, 515th Engineers' headquarters Third Battalion Seventh, Eighth and Ninth Companies and Third Battalion Medical Detachment, 26th Engineers' evacuation hospitals 21 and 22, Sanitary Squad 41 and Camp Hospitals 12 and 67.

She Misinterpreted the Word "Diva"

Tom Santschi, for the umteenth time in his villainous screen career had again been brought to justice: Geraldine Farrar, the celebrated diva and film star, was once more tightly clasped in the loving stage embrace of Milton Sills and the final fade-out—harbinger of the old familiar phrase, "the end"—was being projected on the screen at the American. Theater this afternoon when two young ladies who had sat enthralled during the presentation of the thrilling photoplay, "The Stronger Vow," breathed naturally again and settled down in their seats in joyful anticipation of witnessing the second feature film drama on the program, Peggy Hyland in "Miss Adventure."

The brief intermission between the two pictures afforded opportunity for a few words of conversation and the young ladies proceeded to tell each other how they just adored Geraldine Farrar, and just loved Milton Sills and just thought it was "awful mean that Tom Santschi always had to play the villain in the movies."

"But there's one thing I can't understand," whispered the younger of the two girls. "They always advertise Geraldine Farrar as a world famous DIVER and I've seen her in 'The Turn of the Wheel,' 'The Hell Cat,' 'Shadows' and this play and she has never yet so much as appeared in a bathing suit."

CITY HALL TO CLOSE TO AID IN BOND SALE

Friday and Saturday will be general holidays at the City Hall, by order of Mayor John L. Davie, and every employee in the building will be turned over to the Victory loan committee to work in the two days' whirlwind finish of the big drive.

Mayor Davie laid the entire plan before the city council today in a meeting that was more a Victory loan rally than a council meeting. The two days will be ushered in by an official proclamation by the mayor, calling on every citizen to rally to the loan to put Oakland over the top. City employees will be assigned districts for a general final campaign and Mayor Davie himself will work with the rest.

DAVIE'S PROCLAMATION.

Mayor Davie today issued the following proclamation urging Oakland to make good on the Victory loan:

"TO THE PEOPLE: Come on Oakland. The Victory loan is wavering and the reputation of our city hangs with it. This is no time to temporize on patriotism. The war may be over but you and I at home have not finished our job.

"The boys must be brought home. The sick and the maimed must be taken care of. We must find work for the unemployed. Our boys furnished the human sacrifices and the nerve, it is up to you and I to furnish the money.

HOME DEFEAT IS LOOMING.

"If you are in doubt as to what you owe, just make this comparison—our boys sacrificed their lives and limbs—you and I are asked to make a legitimate loan with a higher rate of interest than we can get from the banks. That is the comparison, people of Oakland, and with our boys returning maimed and war worn they find us facing a defeat at home in a test of our loyalty and deep appreciation.

"Now what are we going to do about it. Oakland is prosperous. Every house is occupied, every sign of good time prevails. Can we afford to be black listed among American cities as having a lukewarm spirit of Americanism? No, we cannot. We shall not fall down now.

CITY EMPLOYEES TO HELP.

The city's business is going to give way to this drive. Friday and Saturday city employees will report to the Victory loan headquarters and be detailed in this work for Uncle Sam and the City of Oakland. All department heads have been called in today and given instructions. We are requesting the Board of Education to close the schools and turn their department over to the Victory loan.

"Step forward. We have a Herculean task before us. We need to pull shoulder to shoulder, brace up your neighbor and make the weaklings fall in line or drop out.

"Business men, ship workers, bankers, society folks, housewives, everybody, this is a common task—there is not time for differences. There is just time enough to do our duty. All together Oakland is going over the top.

(Signed) "JOHN L. DAVIE,
"Mayor."

SCHOOL BOND MOVE ROUSES BERKELEYANS

The surprise expressed today by the Berkeley Board of Education that steps had been taken to sell $1,000,000 of Berkeley schol bonds without its authorization was met by a statement from the district attorney's office that the procedure had been taken upon authorization by Frank L. Naylor, president of the First National Bank of Berkeley and the Berkeley bond committee which he represented.

Members of the Berkeley board declare they did not authorize taking steps now. They have directed Assistant Superintendent of Schools Morris C. James to investigate. The school directors say the first they knew that anything had been done about selling the bonds was when they received a communication yesterday from District Attorney Ezra Decoto to that effect.

NO AUTHORIZATION FOUND.

"That's news to me," declared Dr. Roydon I. Woolsey, president of the school board. Miss Nellie Crowl, secretary of the board, was directed to review her minutes to determine if any authorization had been given. She found none.

On the other hand, Deputy District Attorney Ollie D. Hamlin made a statement this afternoon in which he defended the action of the district attorney's office in proceeding with the sale of the bonds on next May 19 and explained the authorization. He said:

"The Berkeley Board of Education appointed a bond committee with authority to act on the matter of disposing of the bond. Frank Naylor was chairman. They conferred with District Attorney Decoto, who assigned myself and Miss Frances H. Wilson to handle the matter. We discussed with the committee regarding details and it was decided to advertise for the sale of two issues of $500,000 each to be sold on May 19. In accordance with our understanding the resolution ordering the advertisement of the bond sale was prepared and adopted by the Board of Supervisors, at which meeting all the members were present."

MAY EXPLAIN ACTION.

Members of the Berkeley board admitted today that the apparently unauthorized action might be explained by differences between the board and the advisory committee of citizens which was appointed to assist in spending the bond money. Naylor is a member of this committee, though not its chairman.

Beyond the mere fact that the supervisors action lacked the official sanction of the Berkeley school officials the loss of interest on $100,000 is also involved. According to a decision reached by the school board it was agreed to ask for but $100,000 for high school building purposes at the present time and $500,000 for grammar schools. Advertising authorized by the Board of Supervisors seeking bidders for the bonds calls for $500,000 of each issue, with May 19 set as the date for receiving bids.

$100,000 TO BE IDLE.

Members of the Berkeley board declare that under the present arrangement $100,000 will be idle in the bank with the board paying 3 per cent interest on the money. The $400,000, they declare, is needed at present for high school purposes. Efforts will also be made by Lunes to cancel the action of the county board and to re-advertise for the sale of but $400,000 in bonds.

Lester Hink, prominent Berkeley merchant, is head of the advisory board, which has been meeting with the school officials. Other members are Naylor, Mrs. J. L. Koughan, president Berkeley Federation of Mothers, Mrs. R. S. Holway, Neil Munro, C. L. Schneider and Selden C. Smith.

Alameda and Pleasanton Over Top
First Cities to Reach Quotas

Alameda and Pleasanton have gone over the top in the Victory Loan drive. With other cities and towns in Alameda county, and Oakland in particular way behind their quotas, these two municipalities have gone about the business of aiding the government, and now are on the way to establish a record in excess of quota.

Alameda's quota is $726,000, and that of Pleasanton $121,500. The exact figures of the excess subscriptions are not known as yet. The Victory Loan committees of both cities are jubilant, and are determined that their energy will make up what some other cities lack in bringing about subscriptions that will enable the county as a whole to raise its quota of $18,635,000.

ALAMEDA, May 7.—Alameda went over the top today in the Victory Loan. Figures compiled up to last night totaled $684,700 or 94 per cent of the total quota. Drive Director Johnson said there was no doubt of Alameda going over the top today as the actual business was in sight to more than meet the quota figures of $726,000.

The number of bond buyers is noticeably smaller than for previous issues but the individual subscriptions are generally larger. There have been a surprising number of subscriptions for $5000, $10,000 and up to $20,000. The field workers have about completed their labors. While more money will be brought in during the balance of the week, the big bulk of the work is over and Alameda for the fifth time has gone over the top.

Anti-Enlistment Campaign Is Probed

Stories of a Bolshevist campaign in Oakland to prevent re-enlistment of former soldiers in the United States Army are being investigated today by Captain of Inspectors Walter J. Petersen following a number of complaints by men just out of the service. The men told Petersen that they had been approached by workers in what was apparently an organized band having as its object the discouragement of enlistments. The men with 160 chevrons, say the soldiers, are the ones approached.

Captain Petersen, who himself only recently returned from France, has started an active investigation into the workings of the so-called Bolshevist band, and the propagandists, if arrested, will probably be turned over to the Federal authorities.

ROUND-UP BY POLICE IS PROMISED

A police drive against undesirable aliens was launched today by Captain of Inspectors Walter J. Petersen with the arrest of Paul Delongo, an Austrian, booked on a charge of threatening a girl he was in love with. On this charge he was turned over to the federal authorities, together with a number of other details of his past life. According to Petersen the man has been identified with a number of Bolshevistic affairs.

"We are going right down the line and round up every undesirable," said Petersen. "The Federal government has arranged for wholesale deportations, and I intend to supply a goodly number. There is too much of the Bolshevistic class around Oakland to be comfortable, and these people have not been molested.

"The Federal government's work is now being handled through this office, and the drive is on."

Petersen said that in connection with this persons who have been discouraging enlistments and have been active in other agitations are to be summarily dealt with at once.

Delongo, the man arrested today, lived at 1761 Tenth street. He was a machinist. According to Petersen a complaint was made by Marie Larchesal that he had threatened to kill her if she did not marry him.

BATTING EYES OF OAKLAND SLUGGERS ARE STILL DIM

SIX CLASSY BASEBALL CLUBS COMPRISE CENTRAL CALIFORNIA LEAGUE THIS SUMMER

Foreman Howard Says the Batting Orbs Are Clearing And Predicts a Big Jump

Vernon "Fatties" Here This Week; Oaks May Sign Up Slugger Louis Guisto.

By BOB SHAND

Friend Del Howard is still making good on his promise to keep the Oaks up in the first division. Del has had some awfully narrow squeaks, he has had the boys hanging on by their nails only, but the old fox has been very careful that they did not make the fatal drop. At the opening of the series with the Vernon Fatties this afternoon the Oaks are in the first division half a game ahead of Salt Lake, thanks to the efforts of the Sacramento athletes who took a seven to six fall out of the Bees yesterday, and if you listen to Howard and his cohorts the Oaks will be battling for first place in a few weeks.

Del says some of his best athletes are suffering from colds and stone bruises and things and he is well pleased with the showing they made in the northwest even if they did drop a pair of series. "We had a lot of tough luck in the north," chirped Del, last night, "and we should have won a majority of the games with an even break in the luck. Take that Seattle series for instance. No matter what kind of baseball you played it was always luck that won the game and this goes for the games we won. The diamond was in such terrible condition that the infielders were taking desperate chances every time they went after a ground ball and it is a wonder that none of them were killed.

"The games were won and lost on bobbles and we were unlucky enough to get the worst of it. Feed us this Seattle outfit on a regular baseball diamond and we will take about six out of seven. However, that trip is a thing of the past and we are willing to forget it. We are still in the first division and that is the principal thing. The boys are due to start hitting pretty soon and once they get their bats working we will climb rapidly. The attendance in the northwest was a big surprise to me. I think they are going to have a wonderful year up there, especially if they strengthen the Portland and Seattle teams. The fans have been crying for class AA baseball for keen years and now they have got it they are willing to support it."

From the outside looking in it appears that the reason the Oaks did not bring back more victories is the fact that the boys are not hitting. Men like Rowdy Elliott, Red Murray, Bill Stumpf, Jack Rowe, Billy Lane and Hack Miller should be hitting up around the .300 mark, but they have not been connecting with the ball in the last two weeks despite the fact that the Portland and Seattle pitching is not the best in the league. Miller slumped in the northwest and while Lane and Roche picked up a little they are hitting far below their natural gait. The warm weather may improve the Oaks' batting eyes and if they get to hitting against Vernon—LOOK OUT.

There is a rumor around baseball headquarters that the Oaks would like to get Louis Guisto, the Cleveland first sacker who was recently released from the army. Walter McCredie, former boss of the St. Mary's boy, is also on the big fellow's trail but if the Oaks want him real bauly they should be able to make the right connections in view of the Elliott and Rohne deals. Cleveland is said to be willing to dispose of Guisto and if the Oaks get him we will have a ball club that will stack up as good as any in the league and and have a royal chance of winning the pennant.

Biff Schaller, the best outfielder in the league two years ago has been given his unconditional release by Manager Charlie Graham of the Seals. Biff went to work in a shipyard in 1917 and the hard graft put his legs and arms on the blink. At that he was beating out hems and showing a little more speed on the paths when he was benched by Graham. Joe Conney, the local youngster has supplanted Schaller in left field and Joe is one of the best fly chasers in the business.

"Old Man" Crandall Defeats the Seals in First Combat

LOS ANGELES, May 7. The San Francisco Seals made their first visit here yesterday and dropped a game to the Los Angeles club by a 5 to 2 score, giving the locals a full game gain in the pennant chase. Indian Smith, who last season had the "goat" of the Angels, pitched for the Seals yesterday and was pumped for nine hits, most of them coming in the pinches. The Angels got two runs in the third and three in the fifth, while the Seals got theirs in the fourth and ninth. Otis Crandall pitched for the Angels and allowed six hits.

OAKS VS. TIGERS IS ATTRACTION TOMORROW

The Oaks, after being on the road two weeks, will make their reappearance on the home grounds tomorrow afternoon at 3:15 when they will do battle with the Vernon Tigers. The latter made a good record against Seattle last week and the Oaks will have to hustle to keep the Tigers from passing them in the pennant race. However, now that the boys are back home, they are expected to recover their batting eyes which seemed to be badly dimmed in the north.

Erich Schreiber Is Back in States

Erich Schreiber, Oakland TRIBUNE cartoonist and a ball player with several of the local leading teams before joining the Tank Corps, will be back in Oakland in a few days. Erich has spent the last six months in France with the 303d Center Tank Corps and had the pleasure of visiting Paris just before starting for home. A telegram to his mother has given the information that he has arrived at Fort Stewart, Virginia. Several local clubs already are figuring on seeing him in their uniform shortly after his return.

MARRIED LIFE

Bike Racers Will Be Back Again Sunday

Ancient Sport to Be Tried Out on New S. F. Track

San Francisco will get back on the bicycle map next Sunday afternoon, when the new Velodrome track at Twelfth and Market streets will be opened with a program that is sure to please all lovers of clean sport and healthy outdoor exercise.

With a seating capacity in the grandstands and bleachers of 10,000 the Velodrome looks to be the very sort of a place for reviving the bike game that in days gone by was such a favorite in California.

Sunday promises to be a great big day at the Velodrome and the program, which has been arranged under the direction of Orlando Stevens, Frank E. Carroll and other old-time favorites with the wheel fans, will be a varied one, and will offer competition for many of the promising California youngsters as well as the famous professionals from Eastern cities and from foreign countries.

Among the famous foreign riders who already have signed to perform at the Velodrome are Gordon Walker of Melbourne, Australia; Nat Bowes, the Irish champion; Joe Dupp of Belgium; Marcel Berger of Paris, and a host of others who will be on the job and ready for action very shortly.

All of San Francisco's old favorites are out warming up at the track every morning and afternoon. They include Hans Ohrt, one time American amateur champion; Percy Lawrence, Pete Morgan, John Coughlan and a half a dozen other sprinters and distance lads who gained fame and fortune in more than one six-day race.

Plans are now on foot for the signing up of many of the aspiring youngsters of Oakland and other Eastbay cities.

John Quinn Returned From Overseas and Ready to Play

Local Ball Player Says He Hit Many a Hun

With the return of many of its old members from overseas Company N, League of the Cross Cadets baseball team is due to receive some strengthening that will bring it up to the class of our leading amateur teams. Among the old members already returned and who will be a big help to the club is Sergeant John Quinn, who came back with the "Fighting 91st." John was first sergeant in the 363d Machine Gun Company, and saw lots of hard fighting at Verdun and in the Argonne forest.

It was his fighting spirit that won many a ball game for Company N before the war's outbreak, and John is expected to do the same for the Cadets this summer. By the way John talks, he has fattened his batting average over there in his games with the Hun. John claims he made a hit on nearly every attempt.

JOHN QUINN, local ball player, who recently returned from the battlefields, where he scored many a hit.

Sacramento Wins, 7-6, From Salt Lake

SACRAMENTO, May 7. — The Sacramento club returned home after a two weeks' absence and celebrated by defeating the Salt Lake Bees 7 to 6. Gould, Caldera, Stoud and Schinkle were used in the box by the Salt Lake manager, with Schinkle getting the defeat charged against him. With the bags full in the ninth inning, Schinkle walked Eldred to force the winning run over the plate. Bromley and Gardner pitched for the locals. Marty McGaffigan and Roxy Middleton helped with three hits each.

San Leandro Fans to Honor Members of Tractor Team

The members of the C. L. Best Tractor baseball team of San Leandro are to be honored next Saturday night when at St. Joseph's hall, San Leandro, a dance and entertainment. Fans of San Leandro, among them being William Gilis, Sonny Williams, Managers William Wagner and Toney Enos, want to show their appreciation for the good work done by the Tractor players, and they have arranged for one of the best evenings of entertainment to be witnessed at the Cherry Town.

Part of the receipts will be used for the equipping of the ball team, which has easily proven itself to be one of the best to represent San Leandro, as well as one of the best amateur teams now playing in the state.

All members of the team are requested to be in attendance and if the players fail to play up to their usual class on the following Sunday the managers will have no one but themselves to blame, as they are sure out to make it a regular night for the boys.

The committee handling the affair tried to talk Chick Autrey, the Tractors' first sacker, into stepping upon the stage and telling his history on the baseball diamond, but Chick refused, fearing that those who would like to do some dancing wouldn't get the chance for he claims the history of himself would fill a couple of books, which also shows that the clever first sacker himself feels that he is no youngster. Still Chick hopes to be there and show the boys that he can step around the floor just as cleverly as he can around the first bag.

By EDDIE MURPHY

Oftimes while at a boxing show fans have been heard to remark that they would like to see the ordinary amateur boys step four rounds rather than they would a few highly touted near champions while we have also heard fans say that they would like to see Benny Leonard and other high-class boys perform. But if at a local boxing show a vote be taken to have the fans decide if they would like the Frank Luschel, Frank Denny, Johnny Conde type better than the fast stepping boys who deliver few hard wallops, the vote probably would be in favor of the Luschers and Dennys. Tommy Simpson and Gordon M. Gliddon, the local promoters, have for a long while tried to please the fans by offering them the boys who show plenty of boxing skill, but very light hitting, and that was done with the first-class prices prevailing. Simpson and Gliddon have come to the conclusion, like have many others, that it is the amateur boys who put up the slam-bang contests that the fans want to see, and Tommy and Gordon have arranged one of those cards to be shown the fans tonight at the local Auditorium, and in doing so they have lowered the prices to the old mark which prevailed at the time when bouts were being staged at the West Oakland arena and each show saw a packed house.

HIGH-CLASS BOUTS FOR VERY REASONABLE PRICES.

The card which is being offered tonight by the combined promoters appears to be the best that can be offered the fans for a "buck" and even a "half buck." The fans that have been crying for action and a shelving of the high-class boys will sure get their wish tonight at the Auditorium, for every bout is shaping up like a special event if not a main event. Joe Miller, the pride of the North Beach section of San Francisco, is coming over with a hope of making the fans think that the sensational comeback of Frank Luscher a few weeks ago was just one like Willie Ritchie against Benny Leonard, Luscher, the Twenty-third avenue pride, did his comeback by hanging a ten-second punch on the jaw of "Wildcat" Leonard a few weeks ago. It will be much of a surprise tonight if Miller is able to take as much as a half line verdict from the East Oakland boy, as Frank has been working out in the gym with the best sparring partners to be had and he looks better than the time when a few years ago at West Oakland he would bring the fans to their feet with his sensational fighting. Frank still possesses his old wallop and it will have to be a tough Joe Miller that will withstand his punches tonight.

CONDE AND COOPER IS TALK ALONG BROADWAY.

Because Johnny Conde is matched with a colored lad answering to the name of "Roughhouse" Cooper, the main attraction is not causing the talk that it might with Cooper and Conde off the card. All one has to do around Twelfth and Broadway to start an argument on the Conde-Cooper event is to mention the name of either boxer. Toney Dutro, who when not chattering with boxers is chopping the wool from the top of some one's head, is the fellow responsible for Cooper being matched with Conde. Dutro vouches that Cooper will give Conde the greatest battle of his life, and many a fellow is tonight going to find himself short of change should a knockout decision results. Conde has been doing most of his training with Eddie Gorman and never trained harder for a scrap than he did for the one tonight. John had the right idea. Eight bouts are being offered the fans tonight, the Conde-Cooper one being an added attraction.

There are only two special events carded, although Simpson and Gliddon would not have been making a mistake in carding two of the preliminaries as specials. In the semi-windup Frank Denny is to swap wallops with Rex Morris. No introduction of the pair is required. They should just step in the middle of the ring and let the fur fly.

Danny Edwards, the little colored lad who when in shape, which he will surely be tonight, is able to go around the ring like a jumping-jack, will put his knowledge of the ring against that of Dave Shade in the second special event.

EDDIE GORMAN AND YOUNG VIERRA WILL STEP AROUND.

It is hard to figure any way how the fans are going to be mistreated at tonight's show. Eddie Gorman vs. Young Vierra is a match that transbay fans would be willing to consider a special event, but Simpson and Gliddon are offering it as a preliminary. Gorman is out to win tonight's scrap for two reasons. The first is so that he will be matched with Joe Coffey or some other fast boy on the next transbay or local card, while the other is that he make a contemplated trip to Los Angeles where the southern promoters have offered him several scraps. Less Summerfield, manager of Gorman, has received a telegram asking that he bring Gorman south, and Summerfield has wired to say what kind of a medal his boy expects if he will leave the bay section next week. Vierra and Gorman should put up a fast little argument. Jimmy Ford vs. Jack Davis, the fighting motorman, is another good attraction among the preliminaries. The two other scraps will be Danny Malone vs. Young Fitzsimmons and Battling Kerveras vs. Ray Wills.

Here is EDDIE GORMAN, the local bantam who appears in the Shipbuilders' Boxing Carnival at the local auditorium tonight and who will probably be taken south by Manager Less Summerfield, next week.

Alameda Beth Ball Team Is A Strong One

Manager Eddie Murphy Has Boys Ready for Central League

Eddie Murphy, manager of the Alameda Bethlehem shipyard team, has certainly a ball team. Up to date the Beths have not met defeat. They handed Sacramento Coast League a trimming, 3 to 2, and beat Union Construction shipyard team 10 to 2.

Billy Harrison, the king of good fellows, has certainly come to the bat for the team and you can bet the ball players have a soft spot in their hearts for Billy.

Eddie has so many good ball players to pick from that he thinks he will have to start another league. But when the Central California League starts he will have some fine material up to date, here is the probable lineup: Pitchers, O'Connor, Benham; catchers, Daddy Rohr and Donovan; first base, Vinnie Ward; second base, Harvey Christensen; shortstop, Billy Menges; third base, Jimmy Devine; left field, Pete Starasinich; center field, Johnny Galena; substitutes, Bailey, Paline, Olsen and Frenchy.

The Booster Club of the Alameda Bethlehems will meet some time this week and select their leader. Some booster club! Lee Stoll, Jack Constable, Clarke, Upton, Sid Orth, George Hartford and Cy Brockhoff.

Billy Menges, a former Oakland player, has certainly rounded into fine form and also he is full of jazz and pep—a new Bill.

Vinnie Ward, the Beths' first baseman, had the stork visit his home and brought another big leaguer.

St. Dominick must think pretty well of Benham, Alameda Bethlehem's pitcher, when they used him in the outfield last Sunday and he put the ball over the fence.

Oaks O'Connor, Alameda Bethlehem's righthand pitcher, certainly has some pitcher's record this year. He beat Balfour Differ team of Alameda 1 to 0; Union Construction shipyard team 10 to 2, and allowed Oakland in Coast League, four hits, but received poor support and was beaten 6 to 2.

Jimmy Devine played his second game since being mustered out of the army and the army has improved his batting eye. Last Saturday he got two blows and a walk out of five times up.

They can boost all their catchers in the Coast League, but right now "Daddy" Rohr has it on some of them. His pegging is perfect and his hitting is wonderful. Keep up the good work, Daddy.

Johnny Galena, right fielder, and one of the best all-round men, can cover some ground in the field. Johnny is an eleven-second man and will give some of the catchers in Central California League a good time trying to catch him stealing.

Espee Shasta Win After Getting Scare

The S. P. Shastas journeyed down to Alvarado and beat the crack team of that town 11 to 8 in a fast and exciting game. The game was featured by the heavy hitting of Ratuzzi, Conley, Hoffman and Furse of the Shastas. Manager Hunrick was short the services of two men so he secured the services of Furrier and Page of the Crystal Laundry, who both played great ball.

In the last inning, with the score 11 to 7 against them, Alvarado started a batting rally that made things look dangerous for the Shastas. A couple of long hits and an error gave them a run, and with three men on bases and one out the next batter hit a short fly. Page came in fast, making a swell running catch, and with a perfect throw to the home plate caught the runner coming in from third base for the last out, ending the game.

Manager Hunrick had Fonseca and Ebe for the battery, Hunrick, C. Hoffman, Conley and Ratzazzi for the infield and Furrier, Page and Held for the outfield.

Next Sunday the S. P. Shastas play the Sun Maids at Fresno.

Miller, Pinkham Bout at Dreamland

Joe Miller, who boxes Frank Luscher at Tommy Simpsons' show tonight has been matched with Eddie Pinkham for the main event at Dreamland Rink, San Francisco, Friday. Eddie Mahoney has agreed to make 133 pounds at 9 o'clock for Harry Pelsinger and this pair will furnish the special event. The other bouts are: Frank Haynie vs. Billy Shade; Spider Webb vs. Tommy Richards; Jim Marples vs. Joe Willie; Frank Tabor vs. Leo Houck; Johnny Conde vs. Larry Jones.

Ortega and Shade Will Meet Friday

Because Salinas Jack Robinson knocked Sailor Hess for a goal in the second round of their scrap at Vallejo Monday night the sailor will not meet Battling Ortega at the next Vallejo show scheduled for Friday night. George Shade has been substituted.

Central League Opening Games Are Arranged

Mission League Is Still in Need of One More Club.

The race in the Central California Baseball League will open a week from next Sunday with games being played at Richmond, Pittsburg and Crockett. That all means that Jerry Lawlor, president of the league, was present at last night's meeting and lived up to his promising of straightening out uneven affairs that made it for a time look like the league might blow. And while the Central League managers and directors were doing their business, over in another room of The TRIBUNE building Fred Krum, president of the Mission League, was trying to figure how he would have six clubs to open the season for his organization a week from next Sunday also.

San Jose will not be in the Mission League. That was a vote of the other team managers last night when they were read the conditions on which the San Jose Bears would be entered in the league by Manager G. C. Bradford. The San Jose manager was unable to show the other managers any way where a team traveling to San Jose could do better than to get expenses. Twenty-five dollars is all that a local club traveling to the Garden City would receive, and the managers figured that they would have to do some tall figuring to make that run far enough for traveling expenses for twelve men. Another meeting of the Mission Leaguers will be held next Monday night and it is believed that either Redwood, City or San Rafael will be put in the place left open by San Jose.

The adoption of a schedule for the first two weeks of the season, the reading of the bylaws and the arranging for the cutting of the receipts of gates, as well as selecting umpires was done at the Central League meeting. The games for the first two Sundays will be as follows:

May 18—Alameda Beths at Pittsburg, umpire Lattimer; St. Dominics at Crockett, umpire Connors; Vallejo at Richmond, umpire Al Earle.

May 25—Vallejo at Crockett, umpire Al Earle; Alameda Beths at Richmond, umpire Lattimer; St. Dominics at Pittsburg, umpire Connors.

The Vallejo team represented by Herb Remmer of Spiro's sporting goods house, asked that they be allowed to play their first two games away from home, owing to the fact that the opening of the Central League is wanted at the new ball park, and that it will be ready around the first of June.

The Spalding ball was adopted as the official league ball.

The manager had a tough argument to put up in getting Otto Dietrich, the Richmond manager, to agree with them on the splitting of the gates. Otto wanted each team to take the full receipts of their own gates, and the other managers failed to see where there would be any rivalry to the games, with the players knowing that they would receive nothing when visiting another town. It was finally decided that the home teams get 60 per cent and the visitors 40. The St. Dominics and Alameda Beth teams will get 50 per cent of the gates if they win and 40 if they lose. That is being done in order to encourage the managers to put their best teams in the field. Otto Dietrich is the only manager that refused to give the St. Dominics and Alameda Beths that kind of a cut and they will have to be satisfied with the 60-40 basis when visiting Richmond. That was the only way that the league could be kept together.

St. Joseph's A. C. Defeats Clothiers At Bushrod Park

Before one of the largest crowds that has attended a game at Bushrod park, the St. Joseph Athletic club took the Money-Back Smith team into camp by a 9 to 5 score. The club boys banged the offerings of Pitcher Vic Corbett for a total of sixteen bingles, while Cohen's team found Lemos for nine. Owing to the fact that it was their first game the Money-Back Smith infield committed seven errors, which helped the club boys in their scoring, while the infield of the St. Joseph's worked like clock-work, pulling off two double plays. Soares and Cornelius featured with the bat, each getting four bingles. Ryan's work on third featured, in the third inning he grabbed a foul fly off Cohen's bat and was given an ovation by the spectators. The score:

Terrifying Discomfort From Skin Diseases

Itching and Burning Eruptions Torture Victims

Only those who are afflicted with Eczema, Tetter, Erysipelas boils and similar so-called skin diseases can appreciate the real terrifying discomfort that comes from these disorders.

Just imagine that there is a steady blaze of fire in constant contact with your tender skin, and you can form some idea of the pain that must be endured by the afflicted. For the millions and millions of tiny disease germs that seem to burrow through the skin, each one carrying a torch of fire, cause pain that is almost unendurable.

And the constant plea of those afflicted is the oft-repeated question, "How can I find relief from this constant torture?" Not palliative, temporary relief that causes the terrible itching to abate for awhile, but real genuine relief that shakes off the shackles of the disease and restores the skin to its former healthy condition.

And temporary relief is the most that can be expected from local treatment, such as ointments, salves, lotions, etc., which is one reason why these diseases seem to hold on with such tenacity. It is not because they are incurable, but because they are improperly treated, that they appear to be so stubborn and so difficult to cure.

The fact is they are misnamed, and therefore, improperly treated. Because the trouble attacks the skin and all the pain and discomfort is confined to the surface of the skin, these disorders are called "skin diseases." But the real cause is a disease germ in the blood, which multiplies by the million, and sets up an irritation in some tender location of the delicate skin.

You can get some little relief for the time being by rubbing or scratching the irritated skin, but you would not expect to be cured in this way. Neither should you expect a cure from local applications of lotions, ointments or other remedies applied to the skin, for the simple reason that a cure must come from the source of the trouble.

You must locate the headquarters of the disease germs, and cut off their base of supplies. The blood is saturated with them, and they will set up their attacks on the surface of the skin as long as they remain in the blood, no matter how much local treatment you take.

A million gallons of local treatment applied to the surface of the skin will not eliminate the germs of the disease from the blood, and until they are eliminated your skin will never be free from the itching and burning discomfort.

If you want relief that is permanent, then take a treatment that goes right to the seat of the trouble and removes its cause. Such a remedy is S. S. S., the reliable old blood remedy purifier that so thoroughly cleanses the blood, that every trace of disease germ is routed out, and a new supply of rich, red blood is sent coursing through the veins.

S. S. S. has been used successfully in some of the worst cases of eczema and other skin troubles, and it can be relied upon to cleanse the blood of the last vestige of the disease. S. S. S. is also a splendid tonic and system builder, and it builds up and adds new vigor to the whole system.

Go to your drugstore and get a bottle of S. S. S. today and begin the right treatment for skin diseases. Then write for free medical advice about your own case. Address Chief Medical Adviser, 107 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.—Advertisement.

WILLARD'S CHICKENS COME HOME TO ROOST

Proverbial Short Memories of Fight Fans Will Not Apply in Case of This Fight

By BOB SHAND

Now that the velvet has been removed from the hammers, "Tex" Rickard and his precious Willard-Dempsey scrap are going to make a mighty fine anvil. It is not the reformers who are going to put obstacles in the way of the big fight this time, but it is the boys who went to France and offered their lives in the cause of Democracy. In the past when the reform element opposed a big fight the promoters went ahead with their plans after receiving the O.K. of the politicians and they invariably got away with something. Once in a while, as with the Jeffries-Johnson fight that was driven out of San Francisco, the promoters over-reached themselves, but as a rule they can smother the reformers or work so fast that the fight is over before the opposition is thoroughly organized.

THEY WON'T FORGET.

Not so in this case, however. The men who fought for their country are never going to forget what Willard did not do in the day when every man was needed. They are not going to forget Willard's offer to enlist and his hurried refusal after a recruiting officer had chased him through five states. They are not going to forget that he was too busy with his "vast oil interests" to box at a tobacco fund benefit and that he "could not leave Texas" to box in New York when he could have raised half a million dollars for the Red Cross.

It is now generally realized that Willard was laying low until the war was over. He thought the people would forget his shortcomings in the flush of victory and that with the signing of the armistice he would be allowed to start afresh with a clean slate. He knew of other boxers who did not enlist and also some who did not always volunteer their services at patriotic benefits, but there never was a more flagrant case of a man refusing to do his bit for his country than that of Jess Willard. Rated as being worth half a million dollars, he continued making money for himself, and himself alone, when the boys in France were calling for assistance.

COME HOME TO ROOST.

The chickens have come home to roost and Willard will shortly learn that the way of the transgressor is mighty hard. The men and women who worked so hard during the war to raise funds to help the boys "over there" and who were turned down repeatedly when they asked the Willard person to donate his services still remember. And never let it be said that the soldiers, sailors and marines who did the actual fighting are going to let Willard get away with anything now.

There are not so many boys in uniform now as there were a year ago, but there are thousands, hundreds of thousands of civilians with honorable discharge papers in their inside pockets whose memories are not so short. If Rickard ever attempts to stage this Willard-Dempsey farce these civilians are going to be heard.

And on top of this opposition the fight fans who are usually willing to travel several thousand miles to see a championship match are not warming up to this thing. It is the general opinion that the entire affair is a business proposition among business men.

Veterans Want Willard Barred

The first official shot in the war against Jess Willard and the notorious Willard-Dempsey "fight" was fired last night in Chabot hall where the Alameda County War Veterans' Association adopted a resolution that branded Willard a slacker and demanded that he be not permitted to earn any more money in American rings. The resolution which was offered by Al Waddell and seconded by William Moyle, was unanimously adopted and copies of it will be sent to the governors of all states and also to all patriotic organizations in the country.

Like another famous shot, this one, fired in Oakland last night, is expected to be heard around the world.

Tribune Cubs Win Their Opening Game

The Oakland TRIBUNE Cubs opened their season at Bay View playground by defeating the Seventh Avenue Stars, 9 to 6. Pearson, pitching for the TRIBUNE, was the big star, pitching a six-hit game, fanning sixteen and hitting out two triples and a single himself. H. Isaac also did good work for the TRIBUNES by hitting two homers and as many singles. Silva and Whitney of the same club each hit triples and doubles. Kennedy of the Avenues hit a homer. The TRIBUNES would like to play any of the teams 16 to 19 years of age. Address Manager R. Whitney, 3240 Adeline street, Berkeley. The score:

"Dinty" Moore Is Puzzle to All-Stars

Dinty Moore had his "dint" ball working in great style when he was in the box for the Brooklyn Parlor of Native Sons' ball team, and the batting records of the San Pablo All Stars were badly dinted. Dinty let the All Stars down with only three hits and one run, while his teammates stepped out and grabbed six runs on five hits off Baker of the All Stars. Dreisbach led the Natives in hitting with two safe blows. Lefty Pease cut off several drives around the second sack. The score:

Short Route Makes Fight Appear Queer

Real Champions Defended Their Titles Over Marathon Route.

NEW YORK, May 7.—The Willard-Dempsey heavyweight championship bout scheduled for July 4 at Toledo was the one topic of discussion among eastern fight followers during the past 24 hours. While there is evidence of a wide difference of opinion regarding the outcome there is no record of wagering at this time. In fact those who take more than a passing interest in ring affairs, find it difficult to reconcile the idea of a heavyweight championship with the twelve-round contest which it is proposed to stage. There was much thumbing of fight record books and other data on this point and it was the concensus that it was a pugilistic innovation which required time to assimilate.

The glamour which surrounded the virtual fights to a finish in which Sullivan, Corbett, Fitzsimmons, Jeffries and even Johnson defended their titles appears to be lacking in this contest. It is also a decided ring novelty for a heavyweight champion to agree to place his title in jeopardy by a referee's decision over such a short route. Many expressed the opinion that it showed remarkable confidence on the part of Willard to defend successfully his titular honors against the rushing tactics of as formidable an opponent as Jack Dempsey.

With the exception of the 10-round no decision bout between Willard and Frank Moran in this city three years ago, which few ring experts took seriously from a title passing angle there is no record of such a short scheduled battle in the modern history of heavyweight fighting. Since the days of John L. Sullivan championship contests in this class have ranged from twenty rounds upward.

The average for the heavyweight titular battles fought since the night that Corbett stopped Sullivan in New Orleans in 1892 has been thirteen and two-thirds rounds per fight. Willard holds the duration record for it took him twenty-six rounds to finish off Johnson in Havana in 1915. Of these seventeen bouts but four ended in less than double figures rounds and nine went more than twelve rounds.

$160,000 BONDS EXEMPT FROM TAX

According to a Treasury Department circular released through the San Francisco Federal Reserve Bank, the total amount of Liberty bonds and Victory notes which may be held by an individual tax exempt, is $160,000, exclusive of the 3½ per cent Victory notes which are exempt from all taxation, both State and Federal, to any amount.

All Liberty bonds and Victory notes are exempt from the normal federal income tax and all state and local taxes except estate and inheritance taxes.

George K. Weeks, campaign manager in the Victory Loan for the Twelfth Federal Reserve district, yesterday explained the exemptions from the federal surtax and profit tax on holdings of Liberty bonds up to the maximum of $160,000. Weeks said:

"Excluding the fully tax-exempt 3½s, it has heretofore been possible—provided a required proportion of Fourth loan 4¼s were originally subscribed for and still owned—to hold a total of $110,000 4¼s of the various loans exempt from surtaxes and excess profits taxes, as well as normal income taxes for at least two years after the termination of the war. Deducting the amount of $30,000, the possible exemptions of first 3½s converted (because it would not seem good business for investors to convert these bonds), would still leave $80,000 par value of 4½s as a practical maximum of exemption under the old law.

"The Victory Liberty Loan Act added an exemption of $30,000, the par value of Second, Third or Fourth loan bonds, for a period beginning January 1, 1919, and continuing for five years after the termination of the war, without requiring any act on the part of bondholders; plus a still further exemption of $20,000, providing $6667 Victory Liberty Loan notes are purchased and held. If less than $6667 Victory Liberty Loan notes are purchased, then the amount of this additional exemption is reduced to an amount three times the amount of Victory Liberty Loan notes so purchased.

"Adding these new exemptions to the $110,000 maximum which could previously be held at one time fully exempt, makes a maximum of $160,000 par value of 4¼s which, since the passage of the new Act, may be held with full tax exemptions by an individual."

Aunt Elsie to Tell of Past Tribune Writer Knows History

Long before Oakland was even a village, Aunt Elsie's mother and father (Aunt Elsie was not even born then) came with the first settlers to live in what is now San Leandro. It was a wild, new country and full of adventure. They have told her since many a stirring tale of those pioneer days which every lad and lassie who lives in Alameda county should know about. Aunt Elsie, herself, was born in Benicia, and every Californian knows that all sorts of thrilling things happened there in the early days. Aunt Elsie knows all about those things, too. And she's going to tell them to the boys and girls who want to know in the Oakland TRIBUNE.

"I don't believe in hammering in morals," declares Aunt Elsie. "I just believe in telling children stories which will make them happy. Maybe sometimes they have to be scolded and maybe sometimes they have to be cried with, but friends know how to scold right cheerfully and cry right soothingly and I'm a cheerful friend to all the youngsters all the time."

"If a youngster is happy and contented, he is bound to be moral," is her axiom.

That is why the Boy Scouts and the Camp Fire Girls and the older lads and lassies are to find the things in the paper which they want to find and the little toddlers are to know that the stories in the Teeney-Weeney Bear department are written just for them. There will be no moral like the Aesop's Fables to the adventures of Jimmie Squirrel and Billy Owl and Charlie Cottontail, but there will be lots of fun.

"I just named our squirrels, and owls and cottontails in Mariposa county Jimmie and Billy and Charlie, because they were such comical little forest creatures and like all the young Jimmies and Billys and Charlies that I had ever known," she explains.

"They're so human," says Aunt Elsie.

STREET ABANDONMENT.

Whereas, A petition for the vacating and abandonment of certain public highways and roads in Eden Road District, Eden Township, Alameda County, California, was filed with this Board on the 7th day of April, 1919; and

Whereas, This Board did, upon the filing of such petition, order that Monday, the 28th day of April, 1919, at the hour of eleven (11) o'clock a. m. of said day, and the meeting room of said Board of Supervisors in the Hall of Records, at the southwest corner of Broadway and Fifth streets in the City of Oakland, Alameda County, California, be fixed as the time and place for the hearing of said petition and that notices be given to all freeholders of said district of said time and place so fixed for the hearing of said petition by publication in the Hayward Review, a newspaper published in said Alameda County, for at least two (2) successive weeks prior to the time fixed for said hearing, and that a similar notice be posted conspicuously along the line of the proposed vacation; and

Whereas, Thereafter, on this 28th day of April, 1919, it having first been proved to the satisfaction of this Board that notice of said hearing has been duly published as ordered and that a similar notice has also been posted conspicuously along the line of the said proposed vacation, and that all other requirements of law have been complied with, and the said Board of Supervisors being then and there in open regular session to hear the evidence offered and submitted concerning the matters alleged in said petition, and did consider said petition and evidence; and

Whereas, From all of said evidence it duly appears to this Board that the public highways, roads and streets and portions thereof hereinafter described and described in said petition are and each of them is unnecessary for present or prospective public use and should be vacated, discontinued and abandoned, and the public easement heretofore existing therein should cease; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, By this Board, and it is hereby ordered that the public highways, streets, roads and portions thereof, situate, lying and being in Eden District, Eden Township, Alameda County, California, more particularly designated as follows, to-wit:

All of those portions of Peterman, Pestdorf and Estudillo streets lying north of the north side of Fourth avenue, as shown on the map of "Russell City" filed in the office of the County Recorder of the County of Alameda on the 8th day of November, 1907, in Book 23 of Maps, page 51, be and the same hereby are and each of them is vacated, discontinued and abandoned as highways, roads or streets, and that the public easement heretofore existing herein shall forthwith and henceforth cease and determine, and that the title to the land heretofore subject to said easement shall revert to the respective owners thereof free from said public easement.

On motion of Supervisor Heyer, seconded by Supervisor Hamilton, resolution was adopted by the following vote:

Ayes — Supervisors Hamilton, Heyer, Murphy, Staats and Chairman Mullins—5.

CONTRACT AWARDED.

Whereas, This Board on the 10th day of March, 1919, ordered the Clerk to advertise for proposals for furnishing and installing the kitchen equipment for the Arroyo Sanatorium near Livermore, Alameda County, California.

Whereas, Bids were presented for said work, and

Whereas, Mangrum & Otter, Inc., bid for $5,295.00 is the lowest and most satisfactory proposal; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the contract for furnishing and installing the kitchen equipment for the Arroyo Sanatorium near Livermore, Alameda County, California, according to plans and specifications on file in the office of the Clerk of this Board be and the same is hereby awarded to Mangrum & Otter, Inc.; be it further

Resolved, That a bond in the sum of $2650.00 be required from said Mangrum & Otter, Inc., for the performance of said work, and that the District Attorney be and he is hereby directed to prepare the proper contract and that the Chairman of this Board be and he is hereby authorized to sign said contract for and in behalf of the County of Alameda upon the presentation and approval of the bond presented by said Mangrum & Otter, Inc., for the performance of said contract, said work to be completed within 150 days from date of approval of bond.

On motion of Supervisor Murphy, seconded by Supervisor Staats, resolution was adopted by the following vote:

BERKELEY HIGH SCHOOL DIST. BONDS.

The proceedings in the matter of the election held in the Berkeley High School District were presented to the Board and ordered filed, thereupon a resolution was adopted declaring the legality of said proceedings and directing the Clerk to advertise the sale of said bonds in the amount of $500,000.00 and setting the date of said sale as Monday, May 19th, 1919.

Taking Big Chances.

It is too much of a risk to depend upon neighbors or sending for medicine in case of a sudden attack of bowel complaint. In almost every neighborhood some one has died from cholera morbus that could easily have been saved had the proper medicine been at hand. Then think of the suffering that must be endured until medicine can be obtained. The safe way is to keep at hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy, a preparation that can be depended upon. Buy it now. It only costs 35 cents. For sale by Osgood Bros. Drug Stores.—Advertisement.

Fat-soluble Vitamins

An Advertisement Written by Samuel P. Johnston

Air is the most necessary thing for the maintenance of life
water is the next most necessary

Also to live a healthy life

and herbs—in green leaves
and spinach

Cows extract the vitamins
from grass and green things and transmute them into milk the most healthful of all foods

The origin of fat-soluble vitamins is in plants
but the rich vitamins necessary for human life are not easily accessible nor agreeable to the palate
in this original state

The "manufacture" of vitamins into food suitable for human consumption is done by the cow and given to us daily in her fresh milk

The human stomach is a more or less delicate mechanism easily disturbed when fed
the wrong foods

Milk and milk products are not alone the vitally necessary foods for humans
but they are the most easily digested

of the best known sources of vitamin which dissolves in the fat

Children and old people particularly require whole milk and their food should be cooked in skim milk

Milk contains vitamins which dissolve in water and especially for those in delicate health milk provides nourishment in a more complete form than any other food

When the child's foods do not contain enough vitamins growth stops and health is poor

Children cannot be well and happy if they do not eat enough of the fat-soluble vitamins

A glass of milk is the best tonic for boys and girls it makes them active and sturdy with energy for play and work

Have children drink more milk for through it you supply vitamins
the absolutely indispensable food requisite for health

sufficient milk are sickly and undersized—where milk is scarce
the death rate is high

Milk is the child's best food he should have at least a quart a day to build up the body and keep well and strong

Milk is the most nearly complete food

Satin Egg Shell Finish

RECONSTRUCTION!

Now, while the world is doing its "house cleaning," is a good time to begin a "reconstruction period" at home.

Whichever room you start with you will find need for B-H Satin Egg Shell Finish. Although intended for walls and ceilings it makes a beautiful egg-shell enamel on woodwork too. The Kitchen—Library—Bedroom—Hallway or Bath can be made brighter, more attractive and easier to keep clean by a coat of B-H Satin Egg Shell finish—any one of twelve shades.

Be sure to think of Bass-Hueter when considering a painting job—whether a room or an entire house—inside or out.

LUMBER FLEET URGED TO MEET NEEDS OF COAST

Overseas lumber trade of the Pacific coast will be crippled and a heavy financial loss incurred unless the United States Shipping Board takes immediate steps to supply a fleet of vessels adapted to the lumber industry, according to lumbermen of the bay cities, who say that there is a present shortage of 46 steamships and 40 sailing vessels, with a carrying capacity of 54,000,000 feet of lumber each trip. Lumbermen of California, Oregon and Washington will be hit hard, it is said, unless provision is made for moving lumber to foreign countries with greater despatch.

A delegation of lumber operators and shipping men will visit Washington, D. C., for the purpose of urging upon the shipping board the necessity of making provision for a lumber fleet adequate to meet Pacific coast requirements.

Lumbermen say there were in 1914 114 lumber-carrying steamers and 90 sailing vessels, with a carrying capacity of approximately 188,000,000 feet per trip. There are now 75 steamers and 55 sailing ships suitable for the handling of lumber.

It is expected that when normal conditions are restored there will be a greater demand from the foreign countries than during the pre-war days, and that a greater fleet will have to be provided.

Railway Clerks Are Invited to Oakland

An invitation has been sent by the Merchants' Exchange to James B. Forrester, grand president of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, now in session in Cincinnati, to hold the next convention of the grand lodge in Oakland. This action was taken at the suggestion of members of the local branch of railway clerks. In the letter of invitation the advantages of the Auditorium in this city as a place for holding the convention are pointed out.

Cotton Market

NEW YORK, May 7.—The cotton market opened steady today, but considerable irregularity was shown, near months being 1 to 8 points lower and late months 2 to 15 points higher than Monday's close. The market subsequently made further gains and at the end of the first twenty minutes was 12 to 20 points net higher.

Following were the closing quotations:

STOCK-BOND EXCHANGE

SAN FRANCISCO, May 7.—Heavy buying quickened the pace on the San Francisco Stock and Bond exchange today. Prices were generally higher. Oils opened at a higher level but were forced back a trifle on profit taking. Associated advanced to $92½ at the opening, eclipsed its former record mark, but eased off at the close at $90 3-8. Amalgamated followed the parent company, opening at $79½ and closing at $79 1-8 per share. There was considerable activity in Home Fire and Marine Insurance stock which held above the $44 mark. There was an unusual amount of trading in the sugar stocks. The active issues were all bid higher.

Oil — Mining

SAN FRANCISCO, May 7.—Trading in mining shares was scattered this morning, but a few material advances among the leaders kept the list in a fairly firm condition. Tonopah Divide, on opening sales, scored a sharp advance, and a late profit taking reaction failed to wipe out the early lead. Hasbrouck was up a few points and Brougher went from $1.80 to $1.85. Gold Zone dropped off to $1.85 after having advanced five points to $1.87½. Grimes was the most active of the Divide group but the heavy buying failed to improve the price beyond the gain of one point. Comstocks started slightly above yesterday's final level and stuck fast to their initial figures. Tonopah Extension strengthened and Macnamara continued to move forward.

On some days but three tides occur, the fourth occurring the following morning. Light-face type indicates a. m. tides. Heavy faced type indicates p. m.

SHIPBUILDERS HURRY TO SEND COMMITTEE EAST

California shipbuilders held another meeting this afternoon in the offices of Harrison S. Robinson in the First National Bank building to appoint the committee which will go east to protest against the cancellation of shipbuilding contracts by the government. Edward N. Hurley's telegram that, as chairman of the shipping board he would be glad to welcome such a committee, determined the shipbuilders upon their immediate appointment.

The meeting this afternoon was attended by representatives of the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corporation, Moore Shipbuilding Company, Hanlon Shipyard and Drydock Company, Union Shipbuilding Company and other firms of the bay district and south. Hurley's telegram, sent to Gavin McNab, read:

"Your telegram suggesting that the shipbuilders appoint a committee of practical men to visit Washington to discuss the shipbuilding situation has been received. Nothing would give me greater pleasure than to meet these gentlemen at the earliest possible date convenient for them, and, at your suggestion, I am wiring them today requesting that, if possible, they send a committee to confer with me in endeavoring to work out this problem.

"I am only trying to do what is best for the country as a whole, and, on account of the services rendered by the Pacific Coast shipbuilders during the war and the fact that such a large percentage of our ships are built on the Pacific, I feel that any plan which might be worked out without the counsel of the shipbuilders of the Pacific Coast would not be a well-considered plan.

"I therefore hope the committee will come to Washington at an early date so I may profit by their judgment in these matters."

Chicago May Become Butter, Egg Center

CHICAGO, May 6.—Members of the butter and egg board will late today vote upon a measure which, if adopted, will make this city the butter and egg center of the world and place the produce business under regulations which will standardize and stabilize the business along lines similar to the grain market.

A committee of twenty-five members of the butter and egg board have been canvassing the situation for the past month and will submit their report for approval today.

It is proposed to occupy a modern building to be known as the Produce Exchange, in which to house the project. The name of the present board will be changed to Produce Exchange of Chicago.

BUYING ORDERS HARDEN PRICES ON WALL STREET

NEW YORK, May 7. — Aside from the heaviness of Mexican Petroleum, presumably due to fresh disturbances in that country, stocks were active and strong at the opening of today's session. There was an accumulation of buying orders over the holiday, interests concentrating largely in shippings, oils, motors, sugars and tobaccos. United States Steel made no initial change, but hardened later with equipments, especially Pressed Steel Car and American car. In the railway group Canadian Pacific, U. P., Reading and New York Central made substantial additions to gains of the early week. The trend of the day's trading follows:

FORENOON—There was a strong tone to the trading, but dealings were in far smaller volume than they have been in some time past, and movements in most cases were confined to narrow limits. Steel common reflected continued absorption, advancing ⅜@99⅞. Pressed Steel Car made the greatest gain, opening up two points at 79½, and was followed by Sinclair Oil, which rose 1⅞ to 63⅝. Marine preferred also rose 1⅝, selling at 112¼.

The railway stocks were fairly active with Canadian Pacific the most prominent, advancing 1¼ to 169¼. Union Pacific and Southern Pacific both ranged fractionally lower.

Heath Club Thanks Citizens for Votes

Members of the Health club, the organization of members of the city fire department, have issued the following statement:

"To the Public: We wish to extend our sincere thanks for your overwhelming support of the two platoon ordinance. THE HEALTH CLUB."

The Waterfront

The Alaska fishing fleet with over 5000 men in all has left port and will be away until next September. Although a large pack is expected the price of salmon has fallen considerably. Salt salmon has dropped to almost one-third of last fall prices, and when the vessels return this fall both canned and salt salmon will again be at the old prices. Last year when the prices were high, several new canneries and salting stations started, and this year only one new plant has been erected in Alaska. It is reported that the Union Fish Co. is to establish a salting station in Bristol bay and will put up salmon. Power schooner Golden State sails today for Alaska, and has a full cargo of salt and provisions for the fishermen.

Ship Santa Clara of the Alaska Packers' fleet, which left Oakland April 1, has arrived at Blaine and reports that Thomas Berry, the cook of the ship, was washed overboard and drowned after the vessel was a few days out of this port. Berry resided at 513 Nineteenth street, Oakland, and as far as known he has no relatives here. His clothes have been sent to the United States Shipping commissioners; also a small sum of wages due him up to the time of his death.

The Golden Gate Asparagus Co. has purchased the gasoline schooner Belvedere from R. W. Woodward and will use her to haul asparagus from the Sacramento and San Joaquin rivers to the cannery. She will later be used as a river freighter to carry products from the river to the bay cities.

Whitelaw's wrecking steamer Greenwood left here yesterday for Point Reyes, where Captain E. G. Ahlstrom will try to salve some of the bark Albert which was wrecked there about three weeks ago while trying to make the Golden Gate. The captain of the Albert was drowned and no trace of his body has yet been found.

The five-masted schooner Rose Mahony is still at the Hanlon shipyard undergoing repairs and will be there for some time. On her last voyage the craft made a very fast trip under command of Captain Sorenson. She almost sailed her foremast out so a new one is being installed. She will load a cargo for an off-shore port.

Change of masters registered at the United States custom house: Captain Chas. Moss, steamer Helen; Captain C. de Bernardi, steamer Antioch; Captain A. W. Ahnstrom, schooner Charles Nelson.

Local Notice to Mariners — Humboldt bay entrance. Humboldt outside bar gas and whistling buoy, heretofore reported flashing irregularly, is now showing correct characteristic.

WEATHER

FORECAST.

Oakland and vicinity: Cloudy or foggy tonight and Thursday morning, fair during the day Thursday, gentle westerly winds.

Northern and Southern California: Tonight and Thursday fair, except cloudy or foggy near the coast tonight and in the morning, gentle westerly winds.

Sacramento valley: Fair, light southerly winds.

Santa Clara and San Joaquin valleys: Fair, light northwesterly winds.

Washington: Probably rain west, fair east, gentle southerly winds.

Oregon: Fair, except probably rain northwest portion, warmer east portion tonight, gentle southerly winds.

CONDITIONS.

A small depression is central over the Valley of the Colorado, causing cloudy or foggy weather along the coast and fair in the interior. The depression over Colorado yesterday has moved to the Lakes, giving light but gentle rain from Texas to the Lakes. It is warmer in the Plateau region and colder in the Plains states. Light to heavy frosts occurred in eastern Idaho and Oregon and killing frosts in Montana, Wyoming and North Dakota.

Conditions are favorable for rain in western Washington, northwestern Oregon and fair weather in other portions of this district with cloudy or foggy weather along the coast tonight.

G. H. WILLSON,
District Forecaster.

LEGAL NOTICES

NOTICE OF TRUSTEES' SALE.

In accordance with the terms and under the authority of a certain Deed of Trust duly made, executed and delivered by ISABEL C. PARKER and CHARLES J. PARKER, her husband, grantors, to WM. H. BROWN and IRENE R. BROWN, grantees and trustees, and ADELINE H. BROWN, beneficiary thereunder, dated July 27th, 1914, and recorded on the 1st day of August, 1914, in the office of the County Recorder of the County of Alameda, State of California, in Volume 2252 of Deeds, at page 440, and following, said Deed of Trust being so made and delivered to secure the payment of a certain Promissory Note of even date therewith; and according to the terms of said Promissory Note and Deed of Trust, and in pursuance of a written demand upon the undersigned trustees, by Adeline H. Brown, the beneficiary under said Deed of Trust, said Adeline H. Brown, now being the owner and holder of the note to secure the payment of which the aforesaid Deed of Trust was executed, declaring that default has been made in payment of the principal sum, interest and other sums due under said Note and Deed of Trust, and declaring the entire unpaid balance thereunder due and payable in accordance with the terms of said Deed of Trust and Note, and requesting and directing Wm. H. Brown and Irene R. Brown, trustees named in said Deed of Trust, to sell the real estate described therein to satisfy said indebtedness.

Now we, Wm. H. Brown and Irene R. Brown, the trustees named in said Deed of Trust, do hereby give notice that on the 29th day of May, 1919, at 10 o'clock A. M., of that day, at the front steps of the County Court House Building, on the west side of Broadway street, between Fourth and Fifth streets, in the City of Oakland, County of Alameda, State of California, we will sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in gold coin of the United States, that certain real property situated in the City of Oakland, County of Alameda, State of California, and which is particularly described as follows, to-wit:

Beginning at the point of intersection of the southeastern line of Twenty-sixth avenue with the north eastern line of Lot No. 14, in Block Lettered "E," as said lot and block are shown on the map hereinafter referred to; running thence southwesterly along said line of Twenty-sixth avenue thirty (30) feet; thence southeasterly parallel with said line of Lot No. 14, one hundred and eight and 66-100 (108.66) feet to a point in the southeastern line of Latham Terrace, as shown on said map, distant thereon southwesterly thirty (30) feet from the northeastern line of Lot No. 14; thence northeasterly along said line of Latham Terrace thirty (30) feet to the northeastern line of said Lot No. 14; thence northwesterly along said last-named line one hundred and eight and 20-100 (108.20) feet to the point of beginning.

Being a portion of Lot No. 14, in Block Lettered "E," as said lot and block are delineated and so designated upon that certain map entitled "Map of Latham Terrace, Oakland, Alameda County, Cal.," filed May 5, 1893, in Liber 17 of Maps, Page 81, in the office of the County Recorder of the said County of Alameda.

Together with the appurtenances.

Terms of Sale: Cash in gold coin of the United States on fall of hammer and acts of sale at purchaser's expense and title at purchaser's risk.

Said property is to be sold subject to any unpaid taxes or assessments, if any.

Dated: May 3rd, 1919.

BACCUS, EDWARDS, WILLIAMS ARE CITY ELECTION WINNERS

DR. JACKSON LOSER BY OVER 7000 BALLOTS

The election yesterday was another triumph for Mayor John L. Davie. The candidates he endorsed for commissioners—Baccus and Edwards—swept the city by overwhelming majorities. Harry G. Williams, Davie's choice for auditor and assessor, leads Le Ballister by over 3000 votes.

Mayor Davie now has complete control of the council and is in a position to carry out all the promises made to the people. With the votes of Baccus and Edwards pledged, the mayor's program should have smooth sailing through the council. Both Baccus and Edwards owe their election to Mayor Davie and have promised support to all his policies.

"I want to thank the people of Oakland," said Mayor Davie, "for their support for me in this election, for in the selection of candidates favorable to me they have placed in my hands the tools needed to build a greater city. I am as pleased at the election of Baccus, Edwards and Williams as I would be at my own election."

In the contest for school directors Mayor Davie made no endorsements. The incumbents were all re-elected with the single exception of Louis Aber who was defeated by Fred A. Campbell by a majority of 3729 votes. The contest between Dr. Joseph Loran Pease and Burton E. Grace was close, 525 votes separating the contestants. As the result of the election superintendent of schools Fred A. Hunter is assured of loyal support in the board for his policies during the next two years, as a clear majority of those chosen are in complete harmony with Hunter.

Both ordinances on the ballot were passed. One of these, the two platoon system for firemen, was vigorously campaigned for. The other, a liquor regulation, is of no importance, being an old regulation that missed the ballot on the general election two years ago, so had to go on the present ballot. According to the city clerk's office, the ordinance is not legal, as it provides that it shall go into effect in 1917.

Dr. Jackson today issued the following statement:

"I wish to thank my many friends who so loyally supported me.

"The citizens of Oakland elected Mayor Davie at the primary by an overwhelming majority, and he made the issue plain that he desired commissioners whom he named to work with him and the people responded to his wish."

Insurance Advice Is Given Men

Soldiers Are Urged to Keep Policy

"Do not give up your army insurance," is the advice of Ensign John W. Hedge, N. E. N., government insurance expert, who arrived in Oakland yesterday. Ensign Hedge will be at the Liberty Hut, City Hall Plaza today and Thursday during business hours for the purpose of giving advice and information to ex-servicemen regarding war insurance.

It is planned by the government to install in the recruiting office at the Liberty Hut an information bureau on the subject of insurance. After the departure of Ensign Hedge the work will be left in the charge of Chief Petty Officer W. S. Willeford and ex-servicemen are invited to use the service. The bureau will be supplied with all the latest information available on the subject of insurance and notices of all changes in war risk insurance will be forwarded to the officer in charge at the Liberty Hut.

SCALE OF RATES

"The government," said Ensign Hedge, "has already completed the scale of rates which will be charged when the policies are converted into any of teh following forms of insurance: Ordinary life, 20 and 30 year payment life, 20 and 30 year endowments and endowment policies maturing at the age of 62 years.

"The monthly insurance rates on insurance at the age of 25 years, for the different kinds of policies, for each $1000, is as follows:

Twenty-year payment life—$1.91.
Thirty-payment life—$1.53.
Twenty-year endowment—$3.33.
Thirty-year endowment—$2.09.
"Endowment maturing at age of 62 years—$1.68.

"These rates are approximately 20 per cent cheaper than any insurance concern charges and it is principally because all the charges and overhead expenses are taken care of by the government at no expense to the soldier.

"The government intends to give every man who held insurance an opportunity to take advantage of the new conversion features, and it does not hold that those soldiers who have permitted their insurance to lapse, will be the losers thereby in this instance.

"TERM INSURANCE"

"The present form of policy is known as term insurance, and will continue in force for a period of five years after date of the declaration of peace, with the option of converting it into any of the several forms of policies.

"Under any and all of the different forms of policies, ex-service men will participate in the dividends, and at any time after one year may surrender the policy at the full reserve value. All policies are unassignable, non-taxable and free from all claims of creditors. The insured has the right to change the beneficiary at any time without the consent of the beneficiary, and the policies are free from all restrictions as to travel, occupation or military or naval service," explains Ensign Hedge.

"Provision is made whereby holders of the present policies may convert a part of the policy and continue the remainder on the present form, thereby not causing anyone to give up any portion of the maximum amount of the policy held. The policies will be issued in sums ranging from $1000 to $10,000 in multiples of $500. Should the policy become a claim by death, payment of $5.75 a month is guaranteed for 240 months for each $1000, and should the insured become totally or permanently disabled, payments of installments will continue during the life of the insured while so totally and permanently disabled."

VOTING BOOTHS OPEN TO SELL VICTORY BONDS

Oakland's election booths will be opened tomorrow for another act of American citizenship.

The booths have been given over to the Victory Loan committee, whose workers will take subscriptions all day Thursday, from 9 a. m. till 7:30 p. m.

"Go to your election booth and put over the Victory Loan," says P. S. Luttrell of the Victory Loan home canvass department.

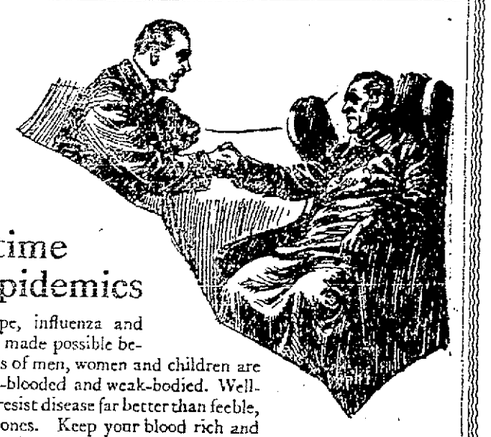

Maximum Delay of Month Expected

PARIS, May 7.—The Petit Parisien says there will be a maximum delay of one month before signing of the peace treaty.

GERMANS ARE BLOWN UP IN BELGIAN CAMP

BRUSSELS, Tuesday, May 6.—(By The Associated Press)—A depot of German ammunition containing shells and bombs of every caliber and many gas shells has been exploding since yesterday morning at the railway station at Groenendael, six miles south of Brussels. The depot has been under guard of 150 Belgian soldiers and 600 German prisoners have been at work near it. It is believed there are many killed and wounded.

Many houses in the neighborhood have collapsed and windows and roofs for two miles around have been shattered.

Springtime epidemics of colds, grippe, influenza and pneumonia are made possible because thousands of men, women and children are constantly thin-blooded and weak-bodied. Well-fortified bodies resist disease far better than feeble, poison-clogged ones. Keep your blood rich and red with right habits of living. At the first sign of a run-down condition take Gude's Pepto-Mangan.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan

"The Red Blood Builder"

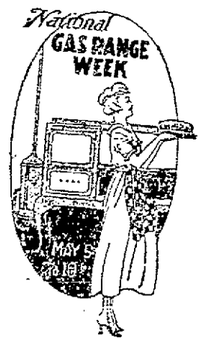

Better than anything else to take in Spring is this splendid general tonic, appetizer, blood builder and purifier. It supplies the red cells with elements that increase their number and oxygen-carrying capacity. Thus they are able to carry and distribute oxygen to every cell and tissue. And oxygen is health, vigor and vitality—the breath of life itself. Gude's Pepto-Mangan is easy to digest, exceedingly pleasant to taste. Universally prescribed by the medical profession.

SUFFERED 3 YEARS WITH PIMPLES

And Blackheads On Face and Arms. Itched. Cuticura Heals.

"I had been a sufferer from pimples and blackheads on my face and arms for three years. The pimples were scattered over my face, and they itched so that I used to scratch and I did not even sleep. I found out about Cuticura so I sent for a sample. I then bought more, and after using two cakes of Soap and two boxes of Ointment I was healed." (Signed) Laurence Granado, 117 W.
